A Superb Showing of Suits Coats and Furs

First let us call your attention to the elegance of Wooltex garments, which is the result of intelligent study of fashion requirements. A combination of the best ideas, of the most artistic designers of Paris and America is plainly evident in the Wooltex styles.

Every particle of material, as well as the workmanship put into Wooltex garments undergoes the most rigid inspection: even the sewing thread is pure silk. All materials are thoroughly tested and shrunk before cut. All linings and interlinings are of the best and most durable.

Every garment is carefully moulded into correct shape by expert tailors, therefore insuring a perfect and lasting fit. For actual comfort or long service and absolute satisfactory wear Wooltex is unequalled.

Costs from $13.37 to $27.50. Suits from $18.50 to $33.50. Ask for Wooltex; you cannot fail to appreciate the superior merit of these garments.

CORDIAL WELCOME

EXTENDED PASTOR

Rev. Mr. Allen Was Tendered a Fine Reception at the Baptist Church Last Night

Athens—A reception and welcome was given the new pastor of the Baptist church and his family last evening. The church was most tastefully decorated and an excellent program was carried out. All of the local pastors were present besides two from Sayre. The program opened with a musical selection by the choir, followed by prayer by Dr. Simpson. Rev. W. H. Sawtelle made the address of welcome. He said he had been called upon to perform many a similar duty but it was always a pleasure. Rev. Will Kelley spoke of the welcome that all denominations were ready to give Mr. Allen in his labors for Christ. Rev. M. B. Wood of West Sayre extended a cordial welcome to Mr. Allen in that vicinity. Rev. I. W. Bingham of Sayre made some excellent remarks after which the company repaired to the parlors where an excellent repast was served. Mr. Allen enters upon the pastoral relations of the Baptist church with the most flattering prospects and he may be assured of the support of the church and community.
