PRE-INVENTORY SALE

As stated to you in our yesterday's advertisement, we will take inventory February 1st, and in the meantime, make offerings of seasonable merchandise at out of season prices. We want no remnants of any sort left. Most close cuts are at factory cost and appeal to thrifty buyers.

Furs

Regardless of price are cut to cost to us, and cos to us means less than small dealers can buy them at, hence, any price you pay is better value for same money than you can get at many places.

This means practically every fur at from 75c per

A BURNING SHAME

Athens-Efforts are being made Miss Carrie Moon has returned to secure funds for the erection of from a two weeks' visit with friends a monument for the grave of Gen. H. J. Madill who is buried in the Wysox cemetery without a marker. It is a burning shame that a hero soldier should be forgotton. A subscription will soon be circulated in this vicinity for this purpose and it is hoped that it will meet favorably with our patriotic citizens.

> > TRADE CONDITIONS.

Co.'s Report of Busine Outlook. NEW YORK, Jan. 6. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Erratic weather and customary difficulties encountered in resuming normal conditions after a lengthy holiday have restricted operations during the past week, especially in retail and jobbing depart-ments. The situation is relieved to some extent by clearance sales of heavy weight wearing apparel, and there is good demand for staple lines of food stuffs, while prices are maintained so firmly that confidence is evidently un shaken. Annual settlements are prompt ly made, and inventories show the fe vorable results anticipated. In some parts of the country it is impossible to fill orders for lumber and building mawork an unusual feature for the season
