BATTENBERG'S VISIT

Brought Message of Good Will From King Edward.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT CAPITAL.

Admiral Prince Presented by British Ambassador to Roosevelt, Who Welcomed Him to the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg was received by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House when the prince delivered a personal message of good will from King Edward to President Roosevelt, after being presented to the president by Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador.

The presentation was made the occasion for a brilliant reception. The British ambassador and Lady Durand gave a state dinner to their distinguished house guest, followed by a large reception and ball. Not since Prince Henry of Prussia was a guest of the German embassy at Washington has a royal visitor been the recipient of greater honors than those with which Britain's admiral prince has been welcomed to the national capital.

Save for the absence of military honors the prince's entry to the capital has been invested with as much ceremony as that which made memorable the greeting to the Russian prince several years ago.

When Prince Louis and Sir Mortimer Durand arrived at the White House in the ambassador's open landau the party was met at the main entrance by the president's military and naval aids and escorted to the blue room, where a distinguished company awaited their arrival. In a few moments the great carved wood doors swung open, and the president and Mrs. Roosevelt entered. The prince was presented by Sir Mortimer Durand, and the former immediately delivered the royal message to the president. The prince then presented the members of his staff and the commanding officers of his squadron.

Both the president and Mrs. Roosevelt were markedly cordial and hearty in their welcome, the president expressing the hope that every moment of the visit of the British admiral in American waters would prove enjoyable to them. The president recalled the generous hospitality with which American naval officers are always received in British ports. The president and the prince then entered into an earnest talk about the various problems of a modern navy. The prince was impressed with the detailed and technical knowledge shown by the president in his discussion of various types of warships.

Present at the reception were: Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks, Miss Roosevelt, the British ambassador and Lady Durand, Miss Durand and the other members of the embassy, Secretary of State and Mrs. Caffery, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Robley D. Evans, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Charles H. Davis, Rear Admiral Willard H. Brownson and Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Bacon.

Waymen Men Refuse to Answer. WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Robbins of the Armour car lines and Traffic Manager Sprague of the Southern Pacific railroad declined to answer questions put to them by the interstate commerce commission in the private car line inquiry, both acting under instructions of their counsel. The examination of Mr. Robbins was intended to show that the Armour car lines, through Armour & Co. or other concerns controlled by the same interests, is engaged in business other than that of leasing cars to railroads and refrigerating perishable shipments.

Fatal Handover Near Hell Gate. PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 4.—The steamer Horatio Hall of the Maine Steamship company, which ran down and sank an empty coal barge in Hell Gate, New York harbor, has arrived here, but from Captain Johnson or his subordinates on the ship it was impossible to get an account of the accident. On board the steamer are Captain Charles Anderson of the sunken barge, the Marie Augusta, and his wife. Mrs. Anderson is suffering from burns sustained by a fall against the galley stove at the time of the collision.

Schwab Pays Off His Mortgage. ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.—C. H. Schwab, who came to Allentown to attend a funeral, satisfied the largest mortgage ever entered in Lehigh county's recorder's office. It was for $10,000 and was given by the United States Shipbuilding company to the Colonial Trust company of New York. It covered the property of the Bethlehem Steel company, located in this county. The mortgage was entered here Aug. 12, 1902.

Architect Fell or Jumped to Death. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Louis Theodore Levy, a French architect, with offices in New York, either fell or jumped from a window in McAllister street and was crushed to death on the cement sidewalk, forty feet below.

MRS. TODD'S DEATH.

Autopsy of Aged New Yorker Points to Murder.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—That Mrs. Margaretta Todd, the owner of the Von Hoffman apartment hotel, whose body was found near the Reading tracks in Philadelphia, was dead or at least fatally injured before the train that cut off both legs struck her, is the belief formed by Coroner Scholer after the autopsy was performed upon the body here.

When the autopsy was finished Coroner Scholer made the following statement: "We have discovered something of great interest and importance. We found that eight of the woman's ribs were broken, six on the right side and two on the left. The sternum was likewise broken at the fourth rib. I am of the opinion and the other physicians present have come to the same conclusion, that these injuries could not have occurred by being hit by a train without external abrasions being made."

