ODELL'S COMMENTS.

Charges Roosevelt and Higgins With Personal Ambitions.

ARE ATTEMPTING TO WRECK PARTY

Gov. Roosevelt Accuses Present Ruler of New York State With Falsehood in Regard to Speakership Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Former Governor Odell, chairman of the state Republican committee, made a statement in which he said "I charge President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins with injecting their personalities into the speakership contest. They will be to blame if disaster results. I and my friends have not made this fight, but now we are for harmony, and we will have it if we have to fight for it."

Governor Odell also said, "I charge President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins with a deliberate attempt to wreck the Republican party in this state for their own personal ambitions."

Mr. Odell's accusations were a part of his comment on the situation growing out of the contest in the Republican party in this state for the speakership of the New York state assembly. Mr. Odell declared himself in favor of E. A. Merritt, Jr., several days ago.

On Monday last Governor Higgins came out in favor of J. W. Wadsworth, Jr. Mr. Odell said:

"I notice that Governor Higgins said he never was for Merritt. Shortly after election I went to Governor Higgins and asked him whom he was for for speaker. He eliminated all but Merritt and said that neither New York nor Buffalo could have it because it would stir up opposition against the cities. I asked him if Merritt would be satisfactory to him, and he asked me to see Mr. Merritt and ask him some questions."

"I saw Merritt and reported to the governor, and he said he was satisfied. I clearly understood he was for Merritt and was never so surprised as when he switched his trolley. This is the worst case of duplicity in politics I have ever known. Merritt is absolutely right in saying that the governor agreed to support him. He offered to the governor to stay out of the contest if the governor wanted him to do so."

"Led by the collarless and coatless young man who took us all to dinner in 1891 (apparently referring to J. Sloat Fassett), William Barnes, Jr., Colonel George W. Dunn and others with sore thumbs visited Washington and stirred up all this trouble."

"If President Roosevelt had the good of the party at heart he could have sent me at any time, and I would have been glad to confer with him for the sake of obtaining harmony in the party. If that had been done all this trouble would have been avoided without warfare."

"So far as gratitude is concerned, Governor Higgins certainly owed me something. Instead of putting out the hand of friendship he chooses to throw stones at those who have been his friends. Higgins could have told me that he did not want me or Merritt to be in this affair, but instead he throws stones. If the president wanted reform I was friendly, and they could have had it."

"If Governor Higgins and Mr. Roosevelt had wanted reforms they could have had them. I challenge either of them to contradict what I say. And right now I make the prediction that Assemblyman Wadsworth will not be elected speaker of the assembly."

"Will Mr. Merritt be elected?" was asked. "I do not know," replied Mr. Odell, "but I do know that Wadsworth will not be."

Congressman Coombs of the president's own congressional district, said that he had called at the White House to consult with the president as to the attitude of the assemblyman from Nassau county about the speakership contest. The president said that as a citizen of Nassau and a constituent of the assemblyman, if his advice was asked, he would state that in his opinion Mr. Wadsworth was an ideal candidate for speaker; that it would be the best possible thing both for the party and the state if he were elected."

Assemblyman Wadsworth said, "I believe Governor Higgins' statement that President Roosevelt did not dictate my candidacy, and I think Governor Higgins is abundantly able to take care of himself."

Mr. Wadsworth said he would not attend the conference of Republican assemblymen called in this city today, although he had received an invitation. He added: "I was never more confident than I am this minute that I will be elected. I have received assurances that make it absolutely certain."

Fassett Supports Higgins. ELMHURST, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Congressman J. Sloat Fassett when shown Chairman Odell's interview, in which the latter blamed Fassett for the present condition of things in the Republican party, and the statement of Senator Maibly threatening impeachment proceedings against Governor Higgins, said in part: "The talk of impeachment of the governor is rank nonsense. It is much better for a governor in office who is likely to be held largely responsible for party action to do everything in his power to uplift the party in the interests of the whole people and the entire party than for a governor out of office for his own selfish interests to maintain the present condition of things." Governor Higgins belongs to a different school from former Governor Odell. He is cool and determined and not easily frightened.

