LOCAL PRINTERS TO SECURE 8-HOUR DAY

Understood That Nearly All Offices in the Valley Will Sign the Short Work Day Agreement

J. E. McLoughlin of New York city, an organizer for the International Typographical union, was in the valley yesterday on business connected with the eight-hour movement, and attended a meeting of the local union in the evening, at which several matters of interest to the printers' trade were discussed.

The eight-hour day for which the International Typographical union has been striving seems to be almost assured, in this region at least. It is understood that about all the offices in the valley will sign agreements for the eight-hour day, effective January 1, 1906.

During the past twelve years the printing business has grown rapidly in this valley, and three times the number of printers are employed. Four years ago a union was formed and nearly all the journeymen are members of the organization. The printers have been a long time working for the eight hour day. Nine years ago the International Typographical Union voted to decrease the working day one-half hour. Employing printers offered but little opposition to this request and the nine and one-half hour day was established. Two years later a demand was made for a nine hour day. This demand was also granted with but little resistance on the part of employing printers, but when last spring the union voted the eight-hour day, to go into effect the first of next month, there was vigorous protest from employers all over the country. In the cities of New York, Chicago, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and other large places employers have refused to sign contracts providing for an eight-hour day, with the result that the printing industry in the cities named has been in a more or less disturbed condition. Strikes have been inaugurated and emissaries have been sent throughout the country by the employing printers to secure men to take the place of striking union men. A few men have been secured in this manner but in most cases the agents have met with rebuff, even from non-union men, who had every reason to believe that if they accepted situations their services would be needed for a short time only.

A great many of the big concerns in the country have signed the eight-hour contract, and the printers insist that eventually every office in the country that has heretofore carried the union label will enter into the agreement, and give the men what they been striving for during the past nine years.

The printers were a long time asking for a reduction in the hours of labor. Skilled workmen in other lines, such as the cigar makers, bricklayers, masons, etc., have long since been receiving the benefits of the eight-hour day. The printers have not asked for anything unreasonable. They have been patient and conservative, and all fair minded people will wish them victory.

SERIOUS OFFENSE CHARGED

John Royal and George Abbott, two young men, residents of Myersburg, are under arrest at Towanda charged with tearing down a mail box on a rural free delivery route. Both have given bail for their future appearance before United States Commissioner Mix on Wednesday next.

IS NOW AN EDITOR

L. S. Brown, formerly of Athens, and well known throughout the valley, is now the editor and manager of the Advertiser, published at New Milford, Pa. Mr. Brown was in the life insurance business when in this section.

ELMIRA MAN WENT WRONG IN SAYRE

Left Former Place on Thanksgiving Day, Came to This Place, and Has Not Been Seen Since

This morning's Elmira Advertiser tells of a young man of that city who came to Sayre on Thanksgiving day to witness the foot ball game between Sayre-Athens and All-Elmira and has not been seen since. The young man, who was recently married, is said to have always borne a good reputation, but the article in the Advertiser alleges that he fell in with a crowd of fast young men in this place, since which time he has not been seen and his friends are unable to learn anything of his whereabouts. It really seems too bad that a man should live in Elmira, a burg which has heretofore teemed with evil and crime, all his life, and then come to a quiet little hamlet like Sayre (which by the way is not yet a city) and go wrong. What a pity 'tis.

SAN JOSE SCALE

There will be a public demonstration of preparing and applying the best known remedy for San Jose scale and other pests on Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 1 o'clock p. m., in the orchard of Smith Bros., one-half mile north of Towanda, on Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 1 o'clock p. m., in the orchard of S. A. Blanchard, three quarters of a mile south of Athens; on Thursday, Dec. 13, in the orchard of Mrs. J. G. Tracy, one mile west of Sayre. The San Jose scale is destroying millions of dollars worth of fruit trees in our state. All persons interested are invited to attend this meeting, bring specimens of fruits and twigs for examination, ask questions and receive the aid that is thus being offered by the state free of charge. W. B. Packard, inspector and demonstrator.

WILL GIVE GAME DINNER

James Adam, manager of the Sayre Brewing company plant, will go to Lockwood this evening to participate in a game dinner, which is to be given by Landlord John Quick of the Gilbert House. Mr. Quick recently went over to the Potter county, the land of the bear, the cotton tail rabbit, the rattlesnake and the leek. He returned, says Mr. Adam, laden with game, and tonight will serve the same to his many friends in this section. Several from Towanda, Waverly and Athens will also attend the dinner and a royal time is anticipated.

