EARLY WINTER

Early winter days are the ones that cause most of the coughs, colds, etc. People hesitate to change from light to heavy clothing and while they hesitate the lungs are left unprotected, at the time when they are most susceptible to attack.

A CHAMOIS VEST or a CHEST PROTECTOR is a preventative that is worth many cures.

PRINCE LOUIS' ADIEU

British Admiral Sends a Wire-less Farewell.

REFUSED TO PAY DENTIST'S BILL.

New York Harbor Boats Gave Squadron Tremendous Ovation as Warships Steamed Out to Sea, Heading For Gibraltar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Many miles away on his return journey across the ocean Prince Louis of Battenberg sent a farewell message to the people of New York. It was by wireless, as follows:

"The rear admiral commanding the captains, the officers and the men of the British squadron now regretfully on their way back to Europe desire to express their most cordial thanks to all those who by their warm welcome and splendid hospitality have contributed to making the stay of the squadron in American waters truly delightful."

With a parting salute of thirteen guns the British squadron bade adieu to the hospitable shores of New York and steamed down the bay, with Prince Louis in the lead on the flagship Drake. As the flagship passed Governors Island her guns thundered forth the parting salute. Flags were dipped all along the line.

The prince enjoyed the scene from the bridge of the Drake, and as the warship plowed through the waters of the Narrows he was still standing, his figure silhouetted against the purple mist.

As the squadron glided down the North river past the Battery black smoke was vomiting from the funnels, and the red coats of the royal guard standing aft gave a touch of color to the monstrosities of war. Speeding at almost twenty knots an hour, the squadron soon passed the statue of Liberty, and fifteen minutes later, as seen through the spyglass, they looked like toy boats on the horizon.

Just before the flagship Drake backed out into midstream Prince Louis gave this farewell message to the American people:

"I have enjoyed myself as never before. I go away with a heart full of sorrow for having to part so soon with the many friends I have made, but with the hope and resolution to return again and soon."

The prince added that he would send a further official message by wireless when off Nantucket.

A large party of reporters were waiting him, and the prince, with characteristic democracy which he has shown since his arrival here, shook hands all around.

"I want you boys to stand around me and we will all have our pictures taken together," said the prince.

Never before has such a tremendous ovation been afforded any departing fleet of visiting ships as that given to the British war vessels as they proceeded down the North river. Tugs, steamboats and the great ocean liners lying in their berths on both sides of the water joined in one screaming, shrieking farewell. The noise was terrific and lasted until the great men-of-war had steamed out of sight.

Again and again the Drake dipped her flag in response to the magnificent salute she was receiving from all sides, and the action always brought an increase of the racket as the various river captains allowed stuns and other whistles full vent to the vapor in the boilers. It was a nautical pandemonium.

The British admiral goes with a smaller complement of men by some 400 than he came. Up to the hour set for the departure of the fleet there were still about 400 jacksies missing among the six warships flying the royal standard of Great Britain.

Wilbur M. Dalley, dentist, worked eleven hours filing four teeth of Prince Louis and sent in a bill for $1,000, which the English admiral refused to pay.

Prince Louis appealed to his friend, Colonel Robert M. Thompson, and as a result Sir Percy Sanderson, British consul general at this port, has undertaken to settle the bill.

There was an exciting scene between the admiral prince and the dentist at the Hotel Nederland.

Dr. Dalley refused to treat with an ordinary lieutenant and demanded to see the prince himself. The latter telephoned for Colonel Thompson, and the friend of the prince is said to have made some pointed remarks.

Auto Smash at Atlantic City.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 21.—William Williams, secretary to William Eberhardt, a New York broker, Richard Greenwalt, a sporting man of this place, and a third person whose name could not be ascertained met with a frightful accident while driving along in Eberhardt's automobile on the Ventnor speedway at Annapolis avenue here. Williams is badly cut and bruised and is believed to have received internal injuries. Greenwalt and the unidentified man were taken to the hospital, where they are in an unconscious condition and will probably die.