Canal Commissioners Confirmation Held Up on Account of Bishop. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Congress has adjourned until Jan. 4.

No effort was made by the senate committee on interoceanic canals to hold a meeting for the purpose of considering the nominations of members of the isthmian canal commission, the confirmations of which were reconsidered by the senate on Wednesday. It was agreed by members of the committee, however, that the confirmations should not be taken up again until after the holidays on account of the large number of absentees.

The president and nearly every one else was taken by surprise at the sudden developments whereby the confirmations of six canal commissioners were reconsidered and the White House asked to return the nominations to the senate.

Senators Allison and Hale had given the president assurances that the nomination of Joseph Bucklin Bishop as canal commissioner to succeed Wallace was confirmed, and it was thought there would be opposition only from a few Democrats. It seemed as if the worst of the canal troubles was over for awhile.

President Roosevelt's appointment of Mr. Bishop, formerly executive secretary and head of the literary bureau of the canal board at $10,000 a year, as a full commissioner, with the understanding he would also be secretary, was the immediate cause of the senate's outbreak. It was seen that the president had devised a way to give Mr. Bishop $7,500 a year as commissioner and $2,500 a year as secretary, thus allowing him $10,000 a year in spite of the plainly indicated opposition of the senate to his appointment.

Representative Williams (Miss) has introduced a bill which provides that hides, leather, shoes, boots, saddles and harness imported shall be free from duty from the country from which they come and the products and manufactures of the United States at its minimum tariff rate.

MURDER AT MUNCY VALLEY.

Mrs. Sarah Whitman, a Recluse. KILLED BY ROBBERY. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Dec. 22.—Mrs. Sarah Whitman, a widow, aged fifty-three years, was murdered in her home near the village of Muncy Valley, Sullivan county. Robbery is believed to have been the motive. Mrs. Whitman lived alone.

The crime was discovered by Charles Flick of Penn township, who sought shelter at his knock on the door. He entered and found Mrs. Whitman lying in a pool of blood with her head badly battered. The sitting room of the house showed evidence of a struggle. Mrs. Whitman was alive, but unconscious, and died before medical aid could be summoned. That robbery was the motive for the crime was evident from the fact that every closet and drawer in the house was open and ransacked.

Coroner McHenry and District Attorney Hill of Sullivan county are making an investigation, but have not yet obtained a clue. The Rev. S. B. Bidlock of Muncy Valley drove past the house earlier than Flick's arrival. He said he heard a noise in the place and saw a horse tied to a telephone pole near by. He did not stop to investigate.

King's Yacht a Hackensack Freighter. NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The bark rigged auxiliary yacht Hildebrand, whose cabins and decks have been the scene of gay parties in which King Edward of Georgia, Howard Gould and other owners were the principal figures, is doomed to the humiliation of being transformed into a common, ordinary freight conveyance on the Hackensack river. Frank R. Long of Hackensack, N. J., and Jacob L. Swartz bought the boat at a public auction a few days ago for a sum less than $10,000. She is now tied to the dock at Kaufmann's pavilion at Little Ferry, N. J., on the Hackensack river.

Cuban Cabinet Opposes Palma. HAVANA, Dec. 22.—The cabinet has annulled the decree of President Palma expelling Jose Pinnino, the Italian agitator, from the island. Pinnino on Sept. 15, at a meeting of Liberals deferred to President Palma as a "fool and traitor," and later by order of Secretary of the Interior Andrade he was deported on a cattle steamer to Cartagena, Colombia. He was refused admittance to Colombia and was returned here and afterward was deported to Halifax.

Ships Must Steer West of Dover. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—A warning was sent out by the hydrographic office to the entire shipping world requesting ship captains to look out for the floating dry dock Dewey so that ships might not pass between the dock and the vessels which are towing her to the Philippines. Strung out in tandem formation, the dock and the four accompanying ships will extend considerably over a mile.

Boston Hotels Busy Normal. BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The four hotels—Young's, the Parker, the Essex and the Adams House—the liquor licenses of which District Attorney John Moran declared were imperative on account of violations of the "screen" law, had their barrooms open for business as usual.

