FIRE DESTROYS
TWO LARGE BARN

Three Horses and Twenty-One Cows Saved Through Efforts of Owner's Wife.

Athens—Last evening at about 7:30 o'clock the two large barns belonging to Wells A. Wood on the old Ward homestead about 1 1/2 miles west of Smithfield Centre, were burned, together with about forty tons of hay, a large quantity of grain. Several wagons and harness and agricultural tools were also burned. Mr. Wood was absent from home at Smithfield and only his wife and her mother were at home. Mrs. Wood heroically went to work and saved three horses and twenty one cows that would have been burned had it not been for her timely efforts. The house is of brick and came near being consumed with the rest of the buildings. Mr. Wood has $1200 insurance but will lose a large amount above insurance.

EXPERTS INVESTIGATING

Athens—The Athens Mining and Development company have been very active today and the vicinity of their lands has been well investigated. Two experts from Scranton came up last night and stayed with E. W. Manning, who came with them this forenoon and they were taken over to the mining territory. W. H. Nutt, Oscar Johnson and Fred Noble started out with dynamite and fuse and all of the necessary outfit to fire off a blast. Fred Sherman, John M. Kramer and Charlie Ostrander went over with the party and we expect developments before night that will decide whether our mining company will go on and work the mines or not.
