LANTERNS SMASHED

Waverly—Twelve lanterns that were placed as danger signals around the work being done by W. S. & A. Traction company on the south side, were smashed last night, the tool boxes broken into and a level and two shovels taken. The offense was committed some time after 4 o'clock this morning, as everything was intact at that time. The lanterns were locked in iron rods driven into the ground. These were pulled up and the lanterns entirely demolished. No clue has yet been obtained as to who did the mischief. The perpetrators should be severely dealt with if caught, as their act was a source of danger to travelers along the highway.

CHARGED WITH MANY THEFTS

Negro Boy Arrested in Elmira For Crimes Alleged to Have Been Committed at Waverly.

Waverly—Albert Carter, a negro boy aged eleven years was arrested at Elmira Tuesday evening for stealing a ride on a freight train. The Waverly authorities were notified and last evening Officer Gridley went to Elmira and brought the boy back to Waverly.

A warrant had been issued for his arrest on the complaint of W. M. Perry, and the hearing was given this morning.

The boy had stolen some gloves that were being displayed in front of Perry's fair store. He had also stolen a washboard, torn the zinc off and sold it as junk. Several other thefts were charged to his account.

He was paroled this morning by Judge Hoagland and placed in charge of his mother, she agreeing to take care of him.

ESCAPED IN MOTOR CAR.

Burglars at Mount Vernon, N. Y., Got $10,000 Loot in Two Villas.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Burglars who it is believed belong to the gang of sound pirates that for months have been holding high carnival in many towns along the northern shore entered two big villas at Pelham Heights and secured $10,000 in plunder. The booty was principally taken from the country house of T. L. Jacques, formerly manager of the Murray Hill hotel, while at the residence of M. Johnson, a New York business man who lives at Pelham Manor, the ringing of a telephone bell frightened the burglars so that they dropped a part of their plunder and fled.

They took from the Johnson house about $1,000 worth of jewelry. The burglars climbed up the front balcony of the Jacques residence while Mrs. Jacques was eating her supper and ransacked the rooms on the second floor.

Mrs. Jacques says that in addition to the robbers taking all the solid silver they took diamond scarfpins, cuff buttons and rings belonging to her husband and her entire collection of solitaire rings, diamond cluster rings, plus diamond pendants and brooches.

The Jacqueses estimate their loss at $9,000. Chief of Police Marks of Pelham believes that the burglars escaped in an automobile, as a strange machine containing two men was seen in the vicinity of the Jacques house, and it was last observed making a wild run out of town.

At the Johnson home two burglars were engaged in looting the upstairs rooms when the telephone bell rang loudly. The family was at dinner, and when one of the sons ran upstairs to answer the phone he saw two men escape by jumping out of the window to the roof of the veranda and sliding down a post to the lawn.
