A man who resides north of Waverly came to town yesterday afternoon and proceeded to fill himself full of distillery products. He fell into the hands of Officer Corcoran and spent the night in the town hall. He was allowed to go this morning on a suspended sentence.

She Knew Him.
An architect remarked to a lady that he had been to see the great nave in the new church. The lady replied: "Don't mention names; I know the man to whom you refer!"

When Smart Baby Should Cry.
If babies were half as smart as their parents claim they would cry less at night and harder when a book agent showed up to sell books to their mothers.—Atchison Globe.

Tried It on Horse.
A teamster in Oakland, Cal., arrested for driving a lame horse, said his employer was trying to cure the horse by Christian science, and had made him take off a poultice from the horse's leg.

GOING TO CALIFORNIA
Waverly—E. J. Eisenberg, who has been a co-partner with G. E. Bailey in a cigar factory at No. 11 Cadwell avenue, has sold out his interest to Mr. Bailey and will go to California.

WELL KNOWN FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE

Ill Health and Despondency Is Given As the Cause

Waverly—Byron D. Ingham, a farmer residing in the town of Chemung, about three miles north of Waverly, died yesterday from the effects of a dose of strychnine which he had taken with suicidal intent.

The deceased had been suffering from Bright's disease for some time and this, coupled with other trouble is supposed to have furnished the motive for the act.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house with burial at Glenwood cemetery, Waverly.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

William Stanley and Miss Maud Ovenshire were united in marriage at the parochial residence by the Rev. Father Moarity.

Miss Christine Pierce of Elmira acted as maid of honor and Walter Stanley of the same place was best man.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ovenshire on Broad street.

Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley left for a brief trip and on their return will reside on West Broad street.

Titled Author.
King Edward's brother-in-law, the duke of Argyll, has enlarged his sphere of literary effort by writing a book of nonsense verse in the form of a long ballad. His first work, "The United States After the War," brought him to the notice of American readers. After serving as governor general of Canada he wrote a book descriptive of the dominion.

Woman Expert.
Miss Nell Havens, of San Francisco, is the only woman recognized by the government as an expert in photography. She has studied the Bertillon system of identification and pictures taken by her are accepted by authorities as equal to those made by Bertillon himself.

Wasteful Girl.
The Brooklyn Gazette says that a Castleville young man, whose best girl while in a sportive mood hit him in the face with a ripe pawpaw, is looking for another girl, one who will know better than to waste pawpaws so near the end of the season.

Dangerous Proverb to Quote.
"Remember," said the charity sharp, "he gives twice who gives quickly."
"In other words," rejoined the marble-hearted man, "he gives twice as much as the fellow who stops to think it over."—Stray Stories.

Acquiring Knowledge.
Mrs. Jenkins—My son writes that he is at the head of his class at college.
Mrs. Jones—Oh, the freshman class, isn't it?
Mrs. Jenkins—No. He calls it the "waterweight."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Her Opinion.
"Man," remarked the youth with the noisy tie, "is a superior animal."
"That's what," rejoined the young lady in the parlor scene. "A man can be more kinds of a donkey than a donkey can."—Chicago Daily News.

CARPET CLEANING WORKS ON FIRE

Prompt Action of Proprietor of the Establishment Averts Possible Disastrous Conflagration

Athens—This afternoon about 1 o'clock P. J. Stone was on the roof of the engine and boiler room of his carpet cleaning establishment, South main street, making repairs on the roof. He was only nicely engaged at his work when there came from the room beneath a thick black smoke which hurried him to the ground and he found the engine room all ablaze. He had set a pot of coal tar on an oil stove to heat, which boiled over. Seeing Mr. Macafee at his back door he asked him to turn in an alarm of fire. Then, with a hoe he reached the stove and snatched it out of the building, and the rest of the combustible contents. The floor of the engine room is concrete so that the fire could do no damage until it reached the wood-work. Mr. Stone had a desperate experience for a few minutes. Had the fire gotten under headway nothing could have saved his establishment and the Smith barns adjoining. No. 1 hose company reached the place very soon but their services were not needed.

Lived and Died Together.
While several guests were celebrating the diamond wedding of a couple named Bader, at Konigsvalde, Germany, the wife was seized with syncope and dropped dead at the table. Within ten minutes the aged widower also fell dead.

Kept Her Word.
Tess—So you're really engaged to him?
Jess—Yes, I thought you said you wouldn't marry him if he were the last man in the world.
Jess—Well, he isn't, is he?—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Scarcity of Copper.
Two years ago the United States had a surplus of copper. Now it is the reverse. A constantly increasing demand and a constantly decreasing viable supply is the present state of the copper industry.

Great Terrier.
Killing 80 rats in 20 minutes was one of the feats of Nell, a cross-bred Leeds (England) terrier, which has just died. Her record kill was 170 in one night.

Imperial Orchids.
The empress of Germany is passionately fond of flowers, but for some time has favored orchids, of which she possesses a great variety.
