responded to the toast "Kansas' Message to Missouri." said: "I want to say to you not as an alarmist, but as a slight contributor to the American awakening, that unless we find some effectual remedy for the control of the great trusts and corpo rations in the interest of all the people a tidal wave of Socialism will sweep over this country one of these days that will do incalculable damage. It will not come to stay, if it comes at all, because its wrecks, which strew the pathway of human history for 3,000 years, attest the fact that it is not a tayer. To avert such a calamity conservative corporations as well as the visest and the most distinguished statesmen should bend every energy." Thomas J. Atkins, Republican nadonal committeeman for Missouri, declared that Missouri was the friend of President Roosevelt and his administration. Mr. Atkins said that the Republican party was fortunate in having as a leader a man "brave enough and strong enough to challenge the power of avarice and summon to battle the patriotic statesmen of all parties to enact legislation at the coming session of congress by which rebates reports show frauds in every district." to the favored few will be effectively abolished and just and equitable rates made to all without fear or favor."