Subpostoffice at Chicago Burned.
CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Many lives were endangered and property to the value of $50,000 was destroyed here by a fire which almost consumed the Commercial building at 9212-9218 Commercial avenue. On the first floor was situated the postoffice of the suburb of South Chicago, and this was badly damaged. Mrs. Mary Broadhurst was severely hurt by falling through a skylight. She was picked up while unconscious and carried out by a fireman.

WOULD NOT SEE WHITNEY.

President Said Letter Furnishes Evidence of Wisdom of Refusal.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—Henry M. Whitney, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor at the last election, made public last night correspondence which had been passed between President Roosevelt and himself concerning the statements made by the president during an interview last winter which was granted to a committee from Massachusetts on reciprocal trade relations.

The president informed a Massachusetts committee that called on him last week in favor of free hides that Mr. Whitney had deliberately misrepresented what had occurred at last winter's conference. With this experience in mind the president declined to enter upon a discussion of free hides with the free hides committee, the chairman of which was Governor William L. Douglas.

The statement of Mr. Whitney during the recent canvass in Massachusetts sets that the president told him he favored reciprocity with Canada was that to which the president took exception. After the president had made public his address to the hides committee, charging Mr. Whitney with misrepresentation, Mr. Whitney maintained that the president had certainly spoken in favor of reciprocity with Canada on broad lines during their interview.

In the correspondence which is given publicly Mr. Whitney wrote to President Roosevelt that the president had done him a great injustice in charging him with willful misrepresentation, requested an interview with the president and expressed his regret that reciprocity did not have the president's endorsement. In his reply President Roosevelt declared that Mr. Whitney's letter furnished additional evidence "of the wisdom of my refusing to communicate further with you" and asserts that nothing he has ever said has given Mr. Whitney the slightest warrant in making the statement that reciprocity was not to have the president's aid. He charged Mr. Whitney with making additional deliberate misstatements and closed by refusing to grant the requested interview.

SOUTHAMPTON MOURNS.

Crew of Lost Steamer Hilda Rejoice at News of That City.

ST. MALO, France, Nov. 21.—Realization of the full extent of the disaster to the cross channel steamer Hilda was borne in upon the people of this town as reports of the finding of bodies came in from different points along the nearby coast. In all over sixty bodies have been washed up, including that of Captain Gregory, the commander of the wrecked ship, which now lies in the hospital here, and as fast as other bodies arrive they will be placed in a long room prepared for their reception.

Thirteen bodies of saloon passengers have been identified. These are Mrs. Rook, her two children and their governess; Dr. Itaneto, his wife and two daughters and a maid; Major and Mrs. Price, Mr. Wellesley and Mr. Grindie. The survivors are rapidly recovering.

The entrance to the harbor of St. Malo is one of the most difficult known to mariners. On Saturday night a blinding snowstorm, with haze and high wind, prevailed, and it is little wonder that even so experienced a navigator as Captain Gregory lost his reckoning, especially as at the point where the Hilda struck only a few yards' deviation from the regular course meant destruction. Torpedo boats dispatched to the scene of the wreck ascertained that there is no hope of salvaging the vessel.

All the members of the crew of the ill fated Hilda were residents of Southampton, and most pitiful scenes are enacted at the offices of the London and Southwestern Railway company. The officials there are unable to extend any hope to the relatives. Most of the men leave wives and children. The steamer Ada of the same line, which picked up the survivors, is expected at any moment. The mayor of Southampton has started a relief fund and is receiving a ready response to his appeal.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 21.—The feature of the will of Stephen Salisbury, died for probate here, is his bequest of more than $3,000,000 to the Worcester Art museum. His estate is estimated at $5,000,000. The principal bequests are: To Mrs. Henry Hubbard, Lynchburg, Va., $25,000; Helen Hubbard and J. C. Hubbard, Boston, $25,000 each; Elizabeth Hubbard, Boston, $100,000; Nathaniel Payne, S. C. Green, James P. Hamilton of Worcester, Mrs. Helen Clark of Boston, David Casner of Yucatan, Mexico, Lyman A. Ely and Mrs. Mary E. Washburn of Worcester, $100,000 each.

