For Patients!
At Acton, England, recently, it was officially stated that the nurses at the public hospital were afraid to enter some of the rooms on account of the rats and that "the rodents terrified the patients at night by sitting on their beds." The matter was referred to a committee "with power to act."

King's Wrist Watch.
The king of the Belgians is punctual in all his appointments, even to the minute, yet he is never seen to consult his watch. He has a habit of passing his hand along his flowing beard, which is only a device for glancing at a small watch which is fastened to his wrist.

SENT TO OWEGO

Waverly—A young man named Wilson, who stated that he lived up Wyankoop creek, became intoxicated and was locked up in the town hall Thursday night but allowed to depart on condition that he go home. He failed to do so, however, but remained in town yesterday and took on another load of the trouble raiser. He was again taken into custody last evening and will spend the next 15 days at Owego.

ENTIRE FAMILY TIRED OF LIVING

All Declared They Would Commit Suicide, but the Undertakers Have No Deaths to Report

Waverly—A man who resides in the upper part of Waverly announced last evening that he was going to commit suicide. The declaration was communicated to other members of the family and they one and all consented that they would do likewise.

There were sounds of lamentation proceeding from that domicile for some time afterward, but so far as known they are all alive today.

PRONOUNCED INSANE

Waverly—S. S. Douglass was examined by Drs. J. T. Tucker and Gamble and pronounced insane. The matter was brought before Judge F. A. Bell this morning and Douglass was committed to the Binghamton State hospital.

He was taken into custody at Owego yesterday and brought to Waverly. It is said that while at Owego he tried to take possession of a hotel and claimed to be the proprietor.

CLAIMED HE WAS ROBBED

Waverly—A former native of the turbulent monarchy of Russia became thoroughly saturated with the product of the American distillery and the result was as tumultuous as that instilled by his native vodka. He turned revolutionist and was looking for the man who had robbed him. His valuables, however, were found in his possession. He was all right after a night in the town hall, after which he was allowed to go.

GOT THREE MONTHS

Waverly—A man named Devore was arrested last evening for being drunk. It was also claimed that he had robbed a boy of $5. The accused first declared that he did not know the boy, but later admitted that he did, and said the $5 was a gift. He was given three months for the former offence.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS

Waverly—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brewster entertained about fifty of their friends last evening at their home on Lincoln street. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in. Refreshments contributed to the enjoyment of the evening.

Risky Remedy.
Wood alcohol will kill microbes, but a man cannot safely attempt killing off the crop that he may have in his stomach with it.

Coal in South Africa.
Coal, which is cheapest in China, is dearer in South Africa than in any other part of the world.

Proper Punishment.
The penalty in Germany for adulterating food is six months in prison and a fine of 1,500 marks.

Island Renamed.
The Japanese government has rechristened Saghalien island. The new name is Karafuto.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

H. C. Dun & Co. Report Bright Outlook For 1906.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—H. C. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Holiday trade has become the principal commercial feature, retail sales surpassing all records, while it has been found necessary to place liberal supplementary orders. Yet this activity in specialties detracts little from the steady movement of staples, and in jobbing and manufacturing there is unprecedented preparation for the spring season. Little machinery is idle, and the outlook is brightened by several announcements of higher wage scales to become effective Jan. 1. Building activities are scarcely retarded by the advancing season, new permits being constantly granted, and dealers in some materials find their stocks nearing exhaustion. Railway earnings steadily show gains over last year's figures, for December thus far exceeding those of 1904 by 4.4 per cent.

At this port for the last week of November all exports were valued at $3,842,862 more than a year ago, while imports increased $1,490,099. Money ruled firm, and mercantile collections were prompt at most points. Securities continued active and strong considering the greatly reduced bank reserves. Clearing house exchanges at New York were 0.5 per cent larger than in the same week last year, while at other leading cities the gain averaged 8.6 per cent.

Grain quotations declined moderately in response to liberal receipts and predictions of a record breaking winter crop. Western receipts of 5,188,271 bushels of wheat compared with 5,582,897 last year. Corn receipts were 5,046,050 bushels against 6,327,083.

Commercial failures for the week were 239 against 232 last week and 276 the corresponding week last year.

For the Fur.
Animals to the number of nearly 70,000,000 are killed yearly for the sake of their fur.

Not Always Right.
Candor is all right in its place, but it has fractured many a friendship.
