REBELS HOLDING OUT

Barricade Fighting Makes Moscow Streets a Shambles.

GENERAL STRIKE OPENS AT ODESSA

Eight Thousand Armed Insurgents Devastate Baltic Provinces—Land-owning Proprietors Glad to Escape With Their Lives.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—Dispatches from Moscow say that the area within which barricades are being constructed is extending, and the insurgent organization is not weakened.

The rebels have fired the city in several places, and a large part of it is in flames.

Several fires have been started by the artillery in pounding down houses from which the rebels were hurling bombs on the soldiers.

The fighting renders it impossible for the municipal authorities to deal with the fires.

The cannonading in Moscow continues, and the list of casualties is swelling.

The revolutionists are operating in three sections. They are well armed with revolvers and rifles.

The women who are participating in the fighting are guilty of the worst cruelties.

The bloodshed at Moscow has been frightful, and the casualties will reach 15,000.

About 100 Red Cross workers have been dispatched from St. Petersburg to Moscow to aid in caring for the wounded.

The arms of the revolutionists come principally from Germany and Belgium.

Several shops in the old town are open, but the thoroughfares about the Kremlin are closed.

The Rostov regiment has joined the revolutionists.

Governor General Doubaissoff has issued a proclamation forbidding people to be abroad after 9 o'clock at night, to leave the doors of their houses open or to gather in the streets to the number of more than five persons.

The number of persons killed and wounded in the street fighting is 10,000.

The insurgents number 80,000 and have six machine guns of the latest pattern.

A St. Petersburg report says that a general strike has broken out in Odessa and Khar'kov and that bombs are being thrown in the streets of Khar'kov.

At Tiflis the Armenians and Mohammedan Tartars have concluded a peace.

A St. Petersburg cable says that E. M. Smith, a well known American resident there, reports that 8,000 armed insurgents from the Baltic provinces have crossed the railroad between Redjitz and Pakoff and that the whole country is lighted up by fires from burning residences.

He says that the insurgents, who are well armed and who have a battery of machine guns, announce that they are "annexing" the republic to the "Lithuanian republic."

Rich landed proprietors and their families boarded the train at Pakoff with nothing but hand satchels. They told Mr. Smith that they were glad to escape alive.

Barto Got Life Sentence. BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 28.—In the murder case of Charles Barto, twenty-one years old, who was accused of killing Stephen Hinko by shooting him twice as the result of bad feeling between two cliques of Hungarians, a verdict of murder in the first degree was returned by the jury.

Barto was returned by the jury. Barto was sentenced to life imprisonment. Before Barto left the courtroom he found time to write a note to his sweetheart, Mary Ballin, bidding her goodbye.

Young Tiedel Confessed Burglary. SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 28.—Frank A. Tiedel, who is in partnership with his father in Scranton's leading gun shop, was arrested here on suspicion of robbing Kilberg's jewelry store last Thursday night and after being taken to police headquarters confessed. He returned five watches and some silverware, but denied all knowledge of a bag containing $600 worth of diamonds, which Jeweler Kilberg alleges was taken with the rest of the plunder.

President Gordon Resigns. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The trustees of Howard University have accepted the resignation of President John Gordon to take effect at the end of the present school year in May, 1906, and granted him a leave of absence from Jan. 1, 1906, until the school year expires. Dean Frederick D. Fairfield of the collegiate department of the university was named as acting president of the university and will assume his new duties at once.

Dixie Will Be the Flagship. STRAIGHT TALK FROM BURNS.

New President is For "Small Charities, Large Wages, Less Drink."

LONDON, Dec. 28.—John Burns, president of the local government board, made his first public address since his entry into the cabinet when he opened the election campaign at Battersea last night.

In a characteristically courageous speech he said his accession to office was the elevation of his constituents to power. The honor was theirs, but the work was for him. He declared that he would pander to no section of the population, but would do his duty for the benefit of the whole community.

Mr. Burns said he had such strong sympathy with all the interests of the working classes that he had no sympathy to spare for the loafer, "cadger" or drunkard. His ideal was fewer workhouses, smaller charities, larger wages, more pleasure and less drink.

In the smaller cities and in the larger villages he said he was already appointing committees to enable the ratepayers to have their accounts prepared in such a way that he who ran might read.

He vigorously attacked what he called "orientalized imperialism," of which Somaliland was the fruit and South Africa the "rotten ripe product." He denounced Chinese labor as being politically dangerous, because it would lead to absolute chattel slavery.

BRYAN IN PHILIPPINES. Nebraska Statesman Entertained at Malolos.

MANILA, Dec. 28.—The provinces of Bulacan, Nueva Ecija and Rizal have received William J. Bryan enthusiastically with triumphal arches, music and parades during a ten hour excursion by railroad.

Mr. Bryan was entertained at a banquet at Malolos. The mayor elect delivered a harangue, with independence for its text, but Mr. Bryan was conservative in his response.

He counseled obedience to the government and gave a sketch of the political principles of the Democratic and Republican parties. He was applauded despite the fact that there was some disappointment in his audience that he had not attacked the administration.

Mr. Bryan afterward expressed surprise at the masterly manner in which the argument for independence had been presented. He is impressed with the good appearance of the crops and with the general prosperity and devotes much of his time to questioning leading natives.

He will sail for the Visayas group on Monday and afterward will visit the Moro country on the island of Mindanao.

POISONED CHRISTMAS CANDY.

Albany Police on the Trail of Offense on Miss Elsie Smith.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The police say they are on the trail of the person who on Christmas sent a box of chocolate creams liberally stuffed with Paris green and other poison to Miss Elsie Smith, who in the all halloween carnival of 1904 took the leading part as Queen Titania.

