DODGE CASE SETTLED

Waverly—The case of the Waverly Water Works Co. against I. Grant Dodge for $1,500 claimed to be due on his contract for ice supply, has been settled by Mr. Dodge paying $1300. Mr. Dodge claimed to have a contract for five years at $1200 per year for a supply of ice from the reservoir, and claimed damages on account of the ice being injured by a coat of mud from the dam covering it, and making it unsalable two years ago.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS MIXED

Waverly—A car containing goods belonging to James Crispin, who has just moved to this place from Oswego, was standing in the switch at the D. L. & W. freight house yesterday, when three cars were shoved into the same switch. These cars struck the one containing the goods and knocked the box off the trucks. DRUNKEN HUNS ENGAGE IN ROW

One of the Party Is Badly Cut and He Causes the Arrest of the Others

Waverly—A crowd of foreigners, mostly Hungarians, got into a fracas last night on Ithaca street near the Lehigh Valley station in East Waverly. Part of them at least were drunk and they indulged in a little knife practice, during which one Hungarian named Frank Mavok was slashed twice in the neck. He caused the arrest of two of them: John Mavok, his brother, and Andrew Barron. Besides the two defendants the police brought in several others as witnesses.

It was thought that John Mavok was the one who slashed his brother but there was not sufficient evidence to warrant holding him.

The arrest was made on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and on the hearing before Judge Hoagland he imposed a fine of seven dollars on Novok and five dollars on Barron, which they paid.

Waverly—There were about 500 persons in attendance at the Spaulding hose fair last evening. It was one of the best in point of attendance and a good sum was realized. The Nichols band furnished music.
