NARROW ESCAPE FROM ASPHYXIATION

Sayre Man Blew Out Gas in An Easton Hotel and Serious Though Not Fatal Results Follow

Saturday night a story was circulated about the streets to the effect that Isaac Wallace and Richard Vail, two well known young men of this place, had met death by asphyxiation in an Easton hotel. An investigation developed the fact that while the story was untrue so far as the fatality part of it was concerned, that there was still an excellent basis for its being circulated.

It appears that a few days ago Wallace and Vail went to Easton to work on a steam shovel, as fireman and engineer respectively. On Friday they started out to find a place in which to board. After having visited several they found one to their liking and concluded to engage board. They were assigned a room and about the hour when curfew tolls the knell of parting day Vail retired. His room-mate Wallace found several friends and went about the city to see the sights, so that when he finally determined to go to his room the hands on the clock were pointing toward the hour of midnight. In the meantime Vail was in the far-off country of dreamland and consequently did not hear Wallace when the latter entered the room. Wallace disrobed, and after correctly locating the position of the bed and satisfying himself that he could land in the same without the aid of a light he blew out the gas, and a second or two later was ensconced between the coverlets. Tired from the labors of the day and his night out, Wallace went to sleep quickly. Previous to going to bed Vail left a call with the night clerk to be aroused early in the morning, and had it not been for this fact the story which was told on the streets of Sayre Saturday eve would doubtless have been true. When the clerk went to the door the next morning he smelled gas, and as the men failed to respond to his knock the door was forced open. The room was completely filled with the deadly vapor and Wallace and Vail were lying in bed alive but unconscious. A physician was summoned and when he arrived he found the men in serious condition and sent for help. Two more doctors were called and the three worked over the unconscious men for nearly four hours before they were pronounced out of danger.

OFFICERS CAPTURE NOTORIOUS THIEF

Man Who Robbed the Hawes and MacFarlane Residences at Towanda Apprehended at Troy—Confesses the Crime.

Bert J. Woodruff, 44 years old, who recently completed a three years sentence for housebreaking, has confessed to being the man who robbed the Hawes and MacFarlane residences at Towanda which were entered one night last week. Woodruff was arrested at East Troy by Officers Hollon and Miller. He put up some resistance, but after the officers had covered him with their guns he weakened and went along peacefully. He was taken to Towanda and when arraigned before Justice Orcutt admitted having burglarized the houses and also told of other robberies he had committed in Towanda. Some of the property stolen by Woodruff has been recovered. He will be given a formal hearing on the charge of burglary today.

WANTED INFORMATION

Chief of Police Walsh is in receipt of a letter from Miss J. Green, Rogers, Ohio, in which the writer asks for information concerning Joe C. Siegel, who formerly resided in this place, but who some time ago joined Uncle Sam's navy and when last heard of was on board the United States ship Lawrence. Miss Green learned that Siegel was drowned while at sea and wants to know if the information is correct. William R. Siegel, of No. 101 Olive street, father of the young man referred to, was shown the letter and says that his son is alive and well.

REMAINS TAKEN HOME

The body of Peter Ohlinger, who died at the hospital at this place from the effects of falling from the bridge which the Lehigh is erecting across the Tunkhannock Creek, was shipped to his former home at Reading on Saturday evening. TWO MEN LOVE THE SAME GIRL

And the Latter Wants Warrant For Their Arrest As They Have Threatened Her Life

Agnes Kunetsky, a pretty young Hungarian girl, of 18 summers, was before Justice Gay this morning endeavoring to secure a warrant for the arrest of two men, both of whom, the girl says, are head over heels in love with her. Recently the two men, who claim to be brothers, decided to allow the girl to choose between them, but much to the discomfort of both, she decided to worry along for a while without either. The men became angry and were driven from her father's home.

Last night they returned resolved to have revenge and one of them threw a stone through the bedroom window occupied by the girl. The stone did no damage other than to demolish one of the panes of glass but when the men left they declared that they would kill on sight the girl they professed to adore. As the officers of the law did not think there was sufficient evidence to insure conviction a warrant was not issued.

REGISTER, OR YOU CANNOT VOTE

If Your Name is Not on the Polling List Attend to This Important Matter at Once

Voters who are not properly registered cannot vote at the borough election which will be held in Sayre borough in February next. Wednesday next is the last day for the enrollment of names in the various wards, and electors who are entitled to vote but whose names do not appear on the registry rolls should attend to this important matter on or before the date named. Voters who have moved from one ward to another should see that their names are left with the assessor of the ward in which they are now living. Unless this is done in person it means disenfranchisement at the polls in the coming election. New-comers who are residents of the state will have resided in Sayre long enough to be entitled to vote at the spring election provided their names appear on the registry list. The names, however, must be given to the ward assessor in person. This act is obligatory on the part of the voter and unless he gives the matter attention on or before Wednesday next he will lose his vote.

HELEN A. TERRY

Helen A. Terry, the only daughter of Charles Terry, of 610 Desmond street, died rather suddenly of heart failure yesterday morning at six o'clock. The deceased had been in ill health since Thanksgiving but her condition was not considered alarming until a few hours before her death.

Miss Terry, who had been a resident of Sayre for the past six years, was fifteen years of age and her demise will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, by whom she was held in high esteem. She is survived by her father, her mother having died about two years ago.

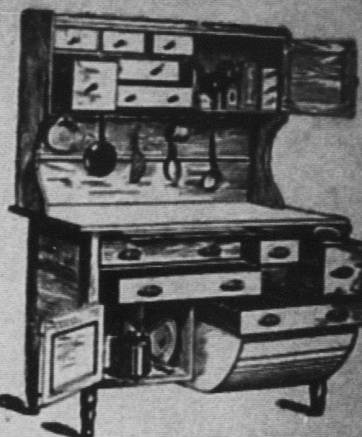

The funeral will be held this evening at 7 o'clock from her father's home, the Rev. J. F. Warner, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. The remains will be taken to Tunkhannock tomorrow morning for burial.

CONGRESS IN SESSION

The country printers would hardly know that Congress is in session were it not for the fact that nearly every mail brings them a small package of printed matter, carried at government postal rates (gratis). The package referred to is the "Congressional Record," a cheaply bound and printed little book containing the poems and other literary efforts of the men who have been chosen to represent the people of this grand and glorious country in the Fifty-ninth Congress which is now in session. The majority of printers do not lay awake nights reading the work. Its easily separated pages are too useful as newspaper wrappers.

BOROUGH OFFICES TO BE FILLED

Annual Election Will Occur in February and There Are Many Important Offices to Be Filled

At the borough election which is to be held in February next a councilman is to be elected in the first ward to succeed M. H. Sawtelle. The term of office is for three years. In the same ward a councilman is to be elected to serve two years to take the place of C. C. West, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. E. E. Williams, who was appointed burgess. In the same ward a councilman is to be elected to take the place of Silas Case. A successor to Councilman Pritchard is to be chosen in the second ward, and in the fourth ward a successor to E. H. Eason will also be selected. In addition to the above the voters of the borough will be called upon to elect a burgess, two justices of the peace, a tax collector, and in the first ward a school director will be chosen.

A LARGE INCREASE

The Lehigh Valley railroad company paid out over $200,000.00 among its employes in this valley this month. This amount is against $173,000 last month, and although these figures represent only approximate amounts the increase is nearly 16 per cent. Two hundred thousand dollars is an immense amount of money to come into a valley, the population of which is less than 20,000, and no wonder the residents look happy, healthy and prosperous.
