WADSWORTH NAMED

Victory For Higgins' Nominee at Albany Caucus.

ODELL CANDIDATE WAS NOT IN IT

Vote-First Ballot Stood: Wadaworth, 75; Merritt, 14; Wainwright, 15-Made Unanimous.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 3 .- James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, son of Congressman James W. Wadsworth and son-in-law of the late Sec retary of State John Hay, was nominated last night by the Republican assembly caucus for speaker of the assembly and will be elected to that office today, when the assembly convenes. His Democratic opponent will be Gearge M. Palmer of Schobarle, who for many years has been the minority leader on the assembly floor.

Colonel Archie T. Baxter of Chemung was nominated for a twelfth term as cierk of the assembly. The vote was taken by open roll call.

and there was no attempt to secure a secret hallet as had been expected This result brings to a close one of the most remarkable speakership campaigns of recent years, characterized by marked factional bitterness and some unusual features. Mr. Wadsworth was not among the candidates originally in the field, but was proposed by Governor Higgins in a forma statement and, in addition to the support of the governor and his friends, was regarded as having the approval of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Merritt had the backing of State Chairman B. B. Odell, Jr., and his friends in the state organization, who fought with marked determination for his election or, falling that, for the defeat of Mr. Wadsworth.

The Republican assembly caucus was called to order by Mr. Phillips (Allegany), chairman of the caucus committee, and Mr. Mead (Albany) was elected chairman of the caucus. He spoke briefly of the importance of harmony and creditable action on the part of the

Mr. Wade (Chautauqua) introduced a esolution calling for the nomination of speaker and specifying that the vote should be taken by open roll call, each member of the caucus as his name was called rising to name his candidate. The resolution was adopted without a Assemblyman S. Percy Hooker (Gen esect, who was himself a candidate for speaker, nominated James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston. He first ex pressed deep regret at the death of S. Fred Nixon, remarking that no man could hope to fill his place. He then placed in nomination the name of Mr. Wadsworth, whose name was welcomed with applause. He referred to him as having been cordially commended by the press of the state. Mr. Gates (Oneida) in a brief speech nted the name of Edwin A. ritt, Jr. (St. Lawrence).

Mr. Stanley (New York) nominated J. Mayhew Wainwright (Westchester). Mr. Apgar (Westchester) in seconding the nomination of Mr. Wainwright said he did not sympathize with the criticisms of President Roosevelt and Gov ernor Higgins, which had been made during the contest, but believed the assembly should elect its speaker, free from outside interference. He pointed to the many cases of precedent for electing a man of experience and to the fact that Mr. Wainwright was entering upon his fifth term. Fred J. Gray (St. Lawrence) seconded the nomination of Mr. Merritt. Mr. Rogers (Broome) made a speech for peace, hoping that from this time on acrimony should cease, personal ambition be trained and the welfare of people and party take first place. He seconded the nemination of Mr. Wads

Mr. Agnew (New York), seconding the nomination of Mr. Wadsworth, said be had maintained that it was the right of the metropolitan district to have the speakership, but present conditions made that impracticable.

Mr. Hartman further seconded the comination of Mr. Wainwright. He attacked what he said was a dangerous tendency of dictation in legislative matters. He deprecated any effort to thrown into the well for revenge. make the speaker of the assembly "the creature of the executive."

Mr. Martman defled any man who should vote for Mr. Wadsworth to claim honestly that he believed he was voting for the man best fitted for the speakership. Any man who did not so rote was violating his oath and betraying the interests of his constituents. The executive, he declared, "just at business." He paid a high tribute to

The vote was then taken, and Mr. Wadsworth was nominated on the first ballot, which gave him 75 votes, Merritt got 14 and Wainwright 15; total vote, 104; necessary to a choice, 54.

Mr. Merritt moved to make the nomi nation unanimous. In doing so he cordially thanked his friends for their support and his opponents for their con sideration and honorable treatment of him. Aside from his personal disap-pointment, he said, he bore no ill will. He understood the attitude of each man and declared that he had stood for a principle which he was sure would in the near future receive greater consideration. He said he felt sure any mistakes or shortcomings of Mr. Wadsworth, his successful rival, would be attributable to youth and inexperience, which time would suffice to cure.

He was warmly applauded.

Mr. Walnwright seconded the motion.

He, teo, thanked those who had supported him and wished Mr. Wadeworth