"There were no external evidences on the skin—nothing at all that gave us forewarning of what we have found." "How could those injuries have happened?" "By some one kneeling on the body," replied Coroner Scholer. "Of course we are not yet finished, and I do not like to make any conjectures too soon, but if the body had been hit by a train and those injuries resulted it seems to us that there would be decided and plain signs on the skin, which there are not, and which would of necessity be there in case the pressure of heavy weight caused the several fractures."

"What about the clothing?" "The corsets and clothing are intact. There is no blood nor any sign of tearing by having been hit violently."

BANKER, SECOND CHOICE, WON. Glen Cove Stakes at Aqueduct-Favorite, Gamara, Beaten. NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Banker, second choice, easily defeated the 11 to 20 favorite, Gamara, in the Glen Cove selling stakes at Aqueduct. Gamara was the pacesetter to the stretch, where Banker took the lead and won by two lengths in front of Gamara, who in turn beat Jennie McCabe, the only other starter; by six lengths Banker was bid up to $2,500 and secured by David Gibson. Three favorites won Summaries.

Good Racing at Nassau. NASHUA, N. H., Nov. 4.—Good racing was the order at the Nassau track. Hal Patron, the favorite in the 2:13 pacing, did not show up well, and after Melpomene had taken the first and third heats Cox was put up behind the favorite in place of Tracey. Cox, however, could not bring Hal Patron in the lead under the wire, Melpomene winning the fourth heat and race.

BOSTON DOCTOR HELD

Prisoner Charged With Cutting Up Miss Geary's Body.

HER HEAD WAS SUNK IN HARBOR.

Arrest of Crawford and Howard at New York Led to Medical's Capture—Search Being Made For the Girl's Head. BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Dr. Percy D. McLeod of 187 Huntington avenue, this city, was arrested on the charge of criminal malpractice in connection with the suit case mystery. The arrest was made on information furnished by Chief Walsh from New York. Dr. McLeod is held on the charge that he was the person who dismembered the body of Susanna Geary.

It is alleged that Dr. McLeod was called into the case after the first operation was performed and that he performed a second operation of a desperate nature in a vain attempt to save the life of the young woman. Miss Geary failing to recover, it is alleged that Dr. McLeod in an effort to conceal the crime dismembered the body. These dismembered parts were placed in two dress suit cases and a small bag and, according to the confessions of Crawford and Howard, dropped by them into the harbor.

So far the head, which was placed in a small bag weighted with shot, has not been found, but it is believed that the police have been told approximately where it was dropped overboard. It is believed that it will soon be recovered. Dr. McLeod is about thirty-five years of age and is married.

Chief Watts informed the officials here that the confession of Crawford in New York included the specific accusation that Dr. McLeod was the person who dismembered the body of the chorus girl. Immediately upon receipt of this message an inspector called up the doctor's office on the telephone and made an appointment. The physician kept the appointment and was at once arrested.

From Captain Dugan it was learned that last Monday night two headquarters inspectors had visited Dr. McLeod at his home. They drove him to the office of Pawbrock Berkman, who sold the suit cases. The pawbrocker had stated that Dr. McLeod "looked like the man who purchased the cases."

Dr. McLeod was detained by inspectors at the instigation of Captain Dugan. He was at once taken to police headquarters, where he was questioned by Captain Dugan, and afterward to the office of District Attorney H. J. Soghrie, who has assumed personally the direction of the commonwealth's case against the arrested men.

Dr. Percy D. McLeod is registered as a member of the Massachusetts Medical society. According to Captain Dugan, Dr. McLeod has practically admitted that he dismembered the body of Susanna Geary.

Confronted by witnesses from Boston who positively identified them, William Howard and Louis Crawford threw up their hands in police headquarters at New York and admitted that they bought the suit cases in which the body of Susanna Geary was packed after dismemberment and that they dropped the cases into Boston bay. They have been remanded back to the custody of the police until Monday.

