PROPOSED ELECTRIC LINE IS A MYTH

So Says Secretary Kennedy of the New York State Railway Commission

Secretary John Kennedy of the New York State Railway Commission says that no official notice of the intention of the Erie Railroad company to build a trolley road from Binghamton to Corning has been received by the commission. Mr. Kennedy is also authority for the statement that the Erie in order to build a trolley line will have to bring the project before the commission. While the company would not have to obtain the permission of the commission to build a line over its own right of way, it would be necessary to get official consent before a line could be constructed through villages and towns. Mr. Kennedy is inclined to look upon the story of the Erie building a trolley line as mythical, and says it is a matter of surprise to men in railroad circles that the Erie did not name the proposed road as one of the reasons in objecting to the Elmira & Corning electric lines. Another hearing on the Chemung Valley Electric Company's proposition will be held before the commission at Albany on January 10. It is expected that on that date the matter will be definitely settled.

WILL GO WEST

C. J. Cary, who has conducted a successful contracting and building business in Sayre for several years, expects to leave for the west on the 15th of the coming month. Mr. Cary's trip to the west will be made on account of Mrs. Cary's health. She is suffering from a throat affection which it is hoped the dry altitudes of Colorado will greatly benefit. In contemplation of the trip Mr. Cary has not been entering into contracts for work since the middle of the summer and it is his intention to temporarily suspend business here until he has had an opportunity to test the climate conditions of the west with reference to Mrs. Cary's health. Mr. and Mrs. Cary will probably go from Sayre to Pueblo, Colorado, and at the latter point will doubtless be able to determine upon a location which will be the most likely to give beneficial results. They will be gone several months. The citizens of Sayre, among whom Mr. and Mrs. Cary have many friends, will wish for her speedy recovery and early return to Sayre restored to health.

TRANSFERRING OPERATORS

Commencing on Monday next the telegraph operators on the old D. S. & S. railroad will be transferred from Drition to Superintendent Gildroy's office in Hazelton. The transfer of the operators is taken as an indication that eventually all the engines and crews now stationed at Drition will also be transferred to Hazelton as it is claimed that by this arrangement they can be directed more expeditiously.

AN OPEN WINTER

The old resident who has kept tabs on the weather record for the past half century predicts an open winter. The warm rain of last night leads him to make several observations. He says that there will be no snow to speak of and that the ice men are likely to experience considerable trouble in harvesting enough for next summer's use.

SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY

A woman who gave her name as Maggie Burgess has been sent to the penitentiary for 155 days for maintaining a disorderly house at Ithaca. The woman formerly resided at Towanda and while in that place was known as Maggie Fagin-Cornby.

HEARING HELD IN LARCENY CASE

Father-in-law Institutes Criminal Proceedings Against Son-in-law to Recover Certain Household Goods

The case of George Preshler of Smithboro against his son-in-law, Thomas Randolph of Litchfield township, was given an airing in Justice Gay's court this forenoon. Preshler, who is well along in years and a veteran of the Civil war, charges Randolph with larceny by bailee. The property involved is a quantity of household goods to the value of $212, which Preshler alleges belongs to him and which he charges Randolph with unlawfully withholding. It appears according to the complainant that about two months ago Randolph induced Preshler and his wife to remove to the former's home in Litchfield. The couple brought their household goods with them, but in a few short weeks living with their son-in-law was not found to be desirable on the part of the latter. Accordingly he suggested that Preshler and his wife go to the home of a relative in Smithboro. This arrangement was finally agreed upon, but when Preshler wanted his household goods Randolph, it is alleged, refused to give them up, claiming that Preshler owed him for moving. Preshler, finding his son-in-law obdurate, came to Sayre and instituted larceny proceedings through Attorney C. C. Yocum.

The Hon. L. T. Hoyt represented the defendant and before any evidence was submitted a settlement was effected by Randolph agreeing to return Preshler's property and each side to pay their own witnesses.

ENGINEER PROMOTED

John Spire, a well known Lehigh Engineer who formerly resided at Ithaca, who was recently promoted to the passenger run between Sayre and Manchester, has just received a higher promotion to the Black Diamond run between Sayre and Easton. Mr. Spire has been employed by the Lehigh Valley for a long term of years, during which time he has successfully handled the throttle on all divisions of the system. He is regarded as a most competent and trustworthy employe and his promotion is well received by his many friends among the railroad men.

ENJOYABLE SOCIAL EVENT

A most enjoyable social event was given in the Movahno club rooms last night, at which about one hundred were present. Dancing was enjoyed during the early hours of the evening, followed by an excellent lunch. Coleman's orchestra of Ithaca furnished the music for dancing. The affair was of an exclusive nature and the patronesses were Mrs. F. E. Lyford and Mrs. Fred Sawyer of Waverly; Mrs. Willard Kells and Mrs. C. H. Ott of Sayre, and Mrs. S. R. Payne and Mrs. Kirby Harris of Athens.

NO JOB FOR GREENHORN

It is said that the Phoenix Iron Company has offered $300 for the removal of the 300,000 feet of timber used in the false work underneath the railroad bridge which crosses Tunkhannock creek. The bridge is on the Lehigh Valley and is nearly completed. After the job has been completed the company wants the timber removed. An old contractor is said the have looked at the job the other day and remarked that it is not a job for greenhorns.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

There will be a farewell reception at the Baptist church tonight for the Rev. Ira Bingham. A program will be rendered at 8 o'clock. The friends of Mr. Bingham are cordially invited to be present.

