DEMAND ABDICATION

Spirit of Revolt in Russia Still Spreading.

ODESSA LOYALISTS MURDER AND ROB

Five Thousand Reported Killed and Wounded—Jewish Dead Strew the Streets—Authorities Are Paralyzed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—From nearly all parts of the Russian empire comes news indicating that the spirit of revolt is still spreading. In Finland the red flag has everywhere been raised and placed on all official buildings, side by side with the national ensign.

The democratic and revolutionary parties have succeeded in holding a great mass meeting at the capital, at which nothing less than the abdication of the czar and the formation of a republic was demanded.

At Odessa anarchy is rampant. Killing and plundering by bands formed of hundreds of "loyalists" continued. Attacks on the Hebrews are incessant. The nights are made hideous by bodies of "loyalists" with whom the police are fraternizing through the principal streets bearing national flags, portraits of the emperor and ikons, singing the national hymn, smashing everything in their way and looting shops and houses.

A late dispatch from Odessa says: "The casualties are believed to have amounted to 5,000 killed and wounded. In the Jewish quarter bodies still strew the streets and sidewalks.

"Jewish women and children were strangled and hacked to pieces in the streets where the mobs gained the upper hand. A Red Cross doctor said that the Kishineff horrors were repeated a hundredfold.

"The students alone saved the city from wholesale sack and massacre. The military are now placing a hundred machine guns at various points. Twenty-six cases of wounded have just passed my door.

"The sound of firing is again moving westward toward the Jewish quarters. The mobs swear they will not leave a single Jew alive.

"General Kaubars was called to the balcony of the palace by 5,000 loyalists, carrying imperial portraits and ikons and singing the national hymn. The general earnestly entreated the assemblage to disperse and go home, but with ringing cheers the loyalists resumed their march through the city."

Hospital wagons pass through the streets incessantly carrying off the killed, wounded and mutilated. The population is panic stricken.

Troops wreaked terrible vengeance on occupants of three houses from the balconies of which shots had been fired upon them. They immediately stormed the houses and with unceasing barbarity massacred all the inhabitants. It is asserted that the persons who fired on the troops were disguised policemen who purposely provoked the troops.

The city is a dismal sight. Streets are filled with Cossack patrols and flying detachments of the Red Cross, which follow bands of murderous rioters. Firing has been uninterrupted the whole day. Many hundreds have been killed or wounded.

A Cossack patrol attacked the student militia, which was courageously trying to stop the bands who are massacring and pillaging, principally in the Hebrew quarter. The looters openly divide the goods, the Cossacks in many cases participating in the proceeds. The rector of the university has telegraphed Count Witte imploring him to immediately dismiss Governor Reinhardt, who is held responsible for the outbreak, as otherwise a catastrophe is unavoidable.

At Warsaw the Social Democrats have issued a proclamation calling for a revolution. Polish flags were displayed from many balconies, and a mass meeting of all political parties was held in Philharmonie hall to discuss the situation. Great crowds surrounding the building sang patriotic songs.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

President Calls on Nation to Observe Thursday, Nov. 30.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt has declared Thursday, Nov. 30, Thanksgiving day. The proclamation is as follows:

"When nearly three centuries ago the first settlers came to the country which has now become this great republic they founded not only hardship and privation, but terrible risk to their lives. In those grim years the custom grew of setting apart one day in each year for a special service of thanksgiving to the Almighty for preserving the people through the changing seasons.

"The custom has now become national and followed by immemorial usage. We live in easier and more plentiful times than our forefathers, the men who with rugged strength faced the rugged days, and yet the dangers to national life are quite as great now as at any previous time in our history.

"It is eminently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for praise and thanksgiving to the giver of good and at the same time that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received, should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings and pledge themselves solemnly and in good faith to strive to overcome them.

"During the past year we have been blessed with bountiful crops. Our business prosperity has been great. No other people has ever stood on as high a level of material well being as ours now stands. We are not threatened by foes from without. The foes from whom we should pray to be delivered are our own passions, appetites and follies, and against these there is always need that we should war.

"Therefore I now set apart Thursday, the 30th of this November, as a day of thanksgiving for the past and of prayer for the future, and on that day I ask that throughout the land the people gather in their homes and places of worship and in rendering thanks unto the Most High for the manifold blessings of the past year consecrate themselves to a life of cleanliness, honor and wisdom, so that this nation may do its allotted work on the earth in a manner worthy of those who founded it and of those who preserved it."

STUART PIERSON'S DEATH.

Police Say Boy Was Chloroformed and Tied to Rail.

MOUNT VERNON, O., Nov. 3.—Buried beneath a culvert 200 feet from a spot where Stuart Pierson, a Kenyon college student, was ground to death by a train, the authorities have found three lengths of blood stained rope and a wad of absorbent cotton also saturated.

County Prosecutor Stillwell expresses a firm belief that the boy was chloroformed, the cotton saturated and bound across his face and that then he was tied across the railroad tracks as a part of his initiation into a college fraternity. The authorities believe that the cotton was removed afterward and the boy left stupified. On these grounds the prosecutor will carry the case to the grand jury.

Prosecutor Stillwell said that several persons were under surveillance in connection with the case and that they might be taken into custody at any moment.

That young Pierson, who was killed when awaiting initiation into the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, was tied to the railroad tracks has all along been believed by the police.