WILL INSTALL SIGNALS

In order to provide absolute safety to the traveling public and eliminate the possibility of accidents it is stated in railroad circles that the Lehigh Valley will construct new and modern signal towers at Silver Brook Junction and Laurel Junction, both to be connected with an electric system which will prevent trains from proceeding against each other on the same track.

REALIZED SUBSTANTIAL SUM

The Packer hospital will receive a substantial sum as a result of the production of "Jeane's Triumph," which was presented to two large audiences by amateurs at Towanda. The ladies of the Historical Club had charge of the enterprise, and they have turned the money over to the proper hospital authorities.

COAL TRADE BRISK

Despite the scarcity of cars the anthracite trade is extremely brisk on the Lehigh, which in addition to the shortage of men keeps the employment constantly on the move. The outlook for the accustomed holiday shut down at the mines is not encouraging at the present time.

THE PENNSY DIVISION HAS BEEN SHORTENED

Officials Change Its Eastern Terminal From Welden to Ransom

By a recent order of the officials of the Lehigh Valley, which went into effect yesterday, the Pennsylvania division of the road is two and one half miles shorter than it was heretofore. To people on the outside Coxton has always been looked upon as the eastern terminal of the Pennsylvania division, but as a matter of fact Coxton never was the terminal. The real terminal of the division for years has been at Welden, a small station lying only a short distance west of Coxton. As the mistaken impression which prevailed among the people at large could do no possible harm the officials of the road have never made any effort to correct the error.

Recently the company has erected a large cold storage plant at Ransom, in which to store fuel that comes from the Wyoming division. Ransom is situated two and one half miles west of Welden and in order to simplify matters the officials decided to change the terminal of the division from Welden to Ransom.

The coal all comes from the Wyoming division and the cost of transporting it can under the change all be charged to one division, whereas with the terminal at Welden it would have been necessary to charge part to the Pennsylvania division and the remainder to the Wyoming.

BUY AT HOME

Be loyal to your home town and its merchants. Do not buy elsewhere anything that you can get in your own town. The prosperity of any community depends upon its residents. Spend your money in the place in which you live. You are not only helping the merchant but you are doing an inestimable service to yourself and your family, if you are fortunate enough to have one.

LIBRARY PATRONS NOTICE

The patrons of the Sayre branch of the Athens Library are notified that the branch will not be open for the distribution of books until further notice. The librarian will be at the branch on Saturdays, 9th and 16th of the present month to receive books that are now out. All books should be returned not later than the 16th.

OWEGO MEN FLIMFLAMMED

Owego was visited by a short change artist the other day. The smooth gentleman flimflammed two clerks out of two $5 bills, and quietly departed. The police were notified but they were unable to locate the slick individual.

SIMPLE SIMON SIMPLE

Simon and Mose, those inseparable companions of the Sunday comic supplements, known from the east coast to the west coast have been dramatized and will be seen in the flesh on the boards of the Loomis on Tuesday next.

Associated with these lovable rascals are a host of other cartoon characters, namely, Hans Spiegelberger the butcherman, Tony De Bunski the fruit man, Sig Saute the circus man, Judge and Mrs. Simple, and a bevy of pretty and vivacious girls.

Simple Simon Simple was produced last summer by the Nixon & Zimmerman Operas Company at Philadelphia and achieved instant success. The book is from the pens of Charles H. Brown and Otis F. Wood and its lively sallies and witty speeches evoke rounds of applause, while the ludicrous business devised by these clever authors never fails to rouse Simon's audiences to peals of laughter.

Simple Simon Simple is splendidly staged and brilliantly acted; the music is colorful without being trashy, and the piece clean and sane to a marked degree. Its coming is an event in our theatricals.

INJURED AT MEHOOPANY

Harley Jenny, a resident of Athens, while engaged in sweeping a roof at Mehoopany yesterday afternoon slipped and as he slid toward the eaves he concluded to jump in order to avoid falling on the Lehigh tracks. He miscalculated the distance, however, and landed on one of the rails, severely injuring his left knee and spraining the left ankle. He was brought to his boarding place at Athens on the 8 o'clock train last night and is resting comfortably today.

INQUEST ADJOURNED

The inquest into the death of Mary Shaylor and little Harry Whitmiller by burning in the South Towanda fire a week ago Sunday, has been adjourned until December 20. Several witnesses were sworn yesterday but there were no new developments. Jerry Decker, one of the men who was severely burned, has as yet been unable to attend the inquest.
