THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES
SAYRE, PA.
Store Closes Daily at 6 P. M. Except Saturday and Two Evenings After Pay Day.

This Store Deals With Facts
And Never Advertises Anything That Is Untruthful

The makers of Wooltex and Printzess garments confined to us the sale of their garments this year, because of the small purchases made by Waverly, Sayre and Athens merchants, previous years, and seeing in this store enterprise in keeping with its size. They urged acceptance of an exclusive arrangement, and we likewise saw a good feature in it for our patrons.
You may find a few numbers yet advertised by dealers in this valley of last and previous years' styles as a result, but here you will find nothing but new styles, up-to-date and garments of the most recent models. No store can underbuy a syndicate store and none can undersell a cash store. That's your advantage trading here.

Garment Section Second Floor

"Sure thing" this store does not do business with houses lacking reputation. We can see ahead too far to abuse your confidence and patronage. Our selection of Wooltex as our leading suit and garment was because it's the best. There is only one best in all things. When a woman has shopped all over town and then comes back to buy a Wooltex we don't need to ask the reason why. We carry all styles and colors from the mannish mixtures, homespun, serges, tibets, unfinished worsteds and broadcloths, in colorings principally plum, Burgundy, green, blue, smoke grey, etc. Prices in these and other makes $9.98 to $39.50. No old styles or last year's goods to show you. Children's coats from $1.75 to $15.00.

Big Things for You on Furs
Near Seal and Russian Mink Jackets

The manufacturer, so pleased with the volume of business done, orders taken, etc., by us at the opening, November 3rd and 5th, has sent us a consignment to show you from November 13th to November 18th of scarfs and coats and return all unsold. No better way to put furs in your possession at 25 to 50 per cent under the old way of buying outright and having a lot of "old stickers" to kill profits left at the end of the season.
Combining these with our regular stock, we show you $1,200.00 to $1,500.00 worth of the finest and cleanest furs in this section, which consist of:
Black Coney Scarfs . . . $1.75 up Japanese Mink . . . $ 7.90 up
Isabella Opossum . . . 4.75 up Astrachan Jackets . . . 37.87
Russian Mink . . . 3.75 up Near Seal Jackets, beautifully
Nutria . . . 5.00 up tailored and exquisitely
Water Mink . . . 4.69 up lined, . . . $38.50 to $55.00
Isabella Fox, genuine . . . 5.50 up Genuine Russian Mink Jacket . . . $67.50
This brings to you a maximum of satisfaction at a minimum price. It's worth investigating.

ATHENS ODD FELLOWS NEW LODGE ROOMS

Were Dedicated Yesterday Afternoon With Appropriate Ceremonies

Athens—The new lodge rooms of Athens Odd Fellows, No. 165, was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage. The building was erected two years ago on the commanding eminence in new Athens, where it stands as a picture of architectural beauty and grandeur. The lodge have held their meetings there ever since it was finished, but the final meeting was dedicated until this time.

On entering the spacious hall one can but feel that the brothers have exercised great wisdom in planning and decorating. The large crowd that came was seated on the two sides of the room, leaving passage for the officers to perform their duties. The Lady Rebecca occupied seats on both sides and in front of the audience. The dedication services were most impressively performed by the Grand Master M. E. Chubbuck of Towanda, assisted by G. H. Barnes, D. G. M., and Joseph H. Mackey, Grand Secretary, of Philadelphia, Grant R. McGlathery, Grand Conductor, of Norristown, Fred Newell, of Dushore and Hon. E. M. Tuton of Bentley Creek. The ritualistic service was very beautiful, impressive, and well illustrates the benevolent and humane principles on which the order rests.

Noble Grand Leon K. Lane presented the hall for dedication, stating that the work was completed and it was not his purpose to dwell upon the details of its construction or the perfection of the work; that it would speak for itself. The grand master accepted it and after some pertinent remarks called upon the grand chaplain, who solemnly dedicated it to the purposes for which it was erected and he enjoined every brother to carry out the principles that form the grand work of the order. After its dedication had been proclaimed by the grand heralds the grand master handed it back to the noble grand, and the services were concluded by singing Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow.

Grand Master Chubbuck made a short address, stating that he should call upon some of the grand officers for speeches, but before he did that he wished to express the pleasure he felt at being called upon to dedicate this hall. He had anticipated this service ever since the corner stone was laid, and now that the desire was gratified he wanted to state that he was thankful for the honor. He hoped the principles of the order would always be supreme in this lodge and that the influence of this order would be for the good of society.

General Secretary J. H. Mackey was introduced and said this lodge ought to be grateful for their fine hall and they ought to be encouraged to go on in their work. He saw on the altar erected by the lodge "Purity, Faith, Love, Charity." An ideal motto, these words mean something. The true Odd Fellow must be an honest man and must have a heart that sympathizes with the sorrowing and distressed, and his words and works shall be for the uplifting of his fellow men.

Grand Conductor McGlathery was then introduced and gave a most eloquent address. He said the work of yesterday is gone but the work of tomorrow is before us. That above the altar they had reared here today there was another on which the fires of sacrifice were lighted to which each brother should bring his best gifts and highest energies that he may hail the sweet messenger from on high and cheer life's burdens as they meet them in the pathway of human existence. Let the hills resound with the cause that is grandest, and as we see the struggling mass of humanity fighting life's battles may it be ours to give them a helping hand and a word of cheer that shall nerve them on to a final victory.

Brother L. F. Shaw then announced that the ladies had prepared a feast in the lower rooms to which all were invited, after which the gathering dispersed filled with good cheer and leaving good wishes for the future prosperity of this benevolent order.

A FAULTLESS BEER

The following article appears in the United States Trade Reports, a publication devoted to financial, agricultural and mechanical interests:

There has been considerable discussion of the different kinds of beer since so much attention has been given to the discussion of pure food products, and many are found to give bad after-effects. The United States Trade Reports has always fearlessly discussed such topics as are of general interest to its readers, and we have received several letters concerning the different kinds of beer on the market. We are asked to recommend the best and purest, and which leaves no bad effects after drinking.

We have made a careful investigation locally, also referring the matter to our representatives in all the principal cities. We feel justified in saying that the beer which we find to surpass all others in purity and cleanliness is made by the Bitterweich Brewing Co., of Olean, N. Y.

The above-named firm stands high in the commercial world, and is well known for its business tact and enterprise, as well as for its integrity. This beer serves as a tonic as well as a beverage. We have no interest in making this commendation, except to give credit where credit is due, as has always been our policy, and we have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending this beer to our readers. We advise all patrons to call for this beer, especially for invalids and those of impaired health.

It has been a custom of this paper to furnish its subscribers with reliable information on any desired subject free of charge, that they may designate by letter of inquiry addressed to this office. The United States Trade Reports has the largest circulation of any trade paper of its class, and no other publication could afford to maintain such a large staff of experienced editors to make these investigations, and depend solely upon its subscription list for support.

We are certain that all dealings which our readers may have with this firm will prove mutually beneficial and profitable. It is a pleasure to us to give this firm our editorial recommendation, and, at the same time, to supply our readers with reliable information on such an important subject as this.