Inspector Watt and Superintendent Pierce of the Boston police department went to New York with Timothy Howard, a cabman; Meyer Rubin and Joseph Berkman, pawbrokers, and Meyer Kaufman, Berkman's clerk. Timothy Howard is the cabman who drove Crawford and William Howard to the East Boston ferry, from which they threw their greivous burdens. The pawbrokers and the clerk are the men who sold the suit cases.

LIENCHOW MASSACRE.

Details of Murder of Missionaries by Chinese Mob.

HONGKONG, Nov. 4.—The massacre at the American Presbyterian mission at Lienchow, when five persons were killed and two severely wounded by a mob of Chinamen, was caused by the action of two members of the mission, the daughter of Dr. Machie and a deaconess, in endeavoring to dissuade a number of Chinese worshippers from offering prayers to an idol.

The two women are said to have seized the image which the Chinamen were worshipping and refused to return it.

The mob destroyed all the American missionary establishments and subjected the missionaries to many outrages. The bodies of the five persons who were killed were thrown into the river. Six French priests living in the vicinity were not harmed.

There is no fear of further trouble at Lienchow. A Chinese mandarin dispatched soldiers to the scene as soon as he heard of the trouble, but they arrived too late to save the missionaries.

A Canton dispatch says that Dr. Machie requested the removal of a street theater near the hospital on account of the noise. This request incensed the Chinese, who, becoming violent, attacked the hospital.

The mob then paraded the streets exhibiting a skeleton used in the instruction of the medical class and alleging that it was an example of the foreigners' inhumanity to the Chinese people.

Becoming frenzied, the crowd burned the hospital, the girls' school and the residences of the missionaries.

Dr. Machie, Mrs. Machie, their ten-year-old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, Dr. Chestnut and Miss Patterson took refuge in a cave. The mob pursued them and killed all except Dr. Machie and Miss Patterson, who escaped to the Yamen. Dr. Machie was badly wounded.

The American gunboat Callao and two Chinese gunboats, with members of the American board of missions, are proceeding to the scene of the massacre.

AMNESTY UKASE OUT

Osar's Proclamation of Pardon to Political Prisoners.

KISHINEFF MASSACRES RENEWED.

So Called Patriotic Bands of Murderers Devastate Jewish Houses and Shops at Nikolaiiev and Odessa—Pillage in Provinces.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—The amnesty ukase has been signed by the czar, which means the release from jail of all political prisoners. The emperor refused to include in this class political murderers and persons who have attempted assassination for political purposes since 1860.

It is officially announced that the government has granted freedom of the press. The restrictive regulations are annulled and the issue of fresh restrictions prohibited.

A workmen's secretly printed paper here says: "We have freedom of meeting, but our meetings are surrounded by troops. Freedom of speech is given, but the censorship remains. Freedom of learning is given, but the university is occupied by troops. Inviolability of person is given, but the prisons are filled with arrested men. Witte is given, but Trepoif remains. A constitution is given, but the autocracy remains. All is given and nothing is given."

The "loyalist" council has issued a notice pointing out the necessity of arming workers for a decisive struggle for the convocation of a constituent assembly based upon universal suffrage with a view to the formation of a democratic republic.

Three railway stations have been burned between Odessa and Smerinka, and the postal service has been suspended. Collisions between armed forces continue in three districts. Casualties are believed to number about 600.

The national holiday in celebration of the anniversary of the emperor's accession to the throne was marked by the formal raising of the general strike in St. Petersburg. While the railroad strike has not yet been declared off, many of the railroad men are returning to work, and trains are being got through.

Deploable rioting in the provinces are still in progress, especially in the south. The most horrible stories of massacre and pillage by mobs and attacks upon Jews continue to pour in.

A dispatch from Kishineff says: "A horrible massacre has occurred here. Hundreds have been killed. All the hospitals, pharmacies and hotels are full of wounded and mutilated persons."
