ANOTHER POLICE OFFICER SUGGESTED

It Is Claimed That One Man is Hardly Sufficient to Safely Protect the Business Section of Sayre

In view of the burglaries and petty thievery that has been going on in Sayre recently it has been suggested that the council should provide another police officer to do duty nights. One policeman in the business part of the town it is claimed, is hardly sufficient to insure fair protection against midnight maulers and desperadoes. Under present conditions Officer Voegel covers the business section including the territory in the First ward on the east side of the Lehigh tracks. His duties require him to go to the hose house on Packer avenue and report each hour during the night to the central telephone station. It is an easy matter under these conditions for crooks and thieves to keep the officer located at most every hour of the night, whereas, if there were two men patrolling the same territory, there would be less opportunity for crackmen to do their work. While the Record is not willing to add unnecessary taxation to the taxable inhabitants of the borough it nevertheless believes that this is a question which should be discussed by the borough council.

MRS. EMMA KNAPP DIED THIS MORNING

She Was the Wife of E. A. Knapp The Well-Known Lehigh Engineer

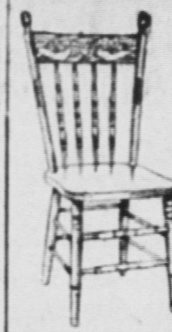

Mrs. Emma Knapp, wife of Edward W. Knapp, the well known Lehigh Valley engineer of No. 412 West Lockhart street, expired this morning about five o'clock after a week's illness. Death was due to acute gastritis. The deceased was 38 years old and is survived by her husband and four children. She had resided in Sayre for several years and was held in high esteem by all who knew her, and her death will be generally regretted. The arrangements for the funeral are in charge of J. W. Grumme's undertaking establishment and they will be announced later.

PETITIONING FOR PATRICK'S LIFE

Elmira Citizens Are Asked to Aid the Condemned Murderer Who is Scheduled to Die in the Electric Chair This Month

The members of the Medico-Legal society of Elmira have received a blank copy of a petition which is designed to secure executive clemency for Albert T. Patrick the brilliant New York lawyer who is sentenced to Sing Sing this month. The Medico-Legal Society has conducted a rigid investigation of the manner in which Rice, the man whom it is claimed Patrick murdered, met his death and a committee appointed by the society say that death was the result of natural causes. Elmira citizens will be asked to sign the petition and it is stated that similar petitions have been sent to every city of importance in the state. Executive clemency is Patrick's last chance. For nearly six years Patrick has fought for his life in the courts, and each decision has been against him. Whether he can induce Governor Higgins to interfere in his behalf remains to be seen. Guilty or innocent, Patrick has put up a great fight and his case will go down in history as a fine example of the manner in which the machinery of the law may be used to retard the ends of justice.

EMMA BUNTING

It has been said about Miss Emma Bunting, who is to appear at the Loomis next week, that no one has ever seen this charming little lady who did not have a desire to do so again. Her piquant face, fascinating manner and perceptible flow of her art, demonstrated by the manner in which she essays her different roles, all leave an everlasting and favorable impression. Miss Bunting has the support this season of one of the strongest acting companies ever seen at popular prices. The scenic and electrical effects carried by this company are said to eclipse anything ever seen in repertoire, the construction of both having had the personal supervision of Mr. Earl Burgess. The specialties are exceedingly high class, among them being Herbert P. Powers, the popular comedian, Al Rayno's troop of bull dogs, the greatest animal act in America; Davis & Walker, colored entertainers in singing and dancing and acrobatic evolutions. Ladies' 15c tickets have been issued for Monday evening. Matinees will be given on Thursday and Saturday.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

The remains of Charles Case, who died in Granville, this county, on Thursday, were brought to the home of his mother, Mrs. Valeria Case of No. 310 North Main street yesterday, from which place the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. C. A. Brady, who is conducting revival services in the Church of Christ in West Sayre will officiate. The deceased had been a sufferer for the past three or four years from tuberculosis of the bone, and for months had been in a helpless condition. His wife died in Elmira last summer and the body was brought here for burial.

ENGINE KILLED TWO COWS

Train number 8 on the Lehigh Valley, which passes through Sayre at 8:40 each morning struck and killed two cows near Pittston Junction yesterday morning. The section where the accident occurred is known among railroad men as "the slaughter house." There are no fences in the immediate country surrounding the tracks and many of the miners keep a goat or cow. The animals manage to saunter on the Lehigh tracks about the time trains are due, and then there is an increase of mortality rate in the animal kingdom.

THE "HOT AIR ARTIST"

The telegraphic reports sent out from Sayre concerning the alleged letter from the "Black Hand" received by Ike Samuels, the Lockhart street jeweler, are making their appearance in the papers published in surrounding towns. The reports are in abbreviated form and contain the statement that one George Prentico, a New York Italian, was placed under arrest and that when searched articles of a similar nature were found upon his person. Speaking of "hot air" shooters, what do you think of this for a liberal dispensation of super-heated atmosphere.

LEFT FOR THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cary left this morning for Denver, Colorado, and upon their arrival at that place they will determine upon some point in that section in which to locate permanently. As heretofore stated in these columns Mr. and Mrs. Carey have gone to the western country hoping that the climate will be of great benefit to Mrs. Cary. Mr. and Mrs. Cary's many friends in Sayre exceedingly regret the necessity of their leaving Sayre but at the same time will wish them well wherever they may be.

RUNAWAY LAST NIGHT

A white horse attached to a light buggy dashed down Desmond street near midnight, and those who witnessed the occurrence say that the driver had lost all control of the animal, but as no one was reported killed or injured it is assumed that the frightened animal was eventually checked in its mad career.
