

NOW UP TO HARRIMAN

Ex-Governor Odell Would Have Him Recalled.

GEORGE W. PERKINS HAS RESIGNED

Charles A. Peabody Elected President of Mutual Life to Succeed McCurdy With Salary of $50,000 Instead of $150,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—It is now said that Edward H. Harriman, friend of Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., will go back on the legislative insurance committee's rack and explain how he happened to forget when he was there before that he had tried to get Thomas F. Ryan to give him a share of the Hyde Equitable Life stock.

It was reported at the legislative insurance inquiry that former Governor Odell is anxious to have Harriman recalled, for he wishes to clear his skirts. Ryan in telling of Harriman's threats has involved Odell only by suggestion, yet the suggestion is so strong that Harriman will get the opportunity of saying that no matter what happened between him and Ryan in the Equitable purchase last summer Odell was not considered.

It is said that the committee's plan is to give Harriman a decent time to avail himself of requesting permission to return to the stand and answer Ryan's charges and if he does not come to time to order him to appear and testify forthwith.

George W. Perkins has resigned as first vice president and chairman of the finance committee of the New York Life Insurance company. Alexander E. Orr, president of the rapid transit commission, was elected to succeed Mr. Perkins as first vice president.

President McCall did not resign at the meeting. Vice President Kingsley said that a statement would be issued to the public later by the trustees. He would not disclose its contents prior to its issuance.

Charles A. Peabody was elected president of the Mutual Life Insurance company at a meeting of the board of trustees. The vote is said to have been unanimous. Eight men were considered before Mr. Peabody was selected.

Mr. Peabody will preside over the fortunes of the Mutual from Jan. 1 on. Frederic Crownwell retiring from the office of acting president at that time. The salary of the president will be $80,000 a year. President McCurdy got $150,000.

Mr. Peabody was nominated as a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rufus W. Peckham at the same meeting in which he was elected president. Mr. Emory McClintock was nominated at the same time to take the place of Elihu Root, resigned.

Drunkard Youth Killed His Father. WAYNESBORO, Ga., Dec. 14.—George Gilson, twenty-five years of age, shot and killed his father, W. C. Gilson, at Hills. The young man had been drinking and became enraged at his father's remonstrances. The latter retired to his room and locked the door. Procuring a shotgun, George came back looking for his father and, finding the door locked, broke it open and fired once, wounding his father in the stomach. The father died an hour later. The young man fled from the house, pursued by his younger brother John, who fired at him, wounding him in the arm. George has not yet been arrested.

ASSAIL THEIR LEADER.

Representative Lamar Made Attack on W. R. Williams in the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The "assailing of Democratic linen for the amusement of Republicans," as Mr. Williams, the minority leader, put it, occupied the attention of the house for more than four hours. The result accomplished was a deft throw at the minority leader by Representative Lamar (Pa.) and another by Representative Shackelford (Mo.).

The complaint of both resulted from the failure of Mr. Williams to recommend their appointment as members of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. Both made long speeches, in which Mr. Williams' leadership was assailed from many points. Mr. Williams replied to Mr. Lamar at some length and briefly to Mr. Shackelford. His defense was that last session the Democrats on this committee were divided, and he deemed it necessary for the good of the party and the country that a united minority report should be made on the subject of railroad rate legislation. At times there was high tension in the debate. Mr. Lamar was particularly bitter in his criticism and openly declared that his heretofore personal friendship for Mr. Williams was forever at an end unless the criticism of himself were retracted. He, however, would recognize Mr. Williams as the party leader.

Mr. Shackelford denounced all bosses and placed himself entirely independent of party leadership in the house.

The subject under discussion was the committee distribution of the annual message of President Roosevelt. Mr. Lamar charged Mr. Williams with contributory more than to the Democratic inharmonious than to Mr. Lamar had in a year. He admitted that on Monday he was in the heat of anger and glad that he had been stopped. However, his personal friendship for Mr. Williams had ceased.

Mr. Williams referred to the appointments of W. R. Hearst on the labor and irrigation of arid lands committee and admitted he did not love Mr. Hearst. "Why should I love a millionaire who owns many newspapers which he seems to be devoting to tearing me down?" he asked.

Mr. Lamar answered with feeling and charged that the minority leader had called the rate bill caucus of last session because he was angry at being turned down by his colleagues on the Miles amendment. "It was not a caucus; it was a gold brick," he said. Mr. Williams interrupted to caution Mr. Lamar and "to prevent unpleasant things from happening" adding that "the gentleman is not permitted to use insulting language on the floor of the house." Mr. Lamar referred to a letter of criticism of Mr. Hearst by Mr. Williams. The latter denied the criticism.

ASTOUNDING REVELATION CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS SEEK RELIEF

Loaded to the Gunwales with Millions of Dollars Worth of High Grade Men's, Boys' and Youths' Clothing that Failed to Sell Because of the Warm Weather in the Early Fall, They Have Asked the Retailers to Come to their Aid.

Murphy & Blish

The well known American Clothiers and Gent's Furnishers of Sayre have been among the first of the retailers to respond to the call and have secured an entire new line of winter Clothing, Underwear and Gents' Furnishings that will be placed on sale at their Lockhart street store, next the postoffice, and the cut in the prices has been made so deep that there is not a man, young or old, in this section that can afford to pass them by. The reason for this astonishing cut is plain. Manufacturers expected a big fall trade. The big concerns ran their factories night and day during the summer months anticipating the biggest business in the history of the clothing industry. They were grievously disappointed. Mild October and November weather was responsible for a big slump in manufacturer's sales and now at the very outset of winter they find their warerooms crowded with goods that must be disposed of at any price. Naturally they look to the retailers for relief, and the latter have promised to do their best.

The manufacturers need the money that is invested in their enormous output of Clothing and they are sending it to the retailers with instructions to cut the price to the core. The consumer is the only one who will profit by this transaction. Legitimate cut price sales by the conditions and if you fail to take advantage of the opportunity to secure high grade clothing at almost your own figures, you only are the loser.

The stock which will be placed on sale is positively the largest and finest ever displayed in a Clothing store in this valley.

It would require a sheet many times the size of this to list the clothing bargains which will be offered at this sale, therefore you will have to be content with a few, and witness with your own eyes the thousands of others when you visit the store. Here are a limited number of low priced offerings that will prevail during this money saving event.
