In the meanwhile the country is threatened with a counter revolution with all the horrors of a jacquerie (insurrection of peasants), and it become more and more apparent than there are only two modes of egress-the government must put the whole country under a dictatorship and martial law or proclaim a readymade constitution.

Premier Witte refuses to consent to the former, although the court officers and the imperial guard are clamoring

An official statement is made that one of the Sevastopol mutineers will oe executed.

The crisis continues. The telegraph tie-up throughout Russia is practically complete, and the government does not know what is happening in the interior of the empire.

There are many indications that financial disaster will overtake Russia hortly. There are no buyers on the St. Petersburg bourse, and it is absolutely impossible to sell Russian bonds. It is reported that the government ntends to mobilize all the Cossacks in the empire, who number 450,000.

General Baron Meller Gakomelskie, commander of the Seventh army corps at_Sevastopol, telegraphs:

Wharf Laborers at Georgetown Fire on by Police

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Dec. 2.-A strike of wharf laborers which is in progress here assumed a very serious aspect when the police were compelled to fire on a riotous nob, and it is reported that five of the ioters were killed,

Later in the day the rioters attacked the governor's house. The governor and other officers are now besleged in the public buildings. The arrival of warships is anxiously awaited. The British cruisers Sappho and Dia ond have sailed for this port from

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies. The strike was the result of a de mand for higher wages, and the strikers have been parading the streets. Some act of violence resulted in the reading of the riot act and the issuing of a proclamation by the governor closing all the retail spirit shops from 6 o'clock in the evening until 6 o'clock in the morning until further notice. The governor called on all peaceably disposed citizens not to join the gath erings in the streets and so avoid the risk of being killed or injured. He suppress all riotous proceedings. Nationalist Leader Says Home Rule Is the Main Issue. WATERFORD, Ireland, Dec. 2. John Redmond, leader of the Nationalist party, addressing his constituents here last night, said that his speech was practically his election address, for he believed that they were on the eve of a general election and that the life of the government might be count ed by bours. Mr. Redmond then pro ceeded to speak of the paramountcy of the home rule question, beside which he said, the question of the welfare and good will of the colonies sank into English statesmen, he pointed out ought to concillate the good will of the Irish people, who constituted one of the greatest fighting forces in the world and whose sympathy was more valuable than any foreign alliance. In ouclusion he asked that the national convention to be held next week de clare its confidence in himself and the Irish parliamentary party.

Dramatic Climax In Boston Tragedy.

DR. M'LEOD ON THE WITNESS STAND

Wrongdoing - Said He Tried to Save Girl's Life - Court Awalts Verdiet.

BOSTON, Dec. 2.-The jury which has been hearing the evidence at the trial of Dr. Percy De Mille McLeod, the Back Bay physician who is charged with being an accessory to the performance of an illegal operation upon Susanna A. Geary, the dress suit case victim, have retired to consider their verdict, Judge Stevens instructed the jury at some length before they re

The proceedings furnished a dramat ic climax to an already sensational ase. Dr. McLeod testified in his own defense and stated emphatically that he had not dismembered the body of the chorus girl. He denied that he had ever had any connection with the "Mrs. Dr. Bishop" offices, where the illegal operation is alleged to have been performed, and swore that he had never been inside the Winthrop street bouse. where the girl died, until summoned to perform an operation to save Miss Geary's life.

According to Dr. McLeod's testimony, he was called to the Winthrop street house by Dr. John H. Pettee, who a few days ago testified that he was summoned there by Dr. McLeod. Dr. McLeod's testimony was a general denial of all the charges against him. He testified that his only connection with the case was the performing of an operation known as japarotomy, the only hope, he claimed, of saving the woman's life.

While the trial of Dr. McLeod was in progress William H. Stanford, one of the Witnesses for the defense, was arrested on the charge of being a fugitive of justice from Philadelphia. It is alleged that under the name of Reagan the man was arrested in connection with ballot box frauds in the Thirteenth ward of Philadelphia and was held in bonds of $1,500 for trial. The case was called last Tuesday, and Stanford, or Reagan, is alleged to have defaulted Stanford is the husband of Mrs. Grace Ashmead Stanford, who also testified here in Dr. McLeod's defense.

After Dr. McLeod had completed his testimony a few witnesses were called in rebuttal, and then counsel proceeded with their arguments.

Attorney James H. Vahey, of counse for the defense, argued that Dr. Mc Leod was an innocent participant in the case; that his only connection with it was actuated by the highest motives the desire to save human life. Mr Vahey declared that the dismemberment was the work of William Howby the government and the people in ard, or Hunt, as he is known, and that conducting the primaries left a clear Hunt was also the person who perform ed the first operation on the victim of the tragedy. Mr. Vahey also charged that Dr. J. H. Pettee had called upon Dr. McLeod for assistance and thefi had incriminated the latter in the desire to save his own reputation. District Attorney Sughrue, in sum ming up for the government, charged that Dr. McLeod was intimately associated with a "notorious band of ille gal practitioners." He said that the testimony of Louis Crawford and Howard, upon which the defense had attempted to cast discredit, must be accepted. He characterized Dr. Mc-Leod as a cool, phlegmatic person, skilled in surgery and dissection, and said that he was the only kind of person who could have dismembered the body in so skillful a manner.

The case was then given to the jury by Judge Stevens.

Jackson Ran Away. BALTIMORE, Dec. 2. - Jack John son and Young Peter Jackson, both of whom are credited to California, met in a twelve round fight before the Eureka Athletic club last night. At its conclusion no decision was given. Johnson had undertaken to knock Jackson out within the twelve rounds or take the smaller end of the receipts. He falled to do so, largely owing to Jackson's remarkable ability to keep himself covered and to the fact that Jackson did not hesitate to run away from his op ponent. Frequently he made half the circuit of the ring, literally running. Johnson pounded him unmercifully whenever he could catch up, but was unable to score a knockout blow, Jackson fully sustaining his reputation for toughness. Jackson fouled repeatedly.

Boston May Prohibit Football. BOSTON, Dec. 2 .- As a result of the agitation against the game of football as at present played by the schools and colleges in the United States Alderman Frank J. O'Toole stated that he intends to introduce at the next meeting of the Boston board of aldermen an order pro bibiting the game within the city lim its until such time as the rules have been so amended as-to make fatalities and serious accidents an impossibility Should this order be passed by both branches of the city government it will affect intercollegiate games of football in the Harvard stadium, as that struc ture is located on the Boston side of the Charles river.

The worst one occurred on the Peni sylvania division of the Delaware and Hudson in a deep cut two miles north of Windson. An extra southbound coal train had been stopped to cool a hot journal. Brakeman Judge was sent back to flag a regular freight train. It is supposed that he did not go back farther than the caboose, where his body Formerly sold for 25c; Saturday and was found. The engineer of the freight Monday, 10c. noticed that the block signal was against him, but did not see any flag and did not stop until he rounded the and did not stop until he rounded the curve into the cut and crashed into the Holiday Echoes coal train, ditching the engine and pil ing twelve cars in a heap that will require two days to clear away. The coal train caboose was partly burned, and the dead body of Brakeman Judge was found in the caboose, where he had ourned to death.

To keep passenger trains running around the wrecks the Erle ran trains from here to Lanesboro over the Delaware and Hudson by way of Nineveh past where the Delaware and Hudson wreck occurred. That wreck necessitates running trains on the Pennsylvania division of the Delaware and Hud son around by this city over the Erie.
