CHARLEY'S BEAR STORY

Athens—Charlie Fitzgerald was telling a startling story in Ostrander's barber shop this morning about a hunter who had recently killed a bear weighing 1800 pounds. The hunter had a thrilling adventure and the boys have been calling on Fitzgerald all day and asking the question "Who killed the bear?" The impression begins to dawn up on Charlie that there is something extravagant about his story.

MINING COMPANY TO PUT DOWN HOLE

An Enthusiastic Meeting of the Stockholders Was Held Last Evening

Athens—The Athens Mining and Development Company held their meeting at the Stimson House last evening and there were present twenty of the thirty stockholders. The two experts who made the tests a few days ago have evidently let out something of the results of their investigation for there is an increasing interest to beginning operations at once. A committee consisting of E. W. Manning of Waverly, F. P. Murray of Sayre and Frank Schrier of Athens, was appointed to procure a driller and put down a test hole five hundred feet deep. The committee authorized John M. Kramer, secretary and treasurer of the company, to correspond with Chester Thomas, an expert driller, and he is to be here Monday to confer with the committee.

The Envy of all Women.
What woman or girl does not admire a beautiful, rose-tinted complexion. One cannot possess it if the blood is impure or weak, if the bowels are constipated, if the liver and kidneys are out of order. If you would try Dr. Rand's Celery Remedy, the great herb medicine, you would not only possess a beautiful complexion but also perfect health.

Weather Probabilities. Clear and colder; northwest winds.