Society of Good Fellows Insolvent.
BOSTON, Nov. 21.—Mary M. Hester and others of New York city have filed a bill in equity asking for the appointment of a receiver for the grand lodge of the Royal Society of Good Fellows, which does business under a Rhode Island charter. Recently the society was compelled to cease doing business in Massachusetts by the state insurance commissioner on account of its financial condition. The petitioners are holders of death claims, and they allege that the society is insolvent.

Secretary Show to Retire.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Secretary Shaw will remain as secretary of the treasury in President Roosevelt's cabinet until the conclusion of the approaching session of congress and perhaps for some months longer. It is understood that Secretary Shaw expects to retire from the cabinet with the close of the session of congress.

SAFER INSURANCE

President May Be Chief Arbitrator in Interstate Plan.

PROMISED AID AND CO-OPERATION.

Minnesota Commissioner Made Trip to Washington to Confer With Roosevelt—Action to Protect All Policy Holders.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 21.—According to State Insurance Commissioner O'Brien's report to Governor Johnson made here on Mr. O'Brien's return from a trip to New York and Washington in connection with the troubles of the big life insurance companies, President Roosevelt may be the chief arbitrator in a co-operative effort of all the states of the Union to compel the large life insurance companies whose troubles are now being aired in New York to put their business on a safer and more economical basis.

Mr. O'Brien was under orders of Governor Johnson to look into the insurance situation. Governor Johnson had been deluged with requests from policy holders in the northwest to act in the matter. He gave Mr. O'Brien a letter of introduction to President Roosevelt. Mr. O'Brien visited Washington and had a conference with President Roosevelt. The result of this conference was reported to Governor Johnson. Mr. O'Brien's report said that during the time allotted to him by the president he outlined his plan of action, which was to call a meeting either in New York or Washington following the completion of the investigation now in progress in New York of all the state insurance commissioners of the country and also the governors and attorneys general if necessary.

This meeting is to evolve, if necessary, a demand for reorganization of all the important life insurance companies, but more particularly the placing of the affairs of those companies on a safer business basis, any action to be taken by this meeting to be co-operative and each delegate to go back to his state prepared to carry out his part of the programme.

When Mr. O'Brien had stated his plan he said:

"Now, Mr. President, there will be a committee to carry out our plans and we need a head. Will you help us?"

"I most emphatically will," was the answer of the president, according to Mr. O'Brien's report to the governor. "I will be glad to help you in any way I can."

Mr. O'Brien carried this news from Washington to St. Paul without saying a word to anybody and would not have allowed it to become public now had not Governor Johnson seen the importance of the matter and directed Mr. O'Brien to make a detailed statement to the press.

Bigelow a Prison Photographer.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 21.—Private information received by a Milwaukee government official from an officer at the Fort Leavenworth prison states that Frank C. Bigelow, the defaulting Milwaukee bank president, appears to be utterly crushed in spirit. It is said Bigelow goes about his duties in a seemingly dazed condition and seldom converses with any one. The prison official believes it is doubtful if the ex-bank president will live to serve out his term. He is being employed in the photograph gallery of the prison.

Invites Roosevelt to Speak.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—An invitation was extended to President Roosevelt by Senator Cullom of Illinois to attend a banquet which is to be given under the auspices of the Sangamon club at Springfield, Ill., on the 12th of next February. It is desired that the president deliver an address at the banquet on Lincoln or on any other subject he might select, the occasion being Lincoln's birthday.

Patrick's Appeal For Life.
ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Another phase of Albert T. Patrick's case came before the court of appeals here when attorneys of the man who stands condemned for the murder of William M. Rice asked certain technical rulings which will facilitate their appeal to the supreme court of the United States. The motion was opposed by Assistant District Attorney Robert C. Taylor of New York. The court reserved decision.

Poison Intended For Husband.
FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Nov. 21.—Deputy Sheriff C. H. Dunsmore has arrested Mrs. Isaac Barnes here on a charge of manslaughter. It is alleged that she placed strychnine in epsom salts, thereby causing the death of Pearl Barnes, her thirteen-year-old stepdaughter. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes had been separated for several months, and the authorities maintain that the poison was intended for Barnes.

