ROAD IMPROVEMENTS
RAISE A QUESTION

After New Highway Is Built to Morley's Crossing There Will Still Be Plenty of Money Left
 Athens—The Athens township commissioners are puzzling their brains over the contemplated road improvements from the west end of the Chemung bridge down the river. The state commissioner came to inspect the route and did not inform the commissioners when he was coming. He made his report to the department at Harrisburg recommending the road but stated that after the road was completed to Morley's crossing that there would be twenty-six thousand dollars of the appropriation left, which could be made available if the commissioners would extend the road through to Milan. This would require the consent of the township commissioner and would involve an additional cost to the township of about twelve miles on the assessed value of the township levy. The commissioners are mostly in favor of this outlay but one or two are standing out on it.

EIGHT BAD ITALIANS.
Four Peddlers Held Up Near Safe Harbor, Pa.—Two Seriously Shot.
 LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 27.—Four peddlers—Isaac J. Francis of Cottesville and Joseph Maurice, Abdis Shilbent and Moses Albert of Philadelphia—making their rounds of the camps of laborers on the new railroad in the southern part of Lancaster county, disposing of a great quantity of merchandise, were on their way from Crosswell to Safe Harbor when eight Italians held them up and with drawn revolvers demanded their money. The peddlers resisted.
 In the fight that followed Francis and Maurice were shot and robbed of $600. Shilbent and Albert escaped and gave the alarm. The wounded men, each with a bullet in his head, were taken to the hospital at Columbia. Their condition is serious. A posse is searching the vicinity of the crime for the highwaymen.
No Flowers, Says Speaker Cannon.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—There will be no flowers in either house on the opening day of congress. Two years ago, soon after Speaker Cannon was sworn in and an attempt was made to bring in large floral pieces and place them upon the desks of members, the speaker issued positive orders to stop the proceeding, and the banks of flowers remained in the lobbies until they were sent to the homes of the members. A standing resolution of the senate was adopted during the last session of congress barring flowers from the senate chamber. Mr. Cannon has already given notice that he will not allow the flowers to be brought in as heretofore.