Duke Wins Right to Sue. NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 22.—Vice Chancellor Pitney has decided that James B. Duke is a resident of New Jersey and can sue for divorce there.

ONLY A FIGUREHEAD

Hendricks on Stand Admits Lax Inspection Methods.

EQUITABLE BOOKS WERE MISLEADING

State Superintendent Tells Why He Did Not Discover Extravagance and Corruption in Big Companies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—State Superintendent of Insurance Francis Hendricks, called as a witness before the investigating committee, confessed that he had been nothing more than a figurehead in the office he has held since ex-Governor Odell appointed him in 1900.

His testimony made clear why the great insurance companies which have been pilloried during the last two months by the committee and Chief Counsel Hughes have received clean bills from his department.

He admitted that he had not enforced the laws, had left examinations to subordinates who did not report to him and had permitted boards of directors to run things in their own way, his only concern being that death claims were paid. Extravagance and corruption in management he has not bothered himself about. His theory has been that the easiest way is the best way of doing things.

Hendricks has been accustomed to leaving everything to the other fellow. The other fellow in the state department of insurance is and has been since 1883 Chief Examiner Isaac W. Vanderpoe. In 1902 and 1903 Hendricks left the examination of the Mutual Life to Vanderpoe, and Vanderpoe did not find out that Richard A. McCurdy was getting $150,000 a year and that the rest of the McCurdy tribe was milking the company. Hendricks left the examination of the New York Life to Vanderpoe last year. The examination lasted from January to August. The result was the sacro-sacro. Nyle stayed in his hole, Andy Hamilton's "yellow dog" stayed in his kennel and George W. Perkins kept his father's letter in his pocket.

Inspector Hughes began the examination of Hendricks by getting from him the fact that Kate Hendricks is employed in the department as "soul-deck clerk" at $2,500 a year. Hendricks is a banker in Syracuse. He is reputed to be a wealthy man. He was appointed to office by ex-Governor Odell in February, 1900. His salary is $7,000 a year, with an allowance of $1,700 annually for traveling expenses.

Summing up Hendricks to the witness stand came a great surprise. It was believed that the investigation of the state's insurance department would not be taken up until next week at the capital.

In answer to a question from Mr. Hughes Mr. Hendricks said: "Since I have been in office I have never attempted to manage an insurance company. It has seemed to me that the management of a company should be properly placed in the hands of its officers."

"Now, Mr. Hughes, what you have developed here is dishonesty. I don't believe that any amount of examination by an insurance department will stop dishonesty."

"Now, we will take the Equitable. Unless we had had help from the inside we wouldn't have got anything. We could not find dishonesty on the books."

Henry Harland Dead. LONDON, Dec. 22.—Henry Harland, the American novelist, who wrote "The Cardinal's Snuffbox," "Mademoiselle Miss," "Grey Roses," "Comedies and Errors" and other well known works of fiction, is dead of consumption at St. Remo. Mr. Harland had been very ill since May. At that time his physicians gave him little encouragement, the disease having advanced to a point where recovery seemed impossible. Mr. Harland was forty-three years old and leaves a widow, who was Miss Aline Merriman of New York. He had no children.

Storm in Wyoming Valley. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 22.—A heavy rain and wind storm, which practically reached the dimensions of a hurricane, has swept the Wyoming valley. One man was killed, and property worth thousands of dollars was destroyed in this city and surrounding towns. Telegraph and telephone wires were broken down in all directions, and for several hours communication was cut off.

Togo's Farewell Address. TOKYO, Dec. 22.—Field Marshal Yamagata has been appointed president of the privy council. Admiral Togo, now president of the general staff of the navy, in his farewell address to the officers and men of the combined Japanese fleet warned them to be in constant readiness for emergencies. He concluded with the words, "Victors, tie your helmet strings tighter."

To Bring George Washington In. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—E. Woods, superintendent of the capitol, has appealed to the committee on library of the house of representatives to save the Gresham statue of George Washington, now on the esplanade east of the capitol, from further destruction by exposure to the weather. Mr. Woods asks that the statue be placed indoors.

