A HEART OF GOLD.

Colorado, From the Heart of the Rockies, Sent Gift to Roosevelt.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. — A gold heart has been presented to President Roosevelt on behalf of the people of Colorado. The presentation was made by Representative Robert Bonnyne of Denver.

The heart, which is of unalloyed gold, was inclosed in a handsome case bearing this inscription: "From the heart of the Rocky mountains this symbol of pure Colorado gold is sent by men, women and children, rich and poor, sparing alike, to Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, whose great heart brought peace to the people of Japan and Russia. Thanksgiving day, 1905, A. D."

The money to pay for the gift was raised by popular subscription, many of the subscribers being one penny each. In all 8,000 pennies were subscribed. To these substantial subscriptions from other sources were made, so that the total amount raised aggregated several hundred dollars.

President Roosevelt expressed to Representative Bonnyne his great pleasure at the receipt of the gift and desired that his cordial thanks be conveyed to the donors.

SANK ADVERTISED FOR A WIDOW

Waverly Man Who Wanted a Wife That Had Cash

Waverly—The following notice appeared in the Syracuse papers last Saturday:

"Widow wanted, with hand of matrimony; must be under forty years of age, with $15,000 to $25,000, willing to invest in business to gentleman 42 years of age; good looking, dark hair, sandy moustache; call at Kingsley house. Signed, S. S. DOUGLASS."

The Syracuse Sunday Herald had a two column interview with Mr. Douglass, in which he stated that he was a resident of Waverly and that he worked as a "car searcher" for the Lehigh. He also stated that he was a member of the Baptist church in this village, and sang in the choir, that he was a member of several fraternalities and had $2,500 life insurance.

He had several appointments over the phone but none of the prospective brides had appeared at the time of the interview. He had been in love often and had at last decided to settle down. He said a great many foolish things in the course of the interview.

Mr. Douglass is married and when in Waverly he resides with his wife on Chemung street. He formerly conducted a saloon and restaurant in the opera house block in this place. His wife stated that he had been working for a street car company in Elmira, and had recently gone to Syracuse.

HONESTY REWARDED

Waverly—Julius Tozer, a farmer living on the west side of Tozer's bridge, was in Waverly last Friday and lost a pocketbook containing thirty-one dollars. The lost money was found by James Reagan, an eleven-year-old Waverly boy, who restored it to the owner and received a reward of five dollars.

KING OF TRAMPS

One of the most attractive plays to be given this season at the Loomis next Thursday night is The King of Tramps. Unlike the average melodrama in which tragedy predominates, this play has a large percentage of comedy. There are no lack of stirring situations and thrilling climaxes but the author has written a tale of love, passion and intrigue very cleverly. The play is well chosen from the fact that almost every member of the cast is at times given the center of the stage, and this is one of the reasons the play is so well received. One of the features of the production is a crematory seen in full operation. There are many high class vaudeville acts introduced throughout the performance.

Bauer's Instant Cough Cure has cured more Coughs and Colds than any remedy known. It instantly relieves the most distressing cough and is guaranteed to cure Bronchitis and Asthma. Bauer's Cough Cure always gives satisfaction as Mr. D. Greenman, druggist of New Harmony, Pa., says: "Your remedies have given me the very best satisfaction to all who have used them, and especially Bauer's Instant Cough Cure. I look for larger sales on them in the future. I do not want to be out of any of them and will order before my stock runs down too low. Get a free sample and prove what it will do for you. H. L. Gillespie and Child, Waltman & Young, Sayre."

Officer Drank, Shoots a Filipino, Cebu, Philippine Islands, Dec. 5.—Lieutenant Charles Pendleton of the constabulary ordered four native soldiers into the vehicle in which he was driving. A native policeman stopped him and ordered him to light the lamps on the vehicle, when Pendleton shot him dead. He then continued on his way, but returned later and obtained the body, which he delivered to the police, claiming that he had found the man dead on the road. The soldiers accompanying him confirmed his story, but subsequently broke down. Pendleton had been drinking. Pendleton's family live at Atlanta, Ga. He was formerly a sergeant in the Seventy-first regiment of New York. He has been held for murder.

Military Men at the White House. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Members of the Pennsylvania military memorial commission called on the president to pay their respects. They are en route to Andersonville, Ga., to attend the ceremony of dedicating a monument erected on the grounds for the Pennsylvania soldiers who are buried there. The monument will be dedicated on Thursday.

Bessie Watson Was a Convict. WOODSTOCK, Va., Dec. 5.—On the ground that her husband is a convict Mrs. Catherine Bryant Watson, wife of James M. A. Watson, Jr., who embezzled $75,000 of the funds of the District of Columbia government and who is now serving a ten year sentence at Aldersonville, W. Va., has been granted a divorce, with the right to resume her maiden name.

Chinese Boycott Still On. SINGAPORE, Straits Settlements, Dec. 5.—Over a thousand Chinese who are merchants in a small way here attended a meeting at which considerable sums were collected for the purpose of continuing the boycott on American goods. The meeting was very enthusiastic.

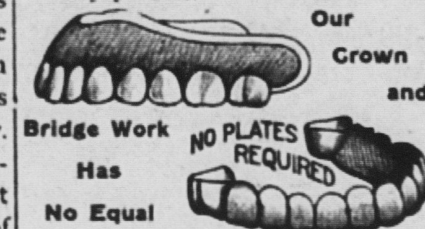

Floored. Mrs. Chugwater—Josiah, what is the "fourth estate?" Mr. Chugwater—The press, of course. How many lines?

"And what are the other three?" "They're—they're—you can find that out for yourself. You mustn't depend on me to tell you every little thing."—Chicago Tribune.
