ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

Waverly—Em. English, who was placed under arrest last Saturday night was given a hearing yesterday. She was given just 30 minutes to get out of the village of Waverly, and warned that if she was found here any time within the next six months that she would be taken into custody and sentenced.

GREAT POCOHONTAS PRESENT

Waverly—The great Pocohontas of the state of New York was present last evening at the meeting of Wyanoke Council No. 149, Daughters of Pocohontas. She assisted in working the degrees on two pale faces. A reception and luncheon was held after the degrees were conferred.

ATHENS.

George Erk of Honesdale, Pa., visited his brother, William Erk, for a short time this week.

Howard E. Brown has some very artistic specimens of his crayon work on exhibition in Sanford's window.

Fred Lane and Charles Brink started for Gladys' West Virginia yesterday afternoon where they are to work on the erection of a hotel for Campbell Bros.

WILLIAM FORBES DEAD

Athens—A telegram was received by Mrs. A. C. McCaslin this morning announcing the death of her brother William Forbes at his home in Cazenovia, Mich., yesterday, the funeral to occur at 2 o'clock tomorrow. Mr. Forbes was born in Rome, Pa., and went west about thirty years ago. He was 75 years old and leaves one brother and a sister.

HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

Athens—Carl G. Bonney of To wanda has rented the Campbell hotel and furniture and will take possession February 12, 1906. Delos Dubois has managed it quite successfully for the past few years, but has been obliged to retire from business for a short time on account of failing health. He will remain in Athens for the present.

A CORRECTION

Athens—The U. V. L. will hold their banquet at the Campbell house Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 3, 1906, at 1 o'clock, instead of Jan. 6, as we stated yesterday. The installation of officers will take place at Grand Army hall at 2 o'clock the same afternoon.

J. E. McLaughlin, organizer for the International Typographical Union, was in Sayre this morning in the interests of the eight hour movement.

THE UNGRATEFUL ONES.

"Do you think it pays to be generous?" said the man of doubtful mind. "Well, that depends," replied the philanthropist. "To tell the truth it isn't the money I've given away that I regret; it's what I've lent!"—Detroit Free Press.

Insect Intelligence.

Among insects the most intelligent are those of the ant tribe, while next to them rank wasps. Bees come some way lower down the scale. Beetles are hopelessly stupid, but even they are not as bad as butterflies and moths.

Remembered the Cook.

King Edward's chef, M. Menager, was among those to receive birthday honors on the occasion of his majesty's recent celebration.

Youngest Congressman.

John Young Brown was the youngest man ever elected to congress. He went to the thirty-sixth house at the age of 23 from Kentucky.

Record Cod Catch.

The barkentine S. N. Castle brought to San Francisco, from the Okhotsk sea recently, the record catch for cod—208,000 in all.

KRIS KRINGLE'S ADVANCE AGENT

Will Present Gifts to National and Local Celebrities at Waverly on Christmas Eve.

There will be a great gathering at No. 370 Broad street on next Christmas eve. Santa Claus has established his headquarters at that place, and George M. Legg as his advance agent has erected a Christmas tree and has placed presents thereon for the local and national celebrities. This notice is given so that all may be present at the time of the distribution.

Grover Cleveland will be the recipient of a pair of American tanned half soles, while Ed Walker will be given a box of shoe polish. President Roosevelt is down for a pair of insoles and his daughter a pair of wool slipper soles. Justice Hoagland's walk will be made easy with a pair of comfort rubber heels, while Chief Brooks can reinforce his worn soles with a new pair of rubber soles. James Wiltse of Sayre can console himself with a candy cane. Michael O'Brien will be given a clay pipe and M. Clune can turn a bottle of rubber cement to any purpose he sees fit.

David B. Hill, Tom Platt, Simon Carmody, Sara Barnhardt, Dr. Dennison, Ed Palmer, Matt Bennett and several others come in for gifts of various kinds.

OPENED MEAT MARKET

Waverly—S. J. Bellis opened his meat market at No. 7 Elizabeth street this morning. This is the same market that was formerly conducted by C. M. Frisbie. The market has been thoroughly renovated and remodeled, the interior painted, and is very much improved in every way.

The fixtures are the latest and best on the market. Mr. Bellis' advertisement appears in this issue of the paper.

ELECTED OFFICERS

Waverly—Waverly lodge F. A. M. elected the following officers at their regular meeting last evening: W. J. Simmers, master; Harry Morgan, senior warden; R. B. Thayer, junior warden; P. L. Long, treasurer; M. H. Mandeville, secretary; H. C. Brewster, trustee. The installation will take place on the evening of January 1.

The Early Bird.

One of the rural schools in Kansas has a pretty girl as its teacher, but she was much troubled at first because many of her pupils were late every morning. At last she made the announcement that she would kiss the first pupil to arrive at the schoolhouse the next morning. At sunrise the three largest boys of her class were sitting on the doorstep of the schoolhouse, and by six o'clock every boy in the school and four of the directors were waiting for her to arrive.

Nearly Extinct Bird.

The kite, according to ornithological authorities, is declared to be extinct and it is practically so. But a vigilance committee has nevertheless been formed in Wales for the protection of the bird. A photographer recently traced one of the only pair of kites known to exist in South Wales to a cave in the mountains and with a lucky snapshot secured a photograph. The name of the pair is being kept a secret.

Nothing Doing.

It is a sorry day for the chronic sickener when nothing will go wrong.

THE OLD RELIABLE PIANO AND MUSIC HOUSE-D. S. ANDRUS & CO

DO YOU REALLY WANT A PIANO

Would you like to own a beautiful new and exquisitely toned Piano—one that you can show with pride and play upon with pleasure?

Would you buy such a piano if you were not held back by the thought that you cannot afford it? Let D. S. Andrus & Co. help you. They have assisted thousands in this vicinity to own their pianos, and that too without hardly missing the payments, and without paying interest. We make terms to suit your own convenience—so simple is our EASY PAYMENT SYSTEM. There are no disagreeable features about the D. S. Andrus & Co.'s plan, such as collectors, judgment notes, exemption clauses; nor is the contract you sign sent to manufacturers or strangers who will cause you trouble in affliction, but is kept in their own safe. This plan of easy payments was originated by D. S. Andrus & Co. for the benefit of workingmen and women and others who do not wish to use ready money. D. S. Andrus trust to your honesty and assure you at all times fair, square and honest treatment.

Bear in mind that because we give easy payments and extremely low prices we do not ask you to purchase unreliable Pianos. Our guarantee goes with every Piano sold. We are building for the future and are in Sayre to stay. To build up a large patronage we offer for this holiday season a series of Piano bargains unheard of before in this section.

NEW PIANOS $165, $197, $223, $247, $300, $350

and upwards, and we will give you absolutely free a stool, scarf, music book, one year's tuning and all delivery charges.
