BIG FACTORY MAY COME TO SAYRE

Traveling Man Says That Phillips Bros. Skirt Makers, are Looking Upon This Place With Considerable Favor.

According to a statement made by a representative of the Philadelphia Press, who was here yesterday, there are slight prospects that the Phillips Bros. shirt factory may be induced to remove to Sayre.

The factory, it appears, is a large one and employs a large number of operators, and if there is anything in the foregoing story it would be an excellent idea for the business men to look after the matter at once.

SAYS THE BUSINESS MEN ARE "EASY"

Record Correspondent Who is Opposed to Bestowing Indiscriminate Charity--Says 80 Per Cent. of Money is Mis-spent

Again the business people of the town have been "taken in" by an imposter, this time in the guise of the Salvation Army. When will you men learn? If you men would only read something of the harm that is done by what is called promiscuous charity, that is the custom of giving to those who ask without knowing their worthiness.

HIGH SCHOOL WON

The Sayre High school and the Monitor foot ball teams played a very interesting but rather rough game Saturday afternoon on the Riverside grounds.
