The Binghamton and Elmira papers speak in glowing terms of Kirk Brown and his company which is booked for the Loomis this evening. The company is declared to be the best popular appeared in either of these cities and the theatre-goers have simply gone wild over the performances. In Binghamton Mr. Brown played ed the following officers for the a two weeks' engagement and each night the Stone opera house was packed to its capacity. A large crowd went to the Loomis this afternoon to witness the matinee who will get in trouble if they performance and the indications are that the house will be packed again tonight.

profession. The plays provided by her management this season, and the majority of which have never before been presented here, have been selected with minute adaptaing company is first class in every respect, and local patrons are assured of performances which in real point of merit equal, if not excel, the majority of high price attractions. The scenic equipment carried by this company is replete with many new innovations in this line, which will be seen during the course of the week. The specialties which will be introduced be-
