That is what a Rochester lady said of Dr. Rand's Celery Remedy. "My nerves were worn, my blood weak, and I felt all run down, with no appetite. I tried Dr. Rand's Celery Remedy, and it did me so much good that I continued to take it, and I never felt better in my life." It is composed of roots, herbs and celery. LIVE WIRE KILLS HORSE INSTANTLY

Animal Belonged to Tioga Dairy Company and Slipped on Wire at Early Hour This Morning
Athens—This morning as John Smith was driving a team attached to the delivery wagon of the Tioga Dairy company, soon after 7 o'clock, one of the horses stepped on a live electric light wire and was instantly killed. Mr. Smith had been down the lower end of Main street delivering milk and was returning on the east side of the trolley tracks when one horse dropped instantly, and the other staggered and fell shortly after. He jumped out of the wagon and touched the dead horse on the nose receiving a shock that made him feel sick. He discovered the trouble, soon had the wire cut and a message phoned to the power house to turn off the current. One of the neighbors noticed the wire was broken about 4 o'clock this morning. Dr. Crawford was summoned and stated that the other horse was not seriously affected.

Flouts the Thirteen.
Gov. Edwin Warfield of Maryland, laughs at the 13 superstition, though according to the common view he ought to regard it with respect. He is the thirteenth governor of Maryland to occupy the executive mansion at Annapolis. He was elected by a majority of 13,000 votes, has 13 letters in his name and was inaugurated January 13, 1904. So far nothing has occurred in his political career to warrant any fear for the 13 superstition.
Out of Date.
Some sensation was caused during a Sunday school address the other day by a little girl who had overheard her parents discuss the non-eternity of punishment. The curate made a feeling allusion to the unpleasant character of the lower regions, and then paused, when in the dead silence the little girl observed in an explanatory tone, "Please, they don't use it now."