Italy Sends a Warship. SHANGHAI, Dec. 22.—Italian armored cruiser Marco Polo has arrived here and has been ordered to remain until the re-establishment of tranquility. The commander has been authorized to land 300 men should be deemed such action necessary.

COLUMBIA LEADS.

Intercollegiate Chess Tournament at New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—At the conclusion last night of the first day's play in the fourteenth annual intercollegiate chess tournament in this city the representatives of Columbia university took the lead over Harvard and Yale, with Princeton bringing up the rear.

Columbia was pitted against Princeton and scored three and a half points against one-half point for their opponents. Harvard played Yale, and the result was a tie—2 to 2.

E. Schroeder, L. P. Wolf, O. Brown and H. Blumberg played for Columbia and W. Ward, C. Williams, H. G. Greenleaf and R. Hildre for Princeton. Columbia will now meet Harvard, and Yale will play Princeton. The tournament will be concluded tomorrow.

Students Will Fight Decision. NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A mass meeting of Columbia students will be held in Earl Hall today to protest against the faculty's action in abolishing football and discouraging intercollegiate athletics. The general opinion expressed by Columbia students is that they have been grievously wronged and that the entire situation has been overturned. They have resolved to fight desperately for what they consider the life of college spirit at Columbia.

Chief Hayes Got Handicap. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22.—The feature of the programme at City park was the five and a half furlong handicap. There were eight starters, and Garnish, one of the top weights, was backed from 7 to 2 down to 3 to 2, but he never was prominent, while Chief Hayes, Czarnaphine and Lucy Young finished nose apart in the order named.

Columbia's Once Again Champions. NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—In the annual canoe press held between sophomores and freshmen at Columbia university the sophomores won four bouts out of the seven. In the featherweight press M. Townsend, '08, defeated I. Luhrs, '08; R. B. Packer, '08, won from E. A. Ulsman, '09, and E. Breitfeld, '09, won from A. S. Sheenman, '08.

Racing at Ingleside. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—In the third race at Ingleside Bob Ragon, at 7 to 1, found the track to his liking and, ridden vigorously by Williams, defeated the favorite, Gossiper, by almost a length. In the fourth race three outsiders, at 40 to 1, took the money, May Holladay beating Expedient and Ray, all noses apart.

Silver Sue at Acot. LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—Silver Sue, at 14 to 5, easily defeated a bunch of two-year-olds. Asac was defeated, heavily backed at 16 to 5, got home in front of Golden Light. In this race Hersain carried the barrier through the bunch, and the dangling webbing interfered with the field.

Gold Enamel and Blue Pirate. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22.—The heavy track at Acot was held against the favorites, and only two, Gold Enamel and Blue Pirate, were successful. In each case the favorite was driven hard to win.

Avoided Home Rule Question. LONDON, Dec. 22.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's first speech since he accepted the premiership was delivered at Albert Hall last night before a mass meeting under the auspices of the Liberal federation. The premier carefully avoided the question of home rule for Ireland. He said that the fiscal question was the prime issue of the campaign against a government whose ministry "made a midnight flitting on a murky December evening." A feature of Sir Henry's speech was his announcement that the government had decided to stop the importation of coolies into South Africa until such time as the question could be decided by a South African parliament.

Attempt on Reyes' Life. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The state department has received information by cable that an attempt was made in Bogota to dispose of President Reyes as an incident to a plot for overturning the government. In consequence there were many arrests of prominent men who were to be tried by court martial. Among them was a former minister of the cabinet and five leaders of the opposition. No details are given of the reasons for the attempt upon General Reyes.

Why Bryan Did Not Accept. MANILA, Dec. 22.—W. J. Bryan has cabled from Hongkong declining acceptance of Governor Ide's invitation to be his guest during his stay in Manila for the reason that he comes as a newspaper representative and not as a private citizen, stating that by his acceptance of the acting governor's hospitality he would feel placed under certain obligations to the government, which he might wish to write about in the near future.

Flag Half Masted For Conley Funeral. BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The memory of George H. Conley, superintendent of the public schools of Boston, who died here on Wednesday, was honored at a special meeting of the Boston school committee. Eulogistic resolutions were adopted. It was voted to close all public schools today, the day of the funeral, and to have all the school flags placed at half staff.

