A. MAX HILLER HELD

C. A. Edwards' Brother-in-law In New Haven Jail.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL IN MURDER CASE

Jury Finds Victim Died From Pistol Wound That Could Not Have Been Self Inflicted—Fearful Violence.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 5.—Allan Maxcy Hiller, brother-in-law of Charles A. Edwards, the New York man who was shot to death in a mysterious manner here while at the home of Charles A. Hiller, another brother-in-law, at 117 College street, has been ordered placed in the lockup at police headquarters for safe keeping by Coroner Mix.

This action was taken at the end of a five hours' hearing at the coroner's office. Mr. Hiller was present when the order was given to Detective Sergeant Ward to take him to police headquarters. Hiller walked calmly along the street to the station house, but on reaching that place he began to gesture wildly and to talk almost irrationally.

It was determined, by the autopsy that Mr. Edwards died from a bullet wound which could not have been self-inflicted. It was found that not only was there a bitter disagreement between the Hillers and Mrs. Edwards over the distribution of the estate of Mrs. Abigail Hiller, but that Mr. Edwards had repeatedly told friends that he expected to die by violence.

Interviews given during the day by the Hiller brothers and by friends of the family all seemed to indicate that there was a bitter family disagreement over the estate of the late Mrs. Abigail Hiller, whose death occurred on Nov. 9, 1905.

Charles A. Hiller when asked about the situation said that about 11 o'clock Tuesday night Mr. Edwards bade him good night and went to his room. The next morning, as Mr. Edwards did not appear early to take a train for New York, Mr. Hiller went to his room and, opening the door, tried to arouse him.

It is explained that his failure to bear any report of a revolver during the night, when the bullet which killed his brother-in-law sped to its mission, Charles Hiller said that he sleeps habitually muffled in blankets, even to his head, as he is naturally subject to chills.

HIS INAUGURATION.

Governor Guild Opens Bay State Legislature.

BOSTON A GREAT METROPOLIS.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—The legislature was opened here with the usual ceremonies. The inaugural address of Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., at the statehouse was in part as follows:

"We are met in no mean city. The real Boston is the greater Boston—that includes the homes as well as the workshops and counting houses of this community. It is a great metropolis, a greater metropolis than its own citizens perhaps appreciate. It should be developed as such."

"The combined exports and imports of Boston are exceeded only by those of New York. This is the second seaport in the United States. It must not retrograde. Both exports and imports exceed those of last year. The total excess over last year of foreign commerce in the eleven months of this figure are at hand shows a gain in these eleven months of nearly $30,000,000."

"Through the conventions of her two great parties, through her general court and governor, Massachusetts has already demanded from the national government immediate construction of a tariff framed to meet the lines of modern competition. Massachusetts asks the removal of such duties as are now needless, the reduction of such duties as were once just but are now excessive, and the development not of our commerce alone, but of the commerce of the United States by more friendly trade treaties with other nations."

"Massachusetts stands at the broken board of the nation not as a crenelated beggar, whimpering for an alms, but as a strong man demanding aggressive action from his peers."

"Such action has already been urged on president and congress through our senators and representatives on whom alone the constitution imposes the responsibility to the people for such national legislation. We await their championship of our cause with trust and confidence."

"For us the constitution of our own commonwealth prescribes the concentration of energy on the legislation for which we in turn are responsible to the people of Massachusetts. Never more than now have they had the right to insist that such legislation should be enacted in the spirit of the Massachusetts declaration of rights, which proclaims government is instituted for the common good, for the protection, safety, prosperity and happiness of the people and not for the profit, honor or private interest of any one man, family or class of men."

"We legislate for a single commonwealth, but that commonwealth is Massachusetts. The pilgrims faced cold and starvation to found an asylum for freedom; they did not arrange for interference with the destinies of the farthest east, yet because of the foundations of American government, laid amid the winter gales at Plymouth, Anson Burlingame opened China to the world and Theodore Roosevelt sent peace among the nations. Those who have deserved best of their fellow men are those who, called to service, have sought to do the clearest, nearest duty well and have found that honor followed without seeking."

"The founders of Massachusetts set their hands to the rocks, and the forests. They did not impudently raise them to the skies."

"Amidst the storm they sang: And the stars heard, and the sea."

ST. TAMMANY, OUTSIDER, WON.

Favorite, Sir Andrew, at New Orleans, Was Picked Up Bleeding.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5.—Improved weather and track conditions resulted in a larger attendance at City park, and the sport was excellent. The betting was lively, and four favorites were beaten. In the fifth race some of the heaviest of the plungers were hard hit. Mr. Corrigan's brown gelding, Sir Andrew, was the favorite, and he was heavily backed, but just as he was getting into a contending position near the head of the stretch he bled profusely and was pulled up. The race was won easily by St. Tammany, an outsider in the betting. Summaries:

First Race.—Champ Clark, first; Gold Zoue, second; Adonis, third. Second Race.—R. U. Ara, first; Marimbo, second; Gold Colt, third.

