HAD LARGE SIZE JAG

Athens—A convivial citizen of Sayre came to Athens this morning and loaded up with bad whisky and his jag made him real jolly. He had a difficult job to navigate our streets, and finally reached Chemung street where he undertook to climb a tree. Chief Mulligan was telephoned for and took him to his hotel, where the man was allowed to sleep off his jag.

Men Well Treated.
In Paraguay the women are in the proportion of seven to one, as compared with the men. The consequence is that the men are taken the greatest care of, and everything which is unpleasant or might be risky to the life of a man is done by the women. The streets are cleaned, ships are loaded, oxen are driven by them, and it is even said that they have taken part in their country's wars acting as substitutes for their men folk.

Great Flocks of Geese.
The plains of Hungary are well adapted for the raising of geese, and travelers in that country are often entertained by seeing, from passing trains, great flocks of geese feeding in the fields and watched by gooseherds. So many feathers are yielded by these geese that four "bed-feather markets" are held annually at Buda-Pesth, and at each market from 600,000 pounds to 700,000 pounds of bed feathers are placed on sale.

Rang the First Peal.
The grave of William Hurry, who, on July 4, 1776, rang on the old liberty bell the peal that proclaimed liberty throughout the land, has been found in the burial ground of Pine street Presbyterian church, Philadelphia. The Daughters of the Revolution, Colonial Dames and Sons of the Revolution have taken it in charge, and the plot will be put in good condition and cared for.

Never Saw Anything to Equal It.
That is what a Rochester lady said of Dr. Rand's Celery Remedy. "My nerves were worn, my blood weak, and I felt all run down, with no appetite. I tried Dr. Rand's Celery Remedy, and it did me so much good that I continued to take it, and I never felt better in my life." It is composed of roots, herbs and celery. Get a free package of this great herb medicine, and try it to-night. Large package 25 and 50 cents. H. L. Gillespie and Child, Wallman & Young, Sayre.