Devey May Run as Independent.
BOSTON, Nov. 21.—At the completion of the recount of the ballots cast for a Republican candidate for mayor at the primaries here it was shown that Louis A. Frothingham, speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives, had won over former Judge Henry S. Devey by 106 votes. Devey, it is said, may run as an independent candidate.

Gift From Chairman Shouts.
MONMOUTH, Ill., Nov. 21.—T. P. Shonta, chairman of the isthmian canal commission, has just given to Monmouth college $10,000 as part of the $30,000 needed to secure an additional $20,000 which Andrew Carnegie had promised to give the college for a library. Mr. Shonta is a graduate of Monmouth college.

BRUTALITY IN FOOTBALL.

Dr. J. W. White Talked With President Regarding Its Abolition.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Dr. J. W. White, professor of surgery at the University of Pennsylvania and a member of the university committee on athletics, has returned from Washington, where he had been summoned by President Roosevelt to discuss matters relating to football. Dr. White said:

"The president did me the honor of asking me to lunch with him for the purpose of discussing with him the situation as to American football. An article of mine published in the Outlook was the occasion of the invitation. The president has permitted me to say that we are in complete accord as to the need of the permanent abolition of brutality and foul play; of the increase of the powers of the officials and of the severity of the penalties as being necessary to bring about such abolition; as to the desirability of careful consideration of any changes in the rules that may be required to minimize danger while preserving the essential, manly and vigorous characteristics of the game, and as to the urgent need of earnest effort to secure a simple and uniform eligibility code for all American colleges and universities."

"The president said he emphatically believes in continuing the game," but "brutality and foul play should receive the same summary punishment given to a man who cheats at cards or who strikes a foul blow in boxing."

REIDMOORE WON.
Feature of Benning's Track Taken From Favorite, Tickle.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The short priced horses had easy going at Benning's except in the first and fourth races. In the first T. S. Martin, at 15 to 1, was the surprise, while Reidmoore won easily from Tickle, the 4 to 5 favorite, in the fourth. There was much interest in the straight races because of the fact there were nine starters out of an entry list of fourteen. Warmup proved much the best. Mollie Loucheux in the second, Banker in the fifth and Ormoude's Right in the sixth at short odds won easily. Summaries:

First Race—T. S. Martin, first; Zeal in second; Lancelanian, third.

Second Race—Mollie Donohue, first; The Clown, second; Vio O, third.

Third Race—Warmup, first; Seventh Ward, second; Reckoner, third.

Fourth Race—Reidmoore, first; Merlino, second; Salety Bud, third.

Fifth Race—Banker, first; Komoko, second; Gambler, third.

Sixth Race—Ormoude's Right, first; Peter Paul, second; Louis H., third.

Royal Rogue Defeated.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—After a great struggle Sir Preston, at 30 to 1, defeated Royal Rogue in the second race at Oakland. Only a neck separated the horses as they passed under the wire. Another outsider captured first honors when Chalk Hedrick, at 40 to 1, took the last race in handy style.

Five Favor a Lock Canal.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Although the board of consulting engineers has decided in favor of a sea level canal, it is yet an open question whether the Panama canal shall be a sea level or a lock waterway. The decision of the board of consulting engineers is not final. The decision of the board was reached by a vote of 8 to 5 in favor of the sea level project, General Davis and Messrs. Burr and Parsons joining with the five foreign engineers against a lock canal. The report of the engineers probably will not be submitted to President Roosevelt for five or six weeks.

To Give Us Pure Food.
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A plan to federate the forces working for national pure food legislation has been perfected as a result of the joint conference of representatives from the National Consumers' league, Federation of Women's Clubs, American Medical association and state food control officials which visited President Roosevelt at the White House on behalf of national pure food legislation. The plans include the gathering of facts about food adulteration from every source to be presented to the committees of congress this winter.

Chadsley, the Brooklyn lawyer against whom an indictment for grand larceny has been pending since 1902. District Attorney Clark said that he was confident that the prisoner is the man wanted and that both himself and his assistant will identify Hamilton as Chadsley.

As he arose from bed his revolver slipped from under his pillow and discharged one bullet. This lodged behind the right ear, producing instant death. Major Mayer was sixty-eight years of age.