Third Race.—Bonart, first; Little George, second; Chamblin, third. Fourth Race.—Gus Healdorf, first; Commune, second; Lucy Young, third.

Fifth Race.—St. Tammany, first; Boomtime, second; Hopewell, third. Sixth Race.—Keynote, first; Jobs, second; Nameoka, third.

Cornell Garamen Out in January. ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 5.—For the first time in the history of local aquatics the Cornell rowers are enjoying practice on the water in January. With a temperature of 47 and a warm south wind, Coach Courtney took advantage of the springlike weather and had the candidates for the crews rowing nearly two hours on Cayuga inlet.

Three Favorites at Los Angeles. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 5.—The feature of the racing at Ascot park was the success of two of Durnell's horses and the remarkably heavy play on them in the ring. Sir Wilfrid and Incantation romped home ahead of their fields. Three favorites were successful.

Sewell Rode Three Winners. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5.—Hyacinth excitement and Charlie Thompson were the winning favorites at the fair grounds. All three were ridden by Sewell. Merry Belle and Ingolthrift, both well supported, were heavily handicapped by the muddy track.

Soldiers Defeated Montreal Team. OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The team of the Fortieth Separate company, New York national guard, defeated McGill college of Montreal at basket ball here last night by a score of 38 to 11.

Victory For Williams. WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Jan. 5.—Williams defeated the University of Pennsylvania at basket ball in the college gymnasium last night by a score of 15 to 11.

Court Martial on Midshipman Foster. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 5.—The proceedings before the court martial which is trying Midshipman Worth W. Foster of New Albany, Ind., for the alleged hazarding of Midshipman Chester S. Roberts were of interest, as not only were some new forms of hazarding explained, but the number of witnesses who sought to be excused from answering questions on the ground that they would incriminate themselves indicates how thoroughly the practice of hazarding has permeated the institution.

BLOODSHED AT RIGA

Workmen Bombarded in Rubber Factory by Artillery.

CZAR'S SOLDIERS MAD WITH RAGE

Many Revolutionists Pay Last Penalty—More Than a Hundred Carried to Hospitals—Correspondent's Narrow Escape.

RIGA, Livonia, Russia, Jan. 5.—About 5,500 armed workmen invaded and took possession of the Provodnik rubber factory before daylight, and the military were ordered to bombard the factory with field guns.

The revolutionists killed the policemen who were guarding the building, and a detachment then crept into an adjoining structure where a patrol of dragoons were asleep and murdered eight dragoons and six stablesmen and wounded eleven others.

The sole survivor managed to escape and give the alarm to the troops, two regiments of which with artillery and six quick firing guns, arrived at the scene by daylight. In the meantime the revolutionists had thrown up barricades and a terrific fire was opened by the troops upon these defenses and on the factory.

In the midst of the confusion existing at this dispatch was written it was impossible to ascertain the number of killed or wounded, but many men had been slain and more than 100 wounded had already been carried to the hospital. Twelve bodies of workmen were taken from the ruins.

The soldiers were almost insane with fury. The territory in which the factory is situated was picketed off by the guards, who threaten to kill any person approaching. The correspondent had a narrow escape. He unwittingly entered the prescribed territory through a side street and was fired upon before he had an opportunity to explain.

Car Sent $50,000. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 5.—Emperor Nicholas has sent $50,000 to Governor General Doubassoff for the relief of needy sufferers of the revolt at Moscow. Dispatches from Taganrog and Rostov-on-Don report continued fighting in the revolutionary movement, in which several persons have been killed or wounded. At Hadom, in Russian Poland, a bomb was thrown at the chief of police while he was walking in the street with his wife. The latter was killed, and the chief was terribly injured, both of his legs being torn off by the explosion. Some bystanders also were injured.

Absolutely False, Says Britain. LONDON, Jan. 5.—Great Britain anticipates that Russia will repudiate the statement made by Admiral Rojstevnsky at St. Petersburg that the British fleet in far eastern waters intended to crush the Russians in case the Japanese failed to do so at the battle of the sea of Japan. The foreign office declares the statement to be absolutely false.

General Percin Wounded in Duel. PARIS, Jan. 5.—During a duel with swords Major Driant twice wounded General Percin, disabling his right arm. The duel lasted for an hour and consisted of thirteen bouts. The combat was brought about by an article published by Major Driant condemning General Percin, who was chief of staff under former Minister of War Andre, for connection with the secret reports made against army officers during Andre's ministry. Percin is the general whose salute General Brugere commander of the army, recently refused to acknowledge in the Bois de Boulogne.

Robbers Got $12,000 Loot. SHOALS, Ind., Jan. 5.—The safe in Albaugh's general store was blown open with dynamite, and $2,000 in cash and $11,000 in government bonds were stolen. There is no clew to the robbers. The bonds stolen are more registered. Charles Taylor was held up in the street by the band, which consisted of two or twelve men. He was locked in a freight car. The safe and vault of the store were wrecked by the explosion, which was evidently caused by nitroglycerin.
