This Store Deals With Facts And Never Advertises Anything That Is Untruthful

The makers of Woolltex and Printzess garments confined to us the sale of their garments this year, because of the small purchases made by Waverly, Sayre and Athens merchants, previous years, and seeing in this store enterprise in keeping with its size. They urged acceptance of an exclusive arrangement, and we likewise saw a good feature in it for our patrons.

You may find a few numbers yet advertised by dealers in this valley of last and previous years' styles as a result; but here you will find nothing but new styles, up-to-date and garments of the most recent models. No store can underbuy a syndicate store and none can undersell a cash store. That's your advantage trading here.

Garment Section Second Floor

"Sure thing" this store does not do business with houses lacking reputation. We can see ahead too far to abuse your confidence and patronage. Our selection of Woolltex as our leading suit and garment was because it's the best. There is only one best in all things. When a woman has shopped all over town and then comes back to buy a Woolltex we don't need to ask the reason why. We carry all styles and colors from the mannish mixtures, homespuns, greens, tibets, unfinished worsteds and broadcloths, in colorings principally plum, Burgundy, sarge, blue, smoke grey, etc. Prices in these and other makes $9.98 to $39.50. No old styles or last year's goods to show you. Children's coats from $1.75 to $15.00.

Big Things for You on Furs Near Seal and Russian Mink Jackets

The manufacturer, so pleased with the volume of business done, orders taken, etc., by us at the opening, November 3rd and 5th, has sent us a consignment to show you from November 13th to November 18th of scarfs and coats and return all unsold. No better way to put furs in your possession at 25 to 50 per cent under the old way of buying outright and having a lot of "old stickers" to kill profits left at the end of the season.

Combining these with our regular stock, we show you $1,200.00 to $1,500.00 worth of the finest and cleanest furs in this section, which consist of:

Black Coney Scarfs	$1.75 up	Japanese Mink	$ 7.90 up
Isabella Opossum	4.75 up	Astrachan Jackets	37.87
Russian Mink	3.75 up	Near Seal Jackets, beautifully
Nutria	5.00 up	tailored and exquisitely
Water Mink	4.69 up	lined,	$38.59 to $55.00
Isabella Fox, genuine	5.50 up	Genuine Russian Mink Jacket	$67.50

This brings to you a maximum of satisfaction at a minimum price. It's worth investigating.

MILLINERY MILLINERY

Every day develops new styles. Shapes and general designs come and go like a panorama, but all have a uniqueness and shape adapted to some one's best appearance, and to give a minute description would be impossible, but the hats are attractive and the prices are attractive, because they are made by skilled trimmers of wide experience.

Watch the crowds and you will see the success of the Big Store With Little Prices.

Furniture Department

A big lot of bamboo furniture on sale Tuesday, priced from 19c per piece up. It embraces jardinerie stands, tables, book cases, chairs, music racks, utility boxes, and all sorts of cabinets, etc. They come from a maker leading in this line and they are priced to your advantage.

Reagan-Schrier Wedding

Athens—A very beautiful wedding took place last evening at St. Joseph's church when Miss Anna Harriet, daughter of L. J. Schrier, was united in marriage to Charles Reagan of Waverly.

Promptly at 7:30 o'clock the church doors were opened and to the strains of Mendlesshon's wedding march played by Mrs. Sullivan, the church organist, accompanied by Isaac Morley on the violin, the bridal party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. Jao. Kramer and Edward Leahy of Athens, Harry Storms and Michael Falsey of Waverly, accompanied by the bridesmaids Miss Martha Wenderlich and Miss Beula Kirkland of Bath. Following came the maid of honor Miss Anna Spellman accompanied by the groom; preceding the bride came the little flower girls Margaretta Mahood of Athens and Marjorie Harding of Waverly, attired in white organdie and carrying baskets of chrysanthemums. The bride entered on the arm of the best man Joseph Reagan, brother of the groom. She wore a gown of white Liberty silk with trimmings of point de Paris lace, with bridal veil, and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids' dresses were white silk mull, and they wore picture hats and carried pink carnations. The maid of honor wore a beautiful dress of cream cassimere trimmed with lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

At the altar the wedding party formed a semi circle with the bride and groom in the center. Rev. Father O'Rourke performed the ring ceremony and during the instruction Miss Sara McDonough sang "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, only relatives and the bridal party being present. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents, consisting of furniture, cut glass, silver, china and linen. Mr. and Mrs. Reagan will be at home to their friends after November 21.

The guests from out of town were M. Cafferty and wife of Buffalo, and Mrs. E. M. Kirtland and Miss Martha Wenderlich of Corning, besides many guests from Waverly and Sayre.
