The values we give have been brought to the test. You can read the answer—That's why thrifty buyers buy here and why this store is the Mecca for Xmas shoppers.

Howard French who was arrested for the larceny of the Wickizer butter appeared before Justice Johnson yesterday afternoon and waived a hearing, giving bail in the sum of $200, Leslie Tiffany and Cluilton French going his sureties.

HELD TO COURT

Athens—Orse Carpenter and John Birmingham were given a hearing before Justice Johnson at city hall yesterday afternoon to answer to the charge of larceny of a thirty pound pail of butter from the wagon of Newell Wickizer on the evening of December 14.

After hearing the evidence Justice Johnson held Carpenter under $400 bail to answer to court. F. H. Sherman became his surety. Birmingham was acquitted and discharged.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Athens—The Sunday School Carol service and Christmas tree will be held at Trinity church on Thursday evening, December 28 at 7 o'clock. A vested choir will render a special program and the public is cordially invited to attend. The seats are free. The offerings on Christmas day will be for the general relief of aged and infirm clergymen and for widows and orphans of clergymen.

NO REFLECTION

Athens—Although the Forrest House barn is spoken of as the place where the Wickizer butter was found, it is no reflection on the Forrest House. This barn is under the management of F. H. Sherman, who keeps a livery there and Carpenter and Birmingham are employed by him. The Forrest House management is not in any way responsible for what happens around there.

AN OLD BUTTON

Athens—Mrs. O. O. Claffin has a button worn by her father's great grandfather Miller, a soldier in the Revolutionary war. It is of copper, about the size of a half dollar and bears the inscription "Long live our president," with the monogram "G. W." There have been several of these buttons in the family and some of them they have had silver plated.
