DIED THIS MORNING

Waverly—Josiah Fenner died this morning at the home of his son, G. B. Fenner on Loder street at the age of 68 years. Deceased had been a resident of Waverly for the past four years. Besides the son with whom he resided he is survived by three daughters. The funeral will be held Wednesday. The remains will be taken to Stroudsburg for burial.

PICTURE PLAY WAS FINE

Waverly—The picture play given at the Baptist church last evening was a very delightful affair and Mr. Armstrong's presentation of The Sky Pilot was more than was even anticipated. His illustrations were of the best.

We Have That Xmas Present

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Waverly—A very fine musical program has been prepared for the service at the Baptist church tomorrow evening. There will be three numbers by the choir:

1. Praise the Lord Gabriel
2. Send out Thy Light Gounod
3. How Lovely are the Messengers—Mendelssohn

A male quartet and a mixed quartet will each render several numbers. Mrs. H. B. Ingham will sing solo. The Rev. George E. Bugge will deliver a musical talk.

WILL COMMENCE WORK SOON

Waverly—The committee of five appointed at the last meeting of the Manoca temple association to act with the president in the matter of the method of remodeling the building, held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the office of Judge Hoagland and decided to employ L. F. Lord as superintendent, and to have the work done by the day.

Mr. Lord has already ordered part of the necessary material, and work will be commenced as soon it arrives.

HE ARRIVED TOO LATE

Waverly—One of the gentlemen who attended the entertainment at the Baptist church last evening arrived late and had considerable trouble finding his wife. The lights were out when he came in and he found a seat beside a lady whom he supposed was his better half but was made aware of his mistake when he attempted to converse with her. It was necessary to enlist the services of a friend before he finally located the partner of his joys and sorrows.

AROSE IMMEDIATELY

Waverly—It happened on Broad street. There was only one pail of water, not enough to cause a drowning accident. It was being used to scrub the floor. The person using it suddenly became possessed of a desire to sit down. She sat in the pail of water, but arose immediately.

SURPRISE PARTY

Waverly—Miss Fannie Freedman was given a surprise party last evening at her home on Park Place. Fifteen of her friends were responsible for the event, which was very enjoyable. The evening was passed in playing games and by various other amusements.

GETTING READY

The local merchants are getting in readiness for the holiday season. Already unseasonable goods are being consigned to an out of the way place to make room for the Christmas goods. The coming season promises to be one of the best in the history of Sayre. In fact dealers who handle holiday novelties are making preparations for a record breaking trade. One sure way of realizing this is to use the columns of the Daily Record extensively. The Record is the best salesman in this valley. This statement has been proven time and time again. In fact the merchants are coming to look upon it as an indispensable necessity in the conduct of their business. The wise merchant will begin now to advertise his holiday line. Better look this matter up, Mr. Merchant; it means loss of money to procrastinate.

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Ida Smith of Sayre was admitted to the hospital today and Henry Brink of Tioga Center was discharged.

The morning theme at the Baptist church will be "The Bible Theory of Evolution." In the evening the pastor has chosen for his subject "The Straight Grained Life."

Mrs. F. J. Krom, who has been spending the past two months in Los Angeles and San Francisco and other points in California, has returned to her home on Lincoln street in this place.

At the Church of Christ tomorrow morning the theme will be "The Forward Movement". At 7 in the evening there will be a rally day service for the boys and girls by the Sunday school.
