EX-JUDGE DUNHAM TO LOCATE IN SAYRE

Former Jurist of Sullivan and Wyoming Counties Making Preparations to Open a Law Office Here
Hon. Edwin M. Dunham of La Porte, ex president judge of the judicial district embracing Sullivan and Wyoming counties, was a visitor in Sayre today. Judge Dunham has for some time past been considering the advisability of locating in Sayre and opening a law office here in which to practice law. For some time he has been looking for a wider field and after mature deliberation stated to a Record representative today that he had practically determined upon Sayre as a place in which to permanently locate.

Judge Dunham is well known to many residents of Sayre and has a wide acquaintance with the members of the legal profession in the county, and for that matter throughout northern Pennsylvania. During the latter part of the late Judge Peck's term Judge Dunham was repeatedly called to Towanda as a presiding justice, on account of the former's illness. Previous to being elected to the judgeship he served as a representative in the legislature and has since attaining his majority been identified with the interests of the Republican party. He is profoundly learned in the law, is possessed of the attributes that make a good citizen and his decision to locate in this place will be received with pleasure by those who have formed his acquaintance. He has not as yet determined upon the exact date when he will move to this place, but it will probably be in the near future.

"BOB" WAS IN A FIGHTING MOOD

But When He Started in to Clean House He Was Pretty Badly Used Up

With an optic decorated in nearly all the colors of the rainbow Robert Anthony, known to his friends as plain "Bob," spent the night in the Sayre borough lockup and this morning answered to a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bob is primarily a resident of Athens but recently he has been working in Sayre. Yesterday Bob acquired a cargo of liquid refreshments and as the hour in the evening grew late he started in to clean out a crowd in a local barroom. From the appearance of his features this morning he must have underestimated the physical prowess of his antagonist, as he was nursing several abrasions of the nose and chin, together with the discolored eye.

When arraigned Bob admitted having been drunk and also to having been arrested heretofore in this place. He was fined one dollar and costs, which he paid and was allowed to depart with the admonition that if he was arrested in Sayre again on a similar charge it would go hard with him.

FUNERAL THIS MORNING

Was Walking Along Erie Tracks Near Wellsburg and Stepped in Front of Moving Passenger Train—Instantly Killed

Elmer Lepper, who has been employed in the Athens bridge works, was instantly killed by an eastbound local Erie passenger train near Wellsburg yesterday morning. Lepper was walking between the two main tracks when the train came up behind him. He evidently heard the train's approach but became bewildered and instead of stepping out of the way jumped directly in front of the engine. Lepper was thrown some distance from the tracks, and when the train crew picked him up he was dead, his neck having been broken. The remains were placed on the train and taken to Chemung where they were identified by William Griswold of that place. Lepper was a brother-in-law to Griswold and the latter had been caring for his child-ren. He was on his way to his brother-in-law's at the time he met with the accident which resulted in his death. The funeral of the deceased will be held from the home of Mr. Griswold at an hour to be announced later.

Lepper was about 40 years old and was well known in this section having been employed at the bridge works for some time.

TAXES EXONERATED

Tax Collector John Plumstead today received notice from the county commissioners to the effect that the taxes levied against the property of Helen Hawes have been exonerated. This is the case that was mentioned in the Record a few days ago, and the item assessed on the tax collector's duplicate was for money at interest. The money had been entered upon the docket of the county court as a judgment in her favor, but she claimed she had never received any interest and that it was exceedingly doubtful if she ever received the principal.

In view of the contention she absolutely refused to pay the tax and the collector was at a loss for a manner in which to proceed. The action of the commissioners in exonerating the tax has settled the question and has also relieved the tax collector from any further annoyance in the matter.

MAY DEVELOP COAL LANDS

It now seems probable that the Lehigh Valley may develop the extensive tract of coal lands east of Silver Brook. The company has always owned a tract operated by the Silver Brook coal company, which with the purchase of the Coxe property give the company possession of the richest body of coal in the anthracite region. The Coxe company proved every inch of the tract referred to and it is said that coal was found in abundance. It is bound to be developed.

SMASHED TWO TOES

Latham G. Sickler, an employee of the shop, met with a most painful injury while working with the drill press gang this forenoon. Sickler was engaged in placing a bumper beam in the press when a rope which sustained the beam broke allowing it to fall upon Sickler's left foot. The great and second toes were badly smashed and the bones in both members were broken. Sickler was taken to the hospital and after his injuries were treated he was taken to his home at South Waverly.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

All taxes must be paid on or before January 16th or five per cent will be added.

EDWARD TROINKLE
"FOUND" AGAIN

This Time the Murderer of Mrs. George Payne Is Identified by a Man Who Claims to Have Employed Him

Edward Troinkle, alias Meyers, who murdered Mrs. George Payne the wife of a Tioga county farmer, has been "found" again. This time Troinkle turns up at Ogontz, a small station near Philadelphia. The man suspected to be Troinkle was taken in custody with two others, charged with carrying concealed weapons and also with having been implicated in a safe blowing job. Jesse Vorhees, a business man who resides near Ogontz claims that one of the men under arrest is Troinkle. Vorhees says that at the time of the murder that he lived near the scene of the murder and that he knew Troinkle well. Vorhees claims that Troinkle was at one time in his employ and he is most emphatic as to the man's identity.

The man alleged by Vorhees to be Troinkle gave his name as Frank Johnston when arraigned in court, and a school teacher has also identified him as the man who shot at him some weeks ago.

The murder of Mrs. Payne occurred over four years ago and Troinkle, the man who committed the crime made good his escape after one of the most remarkable man-chasing events that has ever been recorded in the history of this section. Since the murder scores of men have been arrested at various places in this state suspected of being Troinkle, but all have thus far been released, none of them being the man wanted.

The Emma Bunting company will present tonight the sensational scenic production of Rachel Goldstein. Miss Bunting in the title role is seen at her best in this piece, her character work in this particular play having received the stamp of approval of the press and public in all of the cities where she has appeared this season. The first act is a reproduction of the steerage deck of the great ocean liner, Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. During this act one of the most realistic storms at sea ever attempted on any stage will be seen. The vaudeville features which have become so popular will all be changed at tonight's performance.