Quarries Are Out. HOOSICK FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Operations in the slate quarries of eastern New York and southern Vermont were suspended by a strike of quarry men. About 100 men went out.

PEOPLE AND POWERS IN TUG OF WAR

Normal Life at Russia's Ancient Capital Ceased as by Magic—Fifty Thousand Workers Strike in Union for Freedom.

MOSCOW, Dec. 22.—Martial law has been proclaimed here, and normal life has ceased as if by magic. The stopping of the trains was the first sign that the general strike had begun. The employees of the municipality and zemstvo left their offices simultaneously. Railway work stopped like a clock run down. The principal factories followed suit. Within five minutes 50,000 men were idle.

The printing offices are closed, and no newspapers are published. The bank clerks will join the strike. Many strike leaders and the members of the Workers' council of delegates have been arrested.

The striking railway men are armed to the teeth and are meeting in coming trains with revolver shots. In the Baltic provinces the peasants are revolting boldly, seizing towns, villages and chateaux and organizing local administrations under an executive committee.

At Riga a popular leader has arisen named Taxime. He is a wonderful orator and is blindly obeyed by the revolutionists.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE.

High Watt Convicted of Inciting Agents to Murder Wife.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The remarkable trial of Hugh Watt, the former member of parliament, charged with inciting hired agents to foudler his divorced wife, Isabel Watt, and Sir Reginald Beachamp, ended with a verdict of guilty. Watt was sentenced to five years' penal servitude.

The judge in summing up said it was the most extraordinary case of modern times. Improbable as was the whole story, he thought it was equally improbable that any one could conduct and sever to such charges. The question of the sanity of Watt had not been raised, so the jury had nothing to do but find a verdict of guilty or not guilty.

Continuing the judge pointed out that the death of the former Mrs. Watt would place Watt in exactly the position he desired, as it would enable him to legalize his marriage to Lady Violet Beauchamp, which at present was illegal because Mrs. Watt had declined to have her divorce made absolute. Her death would also annul the deed of settlement between Watt and Mrs. Watt, which Watt desired.

The jury was out nearly two hours.

Mrs. Ingerick's Statement. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Mrs. Georgia Ingerick, who was assaulted and severely injured by her daughter and the two Olney brothers were murdered about three months ago, gave an interview here, in which she positively declared that "Little Dan" Davis was the man who called at her house about noon on the day of the murder and asked for water and clothes, claiming that the Olneys had been hurt. Mrs. Ingerick says she soon after went to the well for water and remembers nothing further. When she left the house her daughter was cutting dinner. Davis, who lives next to the Olney farm, is now serving a sentence of sixty days in the Genesee jail for intoxication. He was the first one to discover the body of the murdered girl in the cellar.

Nonunion Man Shot Dead. NEWARK, O., Dec. 22.—The third death resulting from the strike of 300 metal polishers at the Walpole Store works, the places of those polished having been filled by nonunion men, occurred last night, when Homer Loar was shot and killed while engaged in a fight with some fifteen or twenty strikers, during which time many shots were fired. The strikers immediately dispersed, and it is not known whether any of the shots fired by Loar injured his assailants. No arrests have been made. Loar leaves a widow and two children.

Mr. Longworth's Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Representative Longworth of Ohio has introduced a bill in congress providing for the purchase at a cost of not over $5,000,000 of buildings for the United States missions at all of the foreign capitals where this government maintains ambassadors or ministers. Mr. Longworth explained that the underlying purpose of the bill "is to remove the necessary qualification of great wealth for the holding of high diplomatic office under the United States."

The Way He Looks at It. CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 22.—"We are glad to accept so called 'hot' money," said the Rev. H. C. Bailey, pastor of the Antioch Baptist church, in announcing the acceptance by his congregation of $6,000 given by John D. Rockefeller. "It is not where the money comes from, but where it goes, that counts."

All Philippine Bids Rejected. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—All the bids for concessionary contracts of grants for the construction of railroads in the Philippine Islands recently submitted to the bureau of insular affairs have been rejected because of departures from the terms of the circular calling for proposals.
