VILLAGE FATHERS' MONTHLY MEETING

Report of Tax Collector Shows Only a Small Amount of Taxes Unpaid

Waverly—The regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees took place last Saturday evening. The report of the tax collector, C. B. Horton, was received and showed only $51 unpaid taxes, which amount covers three different properties. The report was referred to the finance committee. The report of the police department showed $16 fines collected. Several bills were ordered paid. One bill for $4.50 for janitor work at the town hall was presented, and it was the consensus of opinion of the trustees that it was the duty of the police to do the janitor work, and that any such bill should be paid by the police. The matter of purchasing nozzles for the fire companies was referred to the chief engineer, with power to act. The matter of the payment of the bill of J. Q. Ingham, who was the architect of the new fire building in the east ward, was referred to the finance committee for the purpose of conferring with Mr. Ingham and arriving at a satisfactory adjustment. The board passed a resolution extending a vote of thanks to N. E. Seacord, contractor, and to L. C. Lord, who acted as inspector, for the efficient manner in which the work on the new east ward building had been done.

NEW BAKERY OPENED

Waverly—W. H. Ballenstedt opened for business this morning in the store room recently vacated by Harding & Hoyt, confectioners. Mr. Ballenstedt will handle a full line of baked stuff and be prepared to supply all orders for anything in that line. He will also carry a full line of confectionery. The bakery has been thoroughly overhauled and remodeled and the appearance of the storeroom improved by a coat of paint. The fixtures are of the latest pattern, the candy case having several new and convenient attachments. Mr. Ballenstedt is well known in this village and needs no introduction to Waverly people.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD

Waverly—Charles P. Masterson, an old resident of this section, having lived in Spencer, Owego and Elmira, died at Tacoma, Wash., on the 24th of November, aged 48 years. Deceased had many friends in this section and was cashier of the First National bank of Tacoma at the time of his death.

EAST WARD HOSE HOUSE COMPLETED

Cayuta Hose Company's Fine New Quarters a Credit to the Town

Waverly—In the new hose house recently erected in the east ward as headquarters for the Cayuta hose company, the village of Waverly has a building of which it may justly be proud. The Cayutas are highly elated over the possession of so fine a home, which has been built in accord with their own ideas and suggestions. President of the village, J. T. Tucker, is also chief of the Waverly fire department and an enthusiastic fireman. He has watched the erection throughout with great interest, and he is in a large measure responsible for the success of the enterprise. The cost came within the amount of the appropriation, an experience that very seldom takes place in the erection of a public building. The building is complete in every detail, and cost less than $5,000. The entire building is finished with Georgia pine, except the floors, which are of hard maple. The truck room is large and commodious and well lighted by large plate glass windows. The service truck will stand directly in front of the large double doors, which when they swing open at night automatically turn on the electric lights in the truck room. Besides the truck room down stairs there is a large room, which will be used as a reading room. The meeting room occupies the front of the second story, and back of that is the club room in which a pool and billiard table will be installed. There is also a bath room, a toilet room and a lavatory on the second floor. A fire bell has been placed in the tower and will be connected with the Bell telephone office so that it will ring whenever an alarm is sounded at the town hall. A concrete runway will extend from the front doorway to the street. The building is well lighted, well heated and supplied with every convenience for washing and drying hose. Architect Ingham and the board of trustees inspected the building last Saturday night, and Chief Tucker has ordered the Cayutas to take immediate possession.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Waverly—The funeral of Josiah Fenner, who died last Saturday morning, will take place tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. M. S. Godshall will conduct the service. The remains will be taken to Stroudsburg Wednesday morning, where the burial will take place.

THE SEWER QUESTION

At the regular meeting of the borough council which is to be held this evening it is expected that the sewer question will come up for discussion. The matter has been in the hands of a committee for some months for consideration and it is quite probable that a report will be made this evening.
