"All the news that's fit to print"

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1905.

Over the Old Trail.
About 30 pioneers of Utah, survivors of a party which in 1851 made the journey over the trail from Salt Lake to Los Angeles, have departed from Salt Lake to Los Angeles over the Salt Lake railroad, as guests of Senator William A. Clark. The party, in special Pullmans, are going over practically the same route that they traveled by wagon and on foot in 1851.

Taking No Chances.
The following advertisement appears in a Devonshire newspaper: "Widower, no family, renting a small farm near Kingsbridge, wants a housekeeper; a chaperon, a person, and one that has charity, which is the love of God, preferred, with views of marriage, if the Lord prospers my ways and she will be Apply," etc.

Lord Minto as Jockey.
When Lord Minto, who is to succeed Lord Curzon as viceroy of India, took his degree at Cambridge, his student's gown covered a jockey's outfit. At the conclusion of the ceremony he mounted a horse galloped ten miles, and reached his destination just in time to win the University steeplechase.

The ladies of the Baptist church are preparing to hold a rummage sale in the near future. It will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building.

ELECTED OFFICERS

Waverly—At a meeting held last evening, Division No. 2, A. O. H., elected the following officers: President, Wm. Gleason; vice president, M. Kenrick; recording secretary, J. J. Kanan; financial secretary, J. P. Falsey; treasurer, T. F. Carmody; sentinel, Wm. Haley; sergeant at arms, Patrick Hurley; standing committee, J. F. Walsh, A. Burns, D. L. Hurley, Thos. Murray, Phil Kerrigan.

The ladies auxiliary of this order have recently raised $10,000 with which they have endowed a chair of history at Washington.

CAME BACK BEARLESS

Waverly—W. H. Lockerby has returned home after three weeks spent in the wilds of Sullivan county, Pa., searching after bear.

He came back bearless, but with a large addition to his stock of experience. It is said that his reputation as a slaughterer of big game produced a panic among the denizens of the forest and that they all fled from the county as soon as he arrived within that district.

LOST PACKAGE FOUND

Waverly—Mrs. William Woodworth, who resides in this village, sent a package of merchandise by mail from Ithaca last March to her daughter at Mt. Morris, N. Y. The package was lost and no trace was found of it until last week when an Italian was arrested in Owego for robbing the mails.

Mrs. Woodworth was notified this morning that the package had been found and was requested by the authorities to identify the contents.

MUST GIVE BONDS

Waverly—The town board held a meeting yesterday morning. It was discovered that several of the town officers, who were required to give a bond, had failed to do so. A motion was made and carried that the clerk look up the matter of bonds, and those officers who had failed to comply with the requirements of the law, be required to do so within ten days.

Mrs. Fred F. Smith, who has been seriously ill at her home on Clark street, is again able to resume her duties in the office of her husband's plumbing establishment.

The young people of the Baptist church held a social last evening in the church parlors. A very enjoyable evening was passed in playing games and other amusements. Excellent refreshments were served.

A tourist arrived in town last evening, accepted the hospitality of the village, and stopped at the town hall over night. He liked the appearance of the town, went out and found a job and concluded to become a resident.

LAST NIGHT'S SHOW

"A Romance of Coon Hollow," the beautiful southern drama in four acts, which has pleased theatre goers for the past fourteen years, was given a very creditable presentation at the Loomis last evening. The attraction is under the personal management of Archie C. Allen, whose stage career began nearly forty years ago. Mr. Allen has assembled a competent cast of performers and last night's presentation was well received by the patrons of the Loomis.

The play is considerably out of the stereotyped melodrama form and contains a story of absorbing interest. The plot is clever and original and the various members of the company took advantage of the many opportunities afforded by the lines and action.

A troupe of colored plantation singers and dancers add much to the enjoyment of the entertainment. The buck and wing dancing of one of the colored performers was the finest ever witnessed in the house.

BEGUILING THE PUBLIC

Waverly—The attention of the police has been called to the fact that a woman named Heeman, and who is said to reside on Center street, is begging in this vicinity. She plays on the sympathies of the people by telling them pitiful stories of hard luck. The police say the woman's husband is able to work but exists on what his wife can bring in by beguiling the public. It is not an act of charity to assist such people, and encourages these parasites to live at the expense of others.
