ARMED REBELLION.

Czar's Cabinet Resolves Not to Grant Suffrage.

MOSCOW HELD BY REBEL MOBS.

Proclamation of the Revolutionists Threatens the Life of Emperor Nicholas—All Poland Under Martial Law.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says it has been finally decided not to grant the Russian people universal suffrage. This was determined at a session of the cabinet, presided over by Emperor Nicholas.

The boldest of all the bold pronouncements of the revolutionists is a mysterious handbill with which Tsarskoye Selo is flooded. Professing to allude to a terrorist plot against the emperor, the handbill says: "There will be a little puff of smoke. Pay no heed to it, as the result will be the best thing possible for everybody."

At St. Petersburg the revolutionaries have issued a manifesto declaring that the general strike will continue till a constituent assembly has been summoned and all other demands in regard to the constitution have been granted. The other demands include an eight hour workday, distribution of lands among the peasantry and the election of the chiefs of the army and navy by the army and navy themselves.

BERLIN, Dec. 23.—It was announced that the British government, in response to communications from its consuls at Riga and other Russian ports, has authorized them in case of danger to charter vessels for the removal of British subjects.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—In a letter read at the meeting of the Game and Fish Protective association, President Roosevelt recommended that hunting in the District of Columbia be prohibited. The city limits of Washington are now coextensive with the boundaries of the District, and although small and other game birds are frequently seen in the outskirts, they are being rapidly exterminated. Mr. Roosevelt was elected an honorary member of the association.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 23.—Frederick P. Sands, one of the best known yachtsmen in this section, is dead at his home here. Mr. Sands was formerly commodore of the Warwick Yacht club and vice commodore of the Rhode Island Yacht club. He was also a member of the New York Yacht club and numerous other organizations. Mr. Sands was born in New York, fifty years ago.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 23.—The colonial government having been notified by the British cabinet that the Washington government had protested against the alleged seizure of an American herring fishing vessel and the robbery of or destruction of American nets, anchors and other fishing gear in Bay of Islands, has denied all of the allegations and asserts that no vessel was seized.

HOW THEY WORKED IT.

Mutual Life Men Tell of Bookkeeping Ledgermen.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Lou Pays called on Senator Armstrong to make a date for his appearance before the committee. On comparing notes the chairman of the committee and the former state superintendent of insurance found that they were both pretty busy, but Mr. Armstrong found that he could spare Mr. Pays a little time about the middle of next week. So it was settled.

Chief Examiner Vanderpool of the state insurance department and officers of the Mutual Life took up most of the session. The latter witnesses told how millions of losses in the security account had been covered by substituting narrative tumbles in real estate book entries for brick and mortar collapsed without anybody noticing it. Examiner Vanderpool admitted that he had heard of the practice, but didn't think it worth mentioning to his chief. He said he was aware that the same thing was done in the New York Life. Mr. Higgins got from him a further list of things he did not think about.

Two Lehigh Valley Trains Killed and Three Hurt Near Elmira. ELMIRA, N. Y., Dec. 23.—The boiler of a locomotive drawing a southbound Lehigh Valley freight train running between Van Etten and Sayre exploded at "swamp siding" one-half mile east of the village of Van Etten last night. The freight train was carrying a load of lumber and was being pulled by a locomotive of the Lehigh Valley system, crossing over to the Elmira, Cortland and Northern tracks and then coming to rest at right angles across the Lehigh tracks again.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—In a letter read at the meeting of the Game and Fish Protective association, President Roosevelt recommended that hunting in the District of Columbia be prohibited. The city limits of Washington are now coextensive with the boundaries of the District, and although small and other game birds are frequently seen in the outskirts, they are being rapidly exterminated. Mr. Roosevelt was elected an honorary member of the association.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Joseph H. Choate, who recently was succeeded at the court of St. James as United States ambassador by Whitehall Reid, in all likelihood will be named by President Roosevelt as chairman of the American delegation to the second Hague peace conference. It is understood that Choate desired that former President Cleveland should head the delegation, but Mr. Cleveland expressed a disinclination to undertake the work.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Jacob Small, warden of the Eastern New York reformatory at Napanoch, is dead at the reformatory. He was once sheriff and Republican leader of Montgomery county and was one of the best known Republicans in the state. He suffered from an abdominal abscess aggravated by kidney trouble, and had been unconscious for several days.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, chief of staff of the army, in a letter to Mayor McClellan has declined to accept the office, tendered by the mayor, of police commissioner of New York. General Chaffee told Mayor McClellan that when he retires in February he will really retire from active life. He will go to California to live.

ROME, Dec. 23.—Announcement is made at the state department that Lord Griscom, now United States minister to Japan, has been selected to be ambassador to Brazil, succeeding David E. Thompson of Nebraska. Mr. Thompson being selected for the ambassadorship to Mexico.

EVER FOR HARMONY

Governor Higgins Goes to Clean Quite Satisfied.

REGRETS UNKIND THINGS WERE SAID

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 23.—Governor Higgins left Albany last night to spend Christmas with his family at Olean. He did not attempt to conceal the fact that the outcome of the past week's political conflict, unprecedented in some of its aspects, was eminently satisfactory to him and fulfilled his expectations in almost every particular. "Accepting," he said, "some unkind things that have been said."

JAMES W. WADSWORTH, JR. view of the positive pledges which have been given for the support of James W. Wadsworth, Jr. I regard that matter as settled.

The governor admitted that he had personal advice as to the outcome of the conference of assemblymen held yesterday in New York city. It had adjourned, he said, after a free discussion, but without action. There might or might not be another such conference before the final caucus which would make the Republican nomination for speaker of the assembly.

MORAN UPHELD.

Violation of Liquor Law Held to Invalidate a License.

BOSTON, Dec. 23.—In a lengthy communication Attorney General Herbert Parker instructed the Boston police commission as to its duties regarding investigations of alleged violations of the law and expressed as his personal opinion that District Attorney John R. Moran's claim that violations of the law annul a liquor license was well founded.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23.—The Fair grounds track was heavy at the opening of the racing, and the main which commenced before the third race was called made conditions worse. Three favorites, Proteus, Paul Clifford and Mr. Jack, and three strong second choices, Pinstick, Extol and Burning Glass, were the winners. After the fourth race George Webb, a trainer, ran Paul Clifford up to $700 and then failed to make his bid good. The horse was then bought in and Webb was fined $100 and suspended from all privileges for thirty days.
