Are You Troubled With Eye Strain?

W. H. Baird, Formerly of Philadelphia, Has Opened An Exclusive Up-to-Date Optical Parlors at 229 Broad Street, Waverly.

He will be pleased to see all those who are troubled with Eye Strain, also those who have not received relief owing to improper treatment elsewhere.

Eye Strain Is Not a Disease

but arises from mechanical defects in the construction of the eye or its controlling muscles. Relief in such cases can only be had through application of suitable glasses made to correct all existing defects. I make a special study of eyesight testing in all its branches and can assure a perfect correction wherever it exists.

I Recommend Glasses

Only when positively needed and clearly promising good results. Considering the character of the work I do my charges for a thorough examination of the eyes and glasses is moderate. You may be wearing glasses that are not properly adjusted. If you call at my optical parlors I will gladly readjust them free of charge. Remember the place, Cor. Broad and Clark streets.

NEIGHBORLY NEIGHBORS

Last night at the Grand Opera House, a crowded house witnessed one of the best musical comedy attractions of the season. Tom Waters, the star of the piece was never seen in the city to better advantage than in the character of Michael Ignatius O'Flynn in "Neighborly Neighbors" and the supporting company was excellent throughout the entire performance. Mr. Waters is to be congratulated on the magnificence of his production and the masterful manner in which he handled his role of a jolly old Irish politician and prosperous hotel boniface stamps him as one of the foremost character comedians in the profession. His talent seems to be unlimited and his piano specialty was the very best thing of its kind ever seen in this city. No better title could be suggested than Neighborly Neighbors for this uproarious bunch of fun. In the title one sees nothing but a fine blending of good nature and harmony. While in reality it is a continuous mixup of fighting neighbors and all worked up in a net work of the most comical situations imaginable. The item wishes Mr. Waters every success that he so richly deserves, also his manager Frank W. Nason for the enterprising and up to date manner in which they are presenting to the public one of the best and showiest entertainments entour. Mr. Waters will be remembered here as one of the shining lights for three years at the 11th street opera house.—(Phila. Item)

TO-DAY TO-DAY BEGINS THE GREAT BANKRUPT SALE!

The large stock of clothing, shoes, ladies skirts, cloaks formerly owned by H. A. Kaufman, Lockhart street, Sayre, and who has been declared a bankrupt and the stock was in the hands of the U. S. courts for the last 34 days, is now for sale at retail without reserve. The entire stock must be disposed of in the shortest possible time. The above stock consists of men's, boys' and children's suits, overcoats and a large stock of ladies, men's, boys' and children's shoes, ladies skirts and cloaks. The entire stock must be turned into cash at once, no matter what the cost may be; we care nothing about that. We cannot divide the stock among such a large number of creditors. It is the cash they must have and the cash they shall get. This opportunity knocks at your door, don't wait, don't put off!

No such sale has ever been held in this section, nor will such sale occur again for years to come. This is the first legitimate sale ever placed before the public of this valley where a stock must move without the slightest thought of cost of even the raw material. There will be nothing said about the cost. All we say to you is: Come and take the goods home with you.

The stock has got to go; we dare not keep it too long in our possession. Remember the place.
