Will Kellogg of Milan Had a Miraculous Escape from Serious Injury Saturday Night

Athens-When he quit work at the bridge works Saturday night, Will Kellogg mounted his bicycle and started for his home at Milan. When he reached Payne street, HORSESHOEING AND GENER- opposite the Robinson house, he saw a street car coming up the street and a team coming along on Have had over thirty years' ex- the side of the street on which he 1.45 perience in practical horseshoeing was riding. He slowed up and in his efforts to dodge the team lost control of his wheel and ran into the approaching car. He was thrown violently to the ground. Two men who were passing at the time and saw the accident went to the injured man's assistance. After getting him on his feet it was found that his face was bleeding profusely from a cut over his right eye and one on his right cheek. Mr. Kellogg was taken into Dr. Holcomb's office, where his injuries were taken care of. After a short time he recovered sufficiently to continue his ride home. The wheel, though badly battered is all right, but his dinner pail was "all broke up."

Millions involved in Forgery. NEW YORK, Jan. 15.-The Seton Norfolk and Western stock forgery is rapidly unfolding itself as a gigantic plot, in which a large number of persons were concerned, to flood the country with bogus stock, principally of western and southwestern steam and electric railroads. The police have opened Seton's box in the Standard Trust company and found that it contained stock worth millions of dollars if it had the value Seton claimed for it. The $4,300,000 of bogus Norfolk and Western stock certificates were not found, however.

An Enemy Did This. NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y., Jan. 15.-The cigar factory owned by William Reich was destroyed by dynamite at 2 a. m. Fire broke out and consumed a block of six buildings, including the City Athletic's headquarters, a hotel owned by William Grose, a barber shop and two barns. Two firemen were injured by falling downstairs in the hotel after being nearly suffocated by smoke. The loss is $10,000. Enemies of Reich placed the dynamite in the ofgar factory.
