Men Well Treated.
In Paraguay the women are in the proportion of seven to one, as compared with the men. The consequence is that the men are taken the greatest care of, and everything which is unpleasant or might be risky to the life of a man is done by the women. The streets are cleaned, ships are loaded, oxen are driven by them, and it is even said that they have taken part in their country's wars, acting as substitutes for their men folk.

Great Flocks of Geese.
The plains of Hungary are well adapted for the raising of geese, and travelers in that country are often entertained by seeing, from passing trains, great flocks of geese feeding in the fields and watched by gooseherds. So many feathers are yielded by these geese that four "bed-feather markets" are held annually at Buda-Pesth, and at each market from 600,000 pounds to 1,000,000 pounds of bed feathers are placed on sale.

Making It Go Far.

Mrs. Dyer—All right. I will give it to foreign missions.—Town Topics.
