The fact is spreading to the cities around us and Elmira and Binghamton will send representatives. Some green races will furnish zest for the day by Rishel, Crawford and Mulligan's interests.

NATHAN NOT THE PRINCIPAL

Suit Case Mystery to Be Fully Revealed by Another Arrest.
 PITTSBURG, Oct. 31.—It is the firm conviction of every one who is in touch with the case that while a charge of murder has been lodged against Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the "Shepherd King" company, in connection with the Winthrop suit case mystery, he is not the principal in the affair and is held because it is believed he can throw more light on the crime than any one else.

That the police have a complete story from Nathan, telling all he knows and suspects, is not denied, but aside from a few statements that have leaked out concerning the examination the authorities refuse to disclose the information obtained until after the arrival of the Boston officers. The police say that the publication sooner of Nathan's story might interfere with the purposes of the Boston authorities.

The determination of whether Nathan will be requested to return to Boston is also postponed pending these officers arrival.

It is known that Nathan admitted to Superintendent of Detectives Thomas A. McQuaide and Superintendent of Police Alexander Wallace that he was intimate with Miss Geary, and in his statement he implicated a woman who, he says, conducted a maternity home in Tremont street, Boston. The Boston police were immediately notified by McQuaide, and they started out in search of the woman. When they have arrested the woman who conducted the place where Miss Geary went for treatment the police believe that the mystery will be cleared up. Nathan said he was not responsible for Miss Geary going to a hospital.

That the crime was done by a woman is the belief of the police officials. No hardened criminal, they say, would have disposed of the body by cutting it up and packing it in a suit case and then allowing the case to float. The authorities believe that Nathan was unaware of the murder of the girl and that he had no part in that crime, but they seem to think that he is responsible for her receiving treatment.

A SANTA FE WRECK

California Express Derailed on Missouri River Bank.

FIFTEEN DEAD AND THIRTY HURT

Accident Caused by Defective Rail Entire Train Was Ditched and Coaches Piled Up After Hitting Wall of Rock.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 31.—In a wreck on the Santa Fe one mile east of here fifteen persons were killed and thirty were injured, some probably fatally. The wreck occurred on the Missouri river bank and was caused by a defective rail. The engine jumped the track, and the entire train was thrown into the ditch and turned over. The train was the regular California express from Chicago.

The train consisted of eleven cars and the Pullmans and the coaches piled up on top of it. Most of the injured were in the smoker.

The train consisted of one mail car, one baggage car, one coach, one chair car, four tourists' sleeping cars, two standard Pullmans and one dining car. The passenger list was composed largely of colonization tourists.

Nearly all the sleeping cars remained on the track, and the forward cars bore the brunt of the shock. None of the passengers in the sleeping cars was hurt. The day coach in front of the chair car furnished the greatest number of killed and injured.

The great natural wall of rough stone into which the cars were thrown tore the sides off the day coaches, and passengers were ground against the wall and either killed or badly injured.

One of the first bodies removed was that of the dining car porter, Randolph Richardson. When killed he was passing through one of the rear cars and had just made the announcement, "Last call for breakfast."

J. D. Whitmore, one of the injured, was in the smoker, which had an old fashioned coal stove heater. He was thrown in such a way that one leg was jammed into the broken stove in contact with the live coals. He was so covered with debris that he could not get out, and his foot was burned so badly that it had to be amputated.

Mining Plant Destroyed.
 ANGELS, Cal., Oct. 31.—The Lightner Hoisting works and forty stamping mills were destroyed by fire; loss, $150,000. Sixteen men who were in the mine escaped through the shaft of an adjoining mine.

Broke His Collar Bone.
 HAMILTON, N. Y., Oct. 31.—E. J. Anderson, '09, of the Colgate university football team broke his collar bone in a practice game here, disabling him for the rest of this season.

A CYCLONE

Could not tumble down the prices as we have done today. You remember our first nine days' sale, don't you? What wonderful bargains you got. That sale gave you the best Clothing, Shoes, Ladies' Coats, Suits and Furs at one-third, one-half and one quarter less than the former prices.

THIS SALE STARTING TODAY

will not only equal, but far surpass any that have gone before. It will be one of the most remarkable, unmanageable, money saving sales ever known in the business history of this valley. In spite of the great rush for the past twelve days which daily thronged our store from early morning until late at night. When thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of merchandise has been distributed amongst the homes of the people of this valley and in the radius of fifty miles around, yet our stock is still unbroken. We emphasize this one fact, and that you are fully aware of.

CASH IS WHAT WE NEED. CASH IS WHAT WE WANT. CASH IS WHAT WE MUST HAVE.

Do you value your dollars and cents? If you do, this is just the place where one dollar will do as much as three elsewhere. Our stock is too large to quote each and every article. WE POSITIVELY IMPRESS upon your minds that you will find more Men's and Children's Clothing, Men's, Boys', Ladies' and Children's Shoes. The largest assortment of Ladies' Cloaks, Skirts, Suits and Furs shown by any firm under one roof, doing business in Bradford County at Cyclone prices.
