WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1906.

Exchanged Words.

Curious exchanges of words sometimes take place between two languages. Thus English has borrowed the French "poseur" and has given to France "snob" in trade. French men have a way of taking a polysyllabic word and using half of it. Thus of "steepchase" they have appropriated "steepie" and now the French "sportman" speaks of "mounting a steepie" when he means to ride a race over the customary obstacles. A smoking jacket is with him a "smoking" and a sleeping car is a "sleeping."

Simple People.

The Roumanian peasantry lead a very simple life. The principal dish at each meal is the maize cake. Each person in his turn breaks off a small portion for himself. Besides this, each takes a couple of onions, a small bowl of beans, a slice of water melon, a few plums and a draught of water. To this frugal meal is bidden any laborer or wayfarer who may look as though he had no dinner.

Believes Heaven Filled with Men.

In Moncure Conway's "Reminiscences" is a story told by Helen Taylor, the stepdaughter of John Stuart Mill. Once, in Scotland, she called on a poor woman who had lost her little son. The mother was inconsolable and said: "What troubles me is, they be all men folk up there in Heaven and won't know how to do for him."

The Sad Eye.

Don't imagine that every sad-eyed woman you meet has loved and lost. It's more likely that she loved and got him.

Colonel a Spanish Title.

The title "colonel" is derived from the Spanish. The name is "coronel," which may account for the English pronunciation.

Many Churches Built.

Between 12 and 15 churches a day, or between 4,000 and 5,000 a year, are built in this country.

Love and Quarrels.

The people who make love in public are usually the ones who quarrel in public after marriage.

DRUNKS SENT TO OWEGO

Waverly—Two drunks were corralled last night. One, giving his name as George Armstrong, was very lame. He claimed Jersey City as his home and said he sold court plaster "and such as that" for a living. He was evidently an old rouser and was given fifteen days at Owego.

The other, who had only one leg, gave his name as John Murphy. He is a tough looking character, and was sent to Owego for a protracted stay.

BARBERS ELECT OFFICERS

Waverly—The following officers were elected at the last meeting of the barbers' union: President, M. E. Clune; Vice Pres., D. H. Van Zandt; Sec., E. L. Knais; Recorder, F. J. Johnson; Treas., J. L. Woodburn; Guide, E. D. Gardner; Guardian, J. B. Holcomb.

INSTALLED OFFICERS

Waverly—Monoca Lodge, I. O. O. F. held a meeting last night and nine candidates received the third degree.

The newly elected officers were installed. D. D. G. M., W. H. Thomas conducted the ceremony, and called several of the Past Grand Masters to his assistance.

The elective officers who were appointed were, Noble Grand, J. D. Hoagland, Vice Noble Grand, E. D. Baker, Recording Secretary, C. O. Hoagland; Financial Secretary, L. F. Lord; Treasurer, W. H. Brougham.

The appointed officers were, R. R. S. N. G., George Fenner; L. S. N. G., I. M. Hoag; Warden, J. C. Post; R. S. V. G., Charles Ferguson; R. S. S., Leon Snyder; L. S. S., G. A. Bailey; I. G., Samuel Sherman; O. G., George Mandeville; Chaplain G. S. Blizzard.

The room was completely filled during the ceremony. A very enjoyable smoker was held after the meeting was concluded.

ENJOYABLE EVENT

Waverly—The banquet given by Hope Legion N. P. L. last evening was a very enjoyable event. A large number partook of the banquet and enjoyed the entertainment. Several members were made happy by receiving their dividends.

Panama Canal Possibility. The cutting of the Panama isthmus by means of a ship canal will mingle the animal life of two coasts where there are a thorough study of the fauna of the isthmus ought to be made before the waterway can be completed.

Explorer's Project. M. Arotowski, a Belgian explorer, has published a project for the exploration of the regions round the south pole, by means of motor cars, fitted with skates for travelling on the ice.

WHEN WINTER COMES

"Oh, the weather is nipping!"
Cried Billy Bin,
And he drew his coat collar
Up to his chin
"Oh, it makes my nose tingle!"

Just to see the snow:
This is the loveliest
Weather I know
With skates and with coater,
Each day brings new joy:
And I'm mighty thankful;
To be just a boy.

—Brooklyn Eagle.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

will be given at the Loomis on Friday, January 5th, upon a celebrated scale, under the management of Leon Washburn. The part of Uncle Tom is played by Mr. Edward Espy, probably the best known impersonator of the character in America, as he was the original Tom in Stetson's company, which has been before the public for many years. Misses Lillian Johnson and Emma Glasby are the Toppies, and Messrs. David Boyer and Niles Nelson play the character of Marks, the lawyer. There will be fifty capable people in the cast who are players of more than ordinary ability. Among the novel specialties introduced will be the buck dancing of Tom Kelly, the superb vocal numbers of the "Ladies' Creole Quartette" and the "Lone Star Male Quintette." The scenery of this production is said to be entirely new and truly magnificent. The transformation scene and wonderful vision being marvelously effective. A grand street parade will be given, in which will be seen Col. Sawyer's challenge pack of Siberian bloodhounds, Eva's Shetland ponies, Mark's donkeys, a number of beautiful chrirots and tableau wagons and two bands of music, drum corps, etc. Watch for the parade.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Miss Etna Duncan of Waite, N. Y.; Mrs. Fannie Abel of Ithaca; Mrs. Tillie Jones of Sayre, and Frances Shields also of Sayre, underwent operations at the hospital this forenoon.

John Mueller, a machinist employed in the shops, sustained a painful contusion of the hand this forenoon, having got it caught under a piece of iron.

Japs Leaving.

The better class of Japanese who have been living in California are going home in large numbers. They think there is more chance to make money in Korea and Manchuria.
