DECISION RENDERED IN LICENSE CASE

Judge Fanning Grants Vail Bros. Application to Change Their Business Location

Yesterday afternoon Judge Fanning rendered a decision in the matter of transferring the license granted to Vail Bros., saloon keepers, from the building which has been occupied by them on lower Desmond street, to the one a few doors below, which was recently vacated by Lyon's bakery.

Some months ago Vail Bros. rented the bakery building and shortly thereafter made an application to the county Judge to have their license transferred. The application met with vigorous opposition and several hearings were held before Justice John R. Murray, who was appointed by the court to take evidence. The decision rendered by Judge Fanning yesterday grants the application. It was received here at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Upon its receipt business at the old stand immediately ceased as the proprietors had no right under the law to continue making sales only in the building designated in the transfer. Accordingly the work of moving to the new location was commenced without delay and at 12 o'clock last night the fixtures were placed and this morning the saloon was opened for business. The building vacated by Vail Bros. is owned by Mrs. John Touhey.

FRANK DESHON

Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman announce that on Friday night at the Loomis they will present the unique and talented laugh provoker, Frank Deshon, who will appear in his latest musical comedy success, "The Office Boy." This attraction was one of the popular hits of last year in New York where it ran for nearly three months, and has also been received with much success in other large cities of the east and in St. Louis during the world's fair.

The piece is said to have a very amusing plot. The libretto is by Harry B. Smith, who in previous years provided Mr. Deshon several successes and whose acquaintance with the peculiarities and quaint methods of Mr. Deshon has enabled him, so it is claimed, to create a congenial character for the artist and to furnish him with the witty dialogue, smart sayings and ridiculous stage situations that are essential to his style of comedy.

GOES MERRILLY ON

The Murphy & Blish sale of high-grade clothing goes merrily on. Yesterday the store was packed with customers and since 10 o'clock this morning there has been another jam. Store open this evening. Get on the band wagon.

OWEGO VS. SAYRE

Thursday evening, November 16, at 8 o'clock sharp these two old timers will come together on the Utopian alleys. There you will see "bowling as she is played." No favors will be granted or received, and the contest is sure to be very bitter as these teams have fought for three years and no one knows who is ahead. Ladies welcome if they care to come, courteous treatment assured.

GAME WARDEN BUSY

FIRE DESTROYED TWO-STORY HOUSE

Flames Originated From a Pile of Leaves Which Were Being Burned Near the Building

Shortly after noon today fire broke out in the residence occupied by Charles E. Goodale at No. 257 Spring street, and despite the efforts of the firemen who arrived in an incredibly short time after the flames were discovered, the building was burned to the ground together with nearly all its contents.

The house was a two story frame building situated just south of the D. L. & W. tracks and the fire originated on the roof of the kitchen from sparks blown from a quantity of dead leaves which were being burned in the yard. The burning leaves lodged under the dry shingles, and fanned by a stiff southeast breeze, the entire building was enveloped in flames before much could be done to save it. An effort was made to remove the furniture from the building but only a little of it was saved. When the firemen arrived the fire was completely beyond control.

The house was owned by Harry Westfall and is insured. It is understood, however, that the occupant carried no insurance on his household goods and that his loss is total. The entire loss on the building and furniture has been estimated from $1,200 to $1,500.

DEMENTED LAD KILLED NEAR WYSOX

Victim Disregarded Warning of Trainmen and Was Run Down by Lehigh Passenger Train No. 4

Adelbert Cyca, 19 years old, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon on the Lehigh Valley tracks about one mile east of Wysox. Cyca, who was mentally weak, had been in the habit of picking up coal along the tracks, and when not engaged in this occupation he hung about the railroad. Recently the railroad men have driven him away but he persisted in coming back. Yesterday he narrowly missed being struck by No. 157 and also by train No. 8. Shortly after No. 4 passed yesterday afternoon his dead and bruised body was found lying alongside the tracks. His neck was broken and he had evidently met with instant death. It is presumed that he was struck by No. 4, although there were no witnesses to the accident. The remains were taken to the home of his parents who reside at Wysox. The coroner does not deem an inquest necessary.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Bradford County Medical Society was held in the court house at Towanda yesterday afternoon. Dr. Campbell of Smithfield was admitted to membership. Drs. Fish and Cummings, of Sayre, and C. M. Woodburn of Towanda, were appointed a committee on program for the coming year. Dr. Ott, surgeon in chief of the Packard hospital, exhibited an appendix removed from a man, and in the organ was a secretion the size of a hazel nut. There was a general discussion of various topics by the doctors present.

STRAWS SHOW WAY THE WIND BLOWS

Yesterday's Record Contained More Advertising Patronage Than Any of Its Contemporaries

Yesterday's Valley Record contained more advertising matter and also more reading matter than any paper published in this valley. A few days previous to the Lehigh Valley pay day the business men in the valley get particularly active and they increase their advertising space. A comparison shows that The Record has been extremely liberally patronized, a fact which is duly appreciated by the publisher. The live business man has long since awakened to the fact that his announcements placed in the columns of this paper are business getters. There are two reasons for this. First, great care is exercised in arranging each and every advertisement in an attractive manner. Care is also taken to see that correct orthography is used and proofs are closely read before the paper is printed. The press work is done in a workmanlike manner resulting in its readers being furnished legible print.

The second and probably the better reason is that the advertisements eventually are read by a vast number of readers. The business man knows this and therefore he comes to The Record office when he wants the greatest publicity. "I saw your ad in the Record" is becoming a familiar statement to the patrons of our advertising columns.

LOCAL MENTION

Musicians at Laceyville have organized a brass band.

Smoke Peer's Straight Five, a fine fragrant cigar

S. T. Roberts is moving from Chemung street to South Elmer avenue.

The Sans Souci club of Sayre will give a reception in Eighmey's hall Tuesday afternoon.

St Martha's guild will serve supper at Mrs. J. W. Bihop's this evening from 5 until 8 o'clock.

Miss Cornelia Spring of 209 Spring street, is celebrating her 94th birthday in Waverly today.

For the benefit of Sayre patrons of the Loomis some choice seats for "The Office Boy" have been placed on sale at Driggs' drug store.

The police department is decidedly quiet these days. If the wave of reform which has taken possession of Sayre spreads much farther the services of the police can be dispensed with.

A Lehigh Valley employee who has been with the company for some years says that business on the road was never so good as it is at the present time. The road is fairly choked with traffic and all the motive power is in use, with plenty of need for more. He also said that the company needed men but could not get them.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Patrick Loughlin of Towanda was admitted today.

Oscar Arnold of Athens, and Frank Archer of Towanda, underwent operations this forenoon.
