Election of Mayor Will Be a Hot Fight Tomorrow.

HEARST. M'CLELLAN AND IVINS.

Herald Says Situation Is Confusing Party Lines Broken-Chaos Reigns. Uprising Against Bossism. Candidates Confident.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.-New York is stirred to its depths on the eve of the sessors' lists.

The Herald says the election of Mr Jerome as district attorney seems to be reasonably certain.

The mayoralty situation is confusing. The contest is between Mayor McClei mer-they worked toward this end. lan and Mr. Hearst, with Mr. Ivins third. borne, 1,136; Shearn, 530. The outlook would seem to be such that the work done at the polls on election day will be the determining factor in the struggle.

Indeed, the temper of the public is such that almost any result is possible. There is party chaos on a larger scale, and the confusion extends to all parties. There is an uprising against bosses and machines, and it only remains to be seen whether the revolt will be far reaching enough to over throw them both on election day.

It is perfectly clear that Mr. Jerome is overwhelmingly the pre-election choice of the citizens of Manhattan W. A supreme effort will be made by Republican, Democrat and third ticket campaign management to see that the full vote is polled and, more important, properly accounted for.

The candidates were interviewed. Mr. Ivins said: "I am absolutely conadent of my election. The Republican organization will give me a practically solid vote. Assurances already received privately as well as publicly from the independent vote make a total of at least 245,000 votes. Mr. Jerome said, "I think we are as sure to win as anything can be." About 600,000 postal cards sent out by Tammany Hall as a part of its campaign literature were seized at the postoffice by order of Postmaster Will cox as scurrilous matter and confis

Three Children Dead-Many Wounded at Ishpeming, Mich. ISHPEMING, Mich., Nov. 6.-Three are injured, one fatally, as the result of an explosion here which completely destroyed the Miners' National bank.

The dead are Steven Goodman, aged twelve years; Alice McGee, aged ten years, and Edward McGrath, aged twelve years.

James F. Mullen was fatally injurad and twelve others more or less so. A gas leakage in the basement of the bank building was primarily responsible for the explosion and loss of life. Gas was detected coming from the building, and two workmen went into the basement with lighted candles to investigate. The flame evidently ignited the gas in the basement, for a remendous explosion followed. The two workmen were blown through a basement window and landed uninjured in an open box car standing on a nearby track. The building was completely wrecked.

The three children killed were pass ing the building on their way home from church and were caught in the falling debris. All the teams in the city were summoned to the scene, and the work of moving the huge piles of debris and extricating those under them was rushed. The explosion broke windows in many stores in the business district and scaltered the papers gether with thirty pounds of loose shot, and documents of the bank for blocks

We have made a careful investigation locally, also referring the matter to our representatives in all the principal cities. We feel justified in saying that the beer which we find to surpass all others in purity and cleanliness is made by the Dotterweich Brewing Co., of Olean, N. Y.

The above-named firm stands high in the commercial world, and is well known for its business tact and enterprise, as well as for its integrity. This beer serves as a tonic as well as a beverage. We have no interest in making this commendation, except to give credit where credit is due, as has always been our policy, and we have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending this beer to our readers. We advise all patrons to call for this beer, especially for invalids and those of impaired health.