PRESENTED WITH A HANDSOME BIBLE

Rev. Ira W. Bingham, Retiring Pastor of the Baptist Church, Appropriately Remembered by His Brother Odd Fellows

Sayre Lodge, No. 1090, I. O. O. F., held a meeting last night of more than ordinary interest, and the event will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. In accordance with plans previously made, Athens lodge, No. 165, sent their excellent degree team to Sayre to confer the third degree upon three members. The work of the visiting team was beyond criticism and under the able direction of Degree Master Leon K. Lane the work was performed in a most exemplary manner. During the conferring of the degree the members of the team were vigorously applauded, and when they had finished they received many compliments from the Sayre members. The Sayre Odd Fellows have an excellent degree team and therefore know what good work is like.

Following the conferring of the degree Past Grand Crayton on request took his place at the head of the hall and in a few well chosen words proceeded to present the Rev. Ira W. Bingham, pastor of the Baptist church, an elegant seal covered and handsomely printed teachers' Bible, as a slight token of the love and esteem in which he is held by his brother Odd Fellows. Mr. Bingham's departure will be exceedingly regretted by his fellow members in the order of Odd Fellows. He has been a valuable member and the entire order will unite in wishing him prosperity and happiness in his new field of labor. He received the gift with a few appropriate remarks, in the course of which he assured those of whom he was about to take leave of his interest in their future welfare.

Following the close of the session light refreshments were served, B. L. Lewis being chosen toastmaster on acclamation. The Athens Odd Fellows acquitted themselves admirably in making the responses. The bill of fare presented, while not over elaborate, still it consisted of various delicacies and staples. The coterie of young men who acted as waiters was a feature, the speed and excellence of their serving being noted and favorably commented upon by both the regular and visiting members. The committee who had charge of securing the refreshments also received various remarks. The wee small hours saw some of the members still eating, and it is said that the rain which caught them unprepared is what kept them in the hall, but this is disputed. On the whole the Odd Fellows are pleased with the result of last night's meeting, and Athens and Sayre will come closer together hereafter owing to the impetus given at the social meeting of last evening.

NOMINATED OFFICERS

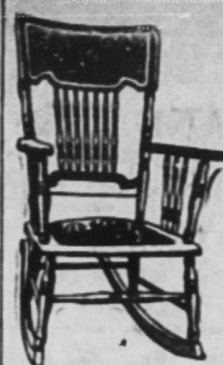

At the stockholders' meeting of the Sayre Building and Loan Association held last evening the following officers and directors were nominated for the ensuing year: President, J. W. Bishop; vice president, W. T. Goodnow; secretary, Chas. C. West; treasurer, Wm. H. Flory; solicitor, H. F. Maynard; directors for three years, G. M. Angier, J. H. Price, Geo. L. Roberts; directors for two years, I. A. Samuels, Dr. Cummings. The election occurs January 25, 1906.

REMAINS IDENTIFIED

The remains of the man who was killed at Towanda on Wednesday afternoon on the Lehigh tracks have been positively identified as those of O. E. Dunlap. Dunlap's parents, who are well to do farmers, reside near Meshoppen and yesterday a brother of the deceased went to Towanda and took the body home for burial.

NOWLES CAPTURED AT WESTFIELD

Towanda Horse Thief is Taken Into Custody at That Place Yesterday

This morning Chief of Police Walsh received a telephone communication from Westfield, Tioga county, stating that "Wink" Nowles, who is wanted by the authorities at Towanda for horse stealing, is in under arrest at the former place, having been taken in custody there yesterday. Nowles confiscated a wagon and a team and a wagon belonging to a Towandan several days ago. Accompanied by a woman and a child he passed through Sayre and was traced by the police as far as Milltown. From Milltown he went to Elmira and at the time it was thought that the police of that city would have no trouble in effecting his capture. It appears, however, that he took another route and went to Westfield. He will be brought back to this county and made to answer the charge of horse stealing.

LEHIGH TRAIN HIT TROLLEY CAR

Two Women Killed and Three Others Seriously Injured

A mixed Lehigh Valley passenger and freight train crashed into a trolley car at the Julia street crossing at Girardsville at an early hour yesterday morning. Out of five passengers in the trolley two were killed outright and all the others seriously injured. The accident is said to have occurred on account of the neglect of the motorman to observe the conductor's signals. The conductor had gone ahead when the crossing was reached and when he saw the passenger train coming he signaled to the motorman to stop. The latter, for some unaccountable reason, failed to bring the car to a stop and the trolley was struck by the pilot squarely in the middle. The passengers killed were both women.

RAILROAD MEN INJURED

Wesley Delaney, the well known Lehigh engineer who handles the throttle on train No. 3, sustained a severe contusion of the right temple near the coal pockets at Milltown this morning. Delaney had his head out of the window when he was struck by an apron on one of the pockets. He went to the hospital for treatment.

Ray S. Jackson, a fireman, had his right ring finger caught underneath a large chunk of coal and sustained a severe laceration. He went to the hospital where it was found necessary to remove the nail from the finger.
