

Rochester's Finest Clothing

We invite a careful inspection of our new line outside fabric, lining, and most important of all, the new concave shoulders and perfect fitting neck. The new cut shows the only front ever made that will not break. It fits right, stays right and we guarantee it to be right.

We can show you a lot more about our clothing that you will find in no other make; besides, it don't cost you any more than the ordinary kind. If you have never bought a Rochester Hand-Tailored Suit you've missed something. "Come in and see."

DID NOT ORIGINATE FROM BURNING LEAVES

Neighbors Say Yesterday's Fire Started From Unknown Source—$100 in Money was Burned in Flames.

According to the statements made by neighbors it appears that the fire which consumed the residence occupied by Charles E. Goodale at No. 257 Spring street, did not originate from leaves which were burning in the yard. The statement comes from a known authentic source, and therefore leaves the manner in which the building caught fire decidedly in doubt. There was but little fire burning in the kitchen stove and it is not thought that it started from that source. The building was located close to the D. L. & W. tracks, and it is thought a spark from a passing engine might possibly have lodged under the dry shingles and smoldered until it ignited them.

It was learned today that one hundred dollars in money which Mr. Goodale had in the house were also consumed. Mr. Goodale carried no insurance on his goods, which with the loss of the money, has left him in a most unfortunate position. Mr. Goodale and his wife are getting well along in years, and their misfortune has elicited the sympathy of the people residing in the neighborhood. A subscription paper will be circulated, and the money will be used to purchase household goods for them.

WHERE ARE THE ITINERANT FAKIRS?

Curbstone Merchants That Usually Visit Sayre at the Present Time Are Conspicuous by Their Absence

What has become of the curbstone merchants that usually do business in Sayre on Lehigh Valley pay days and for a few evenings thereafter? Heretofore several of these itinerant venders of various wares have opened up shop near the corner of Desmond and Lockhart streets and in most cases have done a thriving business. The goods sold by them are for the most part of no intrinsic value, but as the American people appear to take infinite delight in being swindled these merchants get plenty of custom.

The recent pay day on the Lehigh, it seems, failed to be an attraction and the curbstone merchant has been conspicuous by his absence. Whether this is due to the winter-like conditions that have prevailed or whether they have migrated to the sunny south is not known but the fact remains that none of them have showed up, and the citizens of Sayre are to be congratulated.

ONE LONE DRUNK

One lone drunk fell into the clutches of the police last night and this morning sentence was suspended upon the culprit by Justice Gay. Michael Mack, a resident of Ulster street, South Waverly, who says he is working on the new flouring mill, staggered into a number of girls on Desmond street and special Officer George Wilson arrested Mack and took him to the lockup. This morning he admitted having been drunk and pleaded hard for his liberty, claiming that he had no money and would lose his job if he was forced to saw wood for the borough, a job which the justice suggested he might engage at in lieu of paying a fine and costs. His plea was successful, however, and he was allowed to go.

AGED INVALIDS

Two aged invalids, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Knapp, formerly of Hospital Place, arrived here on Lehigh train No. 8 from Tama, Iowa. The invalids, a man and wife, were in a helpless condition and had to be carried from the train to a hack. Both were suffering from rheumatism. They are Mrs. Knapp's uncle and aunt, and she went to Iowa to bring them to this place and will care for them in their declining years.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Fred Staigt of Skinner's Eddy was admitted to the hospital this forenoon.
Mrs. George Lull of Owego and Henry Roberts of Sayre were discharged today.
William H. Kellar, a freight conductor on the Lehigh, sustained a painful injury to one of his fingers while assisting in unloading a radiator at Ulster this morning. He went to the hospital for treatment.

WILL SAVE A NICKLE

It has been figured out by some one who has a penchant for figures that if the prisoners in the Bradford county jail are boarded at the rate of 25 cents a day that each taxpayer would save just a nickle a year over the present prices. Although this is a small matter the expert economist will tell you that it is the saving of the pennies that count.

NOMINATION OF OFFICERS

The Sayre Aerie of Eagles will hold a meeting this evening and officers will be placed in nomination. It is desired that there be a full attendance.

DISPUTE OVER SIDEWALK RIGHTS

Precipitates a Small-Sized Row--Police Interfere Before Any Damage is Done

It is apparently a difficult matter to make the average Italian who comes to America's shores understand that personal liberty here carries with it the obligation of respecting the rights of others. Sayre has acquired quite a colony of Italy's dusky sons and for the most part they are orderly, well behaved citizens. They are industrious, steady workers and save their money, which is to their credit. Some of them are of the opinion, however, that when they are on dress parade that the sidewalks are constructed for their express purpose. Just before five o'clock last night several Italians, flushed with the exuberance of having received their monthly stipend from the Lehigh, came up Desmond street. They were walking abreast, and if pedestrians got by without bumping into the bunch they were compelled to take the street. A party of young men near the corner of Lockhart street took exceptions to the Italians occupying all the walk and told them so. For a time the air was filled with a mixture of English and rapid fire Italian. The dusky party drew knives and it looked as if there might be a melee. Chief Walsh appeared on the scene, however, and quieted matters before any damage was done.

In places in Pennsylvania where scarlet fever is prevalent the health authorities are fumigating the public schools.

Despite the chilly weather which prevailed last night, and which by the way, underwent a remarkable change before morning, the streets of Sayre were filled with people, the greater portion of whom were holiday shoppers.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members of Christ Church and their friends, also those interested in the church, to attend their silver shower reception, Friday evening, Nov. 17. A very interesting program has been prepared.

Many of the men employed in the car shops received larger paychecks than usual this payday. Some time ago the boiler makers and some of the machinists received an increase of one cent per hour in their pay, and is the cause of their checks calling for larger amounts than usual.

ENFIELD STATION ROBBED

Thieves broke into the Lehigh Valley station at Enfield, a small town near Ithaca, last night and secured a quantity of small change from the money drawer. They effected entrance by breaking open one of the windows and are believed to be the same gang that did a similar job in the Lehigh Valley station at Dryden a few nights ago.

SAYRE-ATHENS TEAM WILL PLAY WAVERLY

A Lively Contest to Occur at the Driving Park in Athens Saturday Afternoon Next

The Sayre-Athens foot ball team will play Waverly at the Athens driving park on Saturday afternoon next. The game will be a hot one as both teams are made up of the best obtainable material from their respective towns, and neither have been scored against thus far this season. The Athens-Sayre team are to meet this evening for practice. All the old players as well as new ones are requested to be present. Saturday's game will be strongly contested on the part of Waverly and the home aggregation is desirous of giving any and all players a chance to be tried out.

NEW MONEY ORDER

A new postoffice money order was issued by the department yesterday to take the place of the one which has been in use. Many complaints were made regarding the old orders as it was an easy matter to raise the amount and the department was caused considerable trouble. The new orders are of the same shade and size as the old ones but the amount to be paid is printed on the margin in figures and the clerk tears them off when issuing the order, thus doing away with the possibility of raising it.
