"CHEERING UP" OPERA SINGER. Corey's Contemporary Develops Unique Affair. PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—With all its remarkable complications, a new human interest phase was added to the Corey case when it became fully known that while one of the sisters of the president of the United States Steel corporation is in Reno, Nev., by the side of the wronged wife, another sister is in Paris "cheering up" Miss Mabel Gilman, the comic opera singer, whom, it is said, Corey will marry as soon as his wife obtains a divorce from him. It has long been known that Miss Ada Corey sided with her sister-in-law from the start of the trouble, and, although her brother has been good to her in a financial way, she sacrificed everything and gave her moral support to the deserted wife. She is with her now, and all the money of her millionaire brother cannot tempt her away. The other sister, who is in the French capital, is Mrs. Elizabeth Riggs, who is known among the members of her family and her intimates as "Bird." For more than a year Mrs. Riggs has been in Paris and of late has been the constant companion and adviser of Miss Gilman. Mrs. Riggs has no sympathy for Mrs. Corey and would heartily like to see her brother divorced, so that he would be free to marry the dashing comic opera star. Both women have been studying under Jean de Reszke. It became definitely known that Corey was asked six months ago to resign from the head of the steel corporation. At that time he had been charged with indications which the directors of the steel corporation considered were not in keeping with the dignity of the position Corey held down.

WATCHMAN KILLED HIM. Italian Confessed to Shooting New York Physician Through Front. NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Antonio Calare, the night watchman, employed on the buildings amid which the murdered body of Dr. John Matheson was found Friday morning, was apprehended by the police of the Tremont station and has made a full confession. They found the Italian in an Italian boarding house in Mount Vernon. Friends had arranged, the detective learned, to take him to Philadelphia, but he seemed glad to fall into the hands of the police and told the whole story willingly. "Shortly before 4 o'clock Friday morning," he said, "I saw a head poke over a pile of lumber at the other end of which I was sleeping alongside of a fire. I thought the man was a thief and called out to him to know what he wanted. "I fired a shot at him, and as he jumped up I fired four more. I think it was the first shot that hit him, because I was so badly frightened the others must have gone wild. "The man fell to the ground. I walked over and saw I had shot him. I then ran to the home of Mr. Lavello, my employer, and told him I had shot a man. He told me I was crazy and ordered me to go away from the house. I was frightened and ran away."

Immigration the Great Problem. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—In presenting the annual report of the bureau of immigration, Commissioner General Sargent refers to the magnitude and gravity of the problem presented by the growth of the alien population of the United States. "These problems," he declares, "loom so largely in the prospect of our country that it may be said, without giving just cause to charge exaggeration, that all other questions of public economy relating to things rather than to human beings shrink into comparative insignificance."

Whiteman Goes to Auburn Prison. BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 11.—Alonso J. Whiteman was taken to Auburn prison today to begin a term of eight years for defrauding the Fidelity Trust company of Buffalo by means of forged and raised papers. This, according to Whiteman, is the first time that a conviction on a criminal charge against him has stood the test of appeal to higher courts, although his name has figured in many sensational cases.

Report on Organized Militia. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—General F. C. Ainsworth, military secretary, in his annual report on the militia of the United States says it is estimated that about 75 per cent of the organized militia would respond to the call for troops to repel invasion or suppress insurrection against the authority of the United States, the percentage being the same as that estimated for the preceding year.

California Elk Drive. As a result of the second day's drive of the herd of wild elk which for years have made their feeding grounds on the Miller & Lux ranch at Buttonwillow, 30 miles south of Bakersfield, Cal., 23 perfect specimens were captured with the larriat, and of these 20 lived to be transferred to the government reserve at Sequoia park. At least 175 animals are still at large. The task of transferring the herd is to be abandoned for the present.

Ought to Work. Here is an old recipe for making the hair grow "where you will have it." Take two ounces of bear's grease, one drachm of the ashes of burnt bees, one drachm of the ashes of southern wood, one drachm of the juice of a white lily foot, one drachm of oil of sweet almonds and six drachms of pure musk make an ointment of these and the day before the full moon shave the place and anoint it every day."
