"All the news that's fit to print"

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1905.

It is so hard for a single man to save money that most married men seem to think there is no use trying when there are two to keep instead of one.

Had Hopes.
Cashier (coughing)—Pardon me, I didn't catch your last name.
Ethel (blushing)—I haven't caught it yet, myself.—Cleveland Leader

The Shah's Autos.
The shah of Persia has placed another order for six high-class automobiles in Paris. The value of this order is said to be $28,800.

Mean Things.
When bachelors and spinsters marry some people are unkind enough to point to it as an axiom that misery loves company.

Nothing Noisy.
Wit is the lightning of the brain, but, strange to say, rarely if ever accompanies its thunder.

Artistic Opinion.
The left side of the face is usually considered by artists to be more beautiful than the right.