While Miss Smith protests that she has no idea who could have wished her harm, she admits that for several months she has been receiving anonymous letters threatening her with harm if she did not refuse the attentions of Clayton D. McKinley, who acted the part of Prince Charming in the carnival with her.

Mr. McKinley also has received similar letters, and all of those received by the couple are now in the hands of the police. One young woman has already been questioned by Chief Hyatt in the belief that she might know something about the matter, but thus far no arrests have been made.

"BURNHAM A CROOK"

Loa Payn Gives Sensational Insurance Testimony.

HAMILTON'S SECRET SERVICE STAFF

Ex-State Superintendent Had Little Knowledge of Assurance Methods and Depended on "The Other Fellow."

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—After listening to the reading by Charles E. Hughes, its chief counsel, of a statement made by "Judge" Andrew Hamilton, now in Paris, to the directors of the New York Life Insurance company, in which the legislative representative of the company defended his secret service staff, maintained at all the capitals of the United States to look after hostile legislation, the members of the legislative investigation committee at the city hall heard Louis F. Payn, former state superintendent of insurance, give sensational testimony.

Mr. Payn declared that while he was in office he had hoped to get Frederick A. Burnham out of the presidency of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance society because he thought "he was a crook."

This declaration was made after Mr. Hughes had shown the witness a letter from J. D. Wells, who once made charges against the management of the Mutual Reserve which led to an examination of the company by the insurance department while Mr. Payn was in charge.

The former state superintendent paid his respects to Mr. Wells immediately after his reference to President Burnham by declaring, "But he (Burnham) was not as big a crook as Wells."

In the Wells letter was reference to what the writer described as "your proposal to force Mr. Burnham to resign the presidency of the company in favor of General James."

Mr. Payn insisted that no proposal of the kind had ever been made.

Mr. Hughes then asked: "Then you did not propose to force Mr. Burnham to resign?"

"No, sir," was the answer. "I was in hopes to get the thing in shape where I could get him out."

"Well, you are not satisfied, then, with his administration?"

"Not at all. I was not satisfied with every assessment company out of business; that is what I would do."

Mr. Payn testified that he went into the state insurance department with no knowledge of insurance and came out of it with a very little. He said he had depended almost entirely upon the chief examiner, Mr. Hughes brought out that during the time Mr. Payn was in office he did not examine various insurance companies, including the Germania, Metropolitan, United States Life and Washington Life.

Kaiser For Peace With France. BERLIN, Dec. 28.—A report says that the following words were used by the German emperor at a private meeting recently: "It is wrong to say that there exists around me a war party. This party does not exist. Even if it did it would have no importance, as to me alone belongs the right to arrive at a decision on such a point. I do not want war, because I consider war contrary to my duty to God and my people. I have been irritated by grating proceedings on the part of Delesclaux, but I render whole homage to the tact and firmness of Douville. I shall do nothing to create difficulties. I have given Tattenbach most conciliatory instructions."

Fighting For Night Hour Day. ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The Master Builders' association of Ithaca declared for the principle of the open shop on all building contracts they have in hand. The millmen and benchmen of Ithaca, numbering nearly 100 men, are now on strike as the result of demands by their employers that they should work nine hours a day and be treated as individuals without regard to unionism. The millmen and benchmen are affiliated with the Carpenters' union, which stands for an eight hour day and strict unionism.

MRS. EDDY'S ORDER

Christian Scientists Must Abandon Christmas Giving.

"PASTOR EMERITUS" WANTS ROGIFTS

Exchange of Tokens Criticized in Her Message as Wholly Wrong and Not in Accord With Church Teachings.

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 28.—One of the most sweeping edicts ever issued by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, head of the church of the Christian Scientists, in which she practically forbids her followers all over the world from setting apart Christmas day as one upon which to give or receive gifts, has caused a furor among the believers, who number more than 1,000,000.

In every one of the 900 churches established in various parts of the world a new section to one of the church by-laws was read to the congregation last Sunday, in which it was explicitly set forth that no word of thanks or greeting be sent to the "pastor emeritus," as Mrs. Eddy has styled herself. In a message also she criticized the exchange of presents on Christmas day as wholly wrong and not in accordance with the church teachings.

Seldom has so much discussion been occasioned by an order sent forth by Mrs. Eddy. Thousands had bought Christmas presents to give to friends and relatives. So affected were the majority of the followers of the church of the Christian Scientists by the well-worded message sent forth by Mrs. Eddy that they gave up their plans of merry-making and allowed Christmas day to pass unobserved.

That Mrs. Eddy should deem the matter of such importance as to add a section to the bylaws of the church also caused a sensation among her followers. It appeared at first peculiar to them that she should issue such an order after allowing many years to go past without making any comment on the worldwide custom, but it turned out that Mrs. Eddy has been the recipient year after year of hundreds of telegrams, gifts and letters of thanks and Christmas cheer upon the annual Yuletide event, all of which annoyed her, so that she decided to put a stop to it.

She then decided to issue a "message," which in the manner in which she describes most of her orders, in which she sets forth what she considers the evils of present giving in Christmas time. This message also forbids the sending of any presents to the "pastor emeritus" on Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's or Easter.

Among the latter were Thomas Nelson Page, the novelist; Charles R. Flint of New York; Rear Admiral James K. Cogswell (retired), U. S. N.; and Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition company. The reception was a notably brilliant function.

Two Memphis Banks Go Under. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 28.—Anticipation of a heavy run on the Merchants' Trust company here, preliminary intimation of which was given by the withdrawal of many deposits, was the immediate cause of the suspension of that bank and the appointment of a receiver. The American Savings Bank and Trust company, which is dominated by the directors of the Merchants' Trust company, fearing that the suspension of the other institution would cause a run on its own deposits, also suspended payment until the affairs of the Merchants' Trust company shall have been adjusted.