War in Royal Arcanum. BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Attorney General Parker of Massachusetts has been asked to petition the supreme court for an injunction restraining the supreme council of the Royal Arcanum from enforcing the assessment rates adopted at the convention at Atlantic City last April and ratified at Put-in-Bay, O. Those who are acting in the matter include residents of New York, Detroit, Paterson, N. J., and Providence, R. I., as well as several Massachusetts members.

Folk Denounced Political Bosses. CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—Under the auspices of the Citizens' Municipal party and in support of the Democratic ticket, which had received the endorsement of that party, Governor Folk of Missouri last night addressed a mass meeting in Music hall, discussing municipal politics in particular. The political boss "who dictates nominations for office and controls officers after they get into office for personal ends" was denounced vigorously.

Arcanum Funds Attached. WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 3.—All the funds in the hands of the two local councils of the Royal Arcanum here were attached by the sheriffs upon a process from Mecklenburg county superior court, where a suit against the supreme council of the order has been instituted by former Judge Armstrong Burwell and others in a protest against the recent increase of the insurance rates.

Crawford and William Howard are held by the New York police. Crawford has made a confession concerning his complicity in the dress suit case tragedy. It is said.

ROOT FAVORS JEROME

Secretary of State Advocates His Re-election.

CHOATE'S PRAISE FOR CANDIDATE.

District Attorney of New York Looked Upon as Modern Moses to Dispel Clouds of Political Bossism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—To any one who attended the crowded mass meeting of the prominent lawyers in Carnegie hall in support of District Attorney Jerome there is no doubt about the fact that, stimulated by Mr. Jerome's campaigning, the voters of New York city are tired of machine rule and are ready to revolt from the party bosses. Such enthusiasm seldom accompanies a big meeting during a presidential campaign.

The Hon. Joseph H. Choate was cheered again and again for himself and for his attitude in regard to Jerome's candidacy.

Mr. Jerome's entrance was dramatic and brought forth more applause than any other candidate has received this fall. The house stood up and cheered itself hoarse for three minutes, and it was as much longer before quiet could be restored so that the meeting could proceed. There were 4,000 persons present, and the only reason there wasn't four times more was because no more could get tickets.

Every one there looked upon Jerome's re-election as assured and upon that fact as a vindication of American citizenship. They greeted him and spoke of him among themselves as a modern Moses, come to lead them from the bondage of the political bosses. Every one felt that it was a privilege to have been there, and they were right, for Jerome's campaign is unique. It is history making and bids fair to alter for years the course of local politics.

Elihu Root, secretary of state, has written a letter to Charles A. Flammer, congratulating him on his withdrawal from the Republican ticket and advocating the re-election of Mr. Jerome. Mr. Root said: "I congratulate you upon your withdrawal from the race for the district attorneyship. It was public spirited and wise and shows the qualities which have made you such a good judge and such a good citizen. The selection of a district attorney is not so much a question of one party against another as it is of all honest people against all the crooks and criminals of every kind. Jerome now seems to have a good chance of election, and his election would be a great thing for New York. He has vigor and fearlessness and enthusiasm in the cause of justice and hates a thief and cannot be lashed up or put to sleep by any influence whatsoever. Every man who cares about having a decent, lawabiding town ought to be for him."

Higgins Is Sorry. ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Governor Higgins, who last week expressed his gratification when Charles Flammer resigned as Republican candidate for district attorney of New York in favor of William Travers Jerome, voiced his regret that the courts had refused to compel the placing of Mr. Jerome's name on the Republican official ballot. When he was told of the decision of the appellate division he said, "Well, I'm sorry, very sorry."

Insurance Injunction. BOSTON, Nov. 3.—An order summoning the officers and directors of the Union Health and Accident company, an assessment insurance concern of this city, to show cause why an injunction should not be issued to prohibit the transaction of further business and why a receiver should not be appointed was granted by Judge Lathrop of the supreme court. Attorney General Parker is the complainant on information from Insurance Commissioner Cutting, alleging that the company has failed to honor legitimate claims of policy holders for death and disability.

ROCKLAND, Me., Nov. 3.—A new speed record for American battleships was established by the Rhode Island on her official standardization trial trip over the measured mile course off Owl's head, during which she steamed one mile at a rate of 19.33 knots an hour. OPENING OF AQUEDUCT.

Bedouin, Favorite, Won Handicap, Beating Coy Maid.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Bedouin, backed down from 10 to 1 to 5 to 1, favorably, easily won the Aqueduct handicap, the feature of the opening of the Aqueduct meeting, defeating Coy Maid, a long shot, by two lengths, with Santa Catalina, an added starter, third. Colonial Girl, who opened favorite at 5 to 1, but gradually went back, owing to the plunge on Bedouin, was kicked at the post by Alma Dufour and was finally withdrawn.

The start was good, and Gold Rose went out in the front, followed by Bedouin and Coy Maid. They ran in this order to the turn into the stretch, where O'Neill sent Bedouin to the front and remained there. Arkhira, the heavily played 1 to 2 favorite, secured an easy victory in the Bellerose selling stakes. He went to the front at the start and won by three lengths. He was bid up to $3,000, an advance of $1,500 over his entered selling price. The stable bid the customary $5 and kept the horse. Summaries:

Tommy Daly Knocked Out. BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—Before the Eureka Athletic club last night Kid Sullivan of Washington knocked out Tommy Daly of Brooklyn in the eighth of what was to have been a fifteen round fight.
