During the past year there has —been injured.

—remain in Sayre for the present.

The weather this winter has been —kind to the railroad men. In pleas—ant weather the life of a railroad —man has its rosy side, but when the —winter winds howl and the blizzards —sweep across the country and —blocks the track the average
—trainman wishes that he was follow—ing some other vocation.

—business on Friday. There are —still about 275 shares to sell and —parties who desire to secure the —same are cautioned to attend to the —matter at once, as at the rate the —shares are going they will be dis—posed of before Saturday next.

—lacerations of three fingers of the —left hand. He got the hand under —a steam trip hammer.

OVERCOME BY HEAT

Harry Levering, a well known
—Lehigh Valley fireman, was taken —from his engine at Tunkhannock
—last night, overcome by heat. He —was brought to the hospital in Sayre

—better today.

SHOCKING SUICIDE AT VAN ETTENVILLE

Miss Katie Van Valkenburg Pours
—Oil and Turpentine on Her
—Clothing and Then Set Fire to
—It

Miss Katie Van Valkenburg,
—aged 27 years, and a daughter of a —prominent farmer who resides near —VanEttenville, committed suicide
—yesterday morning in a most shock—ing and sensational manner. The —young woman ended her existence
—by saturating her clothing with —kerosene oil and turpentine and then —setting fire to it. After igniting the —hydrocarbons she ran from the —house to the garden and sat down on —the ground. She remained in this —position until her clothing had been —literally burned from her body. A —small boy saw the burning woman —and notified his mother. The latter —secured the assistance of a neighbor —and the two women who had by —this time become frantic, attracted —the attention of several workmen —who rushed to the rescue of the —burning girl. The burning tatters
—of clothing were removed from her —body and she was wrapped in a —blanket and carried into the house.
—A physician was summoned and a —heroic effort was made to save her —life. She was conscious and when —asked why she did the horrible —deed replied that something forced —her to do it. On account of the —nerve centers having been destroyed —by the flames the woman did not —suffer excruciating pain. Death
—came to her relief about noon,
—nearly three hours after she set fire
—to her clothing.

The reason assigned for Miss
—VanValkenburg's rash act is over-—study. She had been preparing to —take an examination for a teachers' —state certificate, and it is believed —that the work temporarily unseated
—her reason. She was highly respec—ted, a prominent member and —worker in the Methodist church at —VanEttenville and the shocking
—manner in which she destroyed
—herself has startled the whole —community.

RETURN OF 'THE HOLY CITY'

None who last season witnessed —the superb performance of Clarence —Bennett's incomparable drama, The —Holy City, have forgotten the —wealth of acting, allegory, music
—and spectacle then presented, and —great is the interest manifested in —this year's production. The east—ern company, headed by Mr. Ben—nett, and much stronger than was —last season's formation, is present—ing performances that are uncom-
—monly beautiful. Numerous chan—ges have been made by the author, —each adding to the power of the —well remembered story; interpreters —of the varied characters have been —most carefully selected, the cos—tumes are new throughout and —increased scenic splendor has been —provided. In making of St. John —the Baptist, Mr. Bennett has added —to the dramatic strength of the —drama, and provided himself with —theatrical work of the highest —order. In artistic representation
—the actor's success is complete.
—The second year of this play is —greater than its first.

FELL DOWN DOOR STEPS

The three-year old son of Mr.
—and Mrs. C. R. Madison of 126
—North River street fell down the —front porch steps last night and —sustained an injury to his nose. It —was first thought that the member —was broken but an examination by —Dr. Cummings disclosed only a bad
—contusion.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS

—payable at the office of the com—pany. Ten per cent discount will —be allowed on current flat rate bills
—if paid on or before January 31st.
—Metered bills and flat rate bills for —the past quarter will be treated as —delinquent after January 20.

Two Natives of Italy Are Alleg—ed to Have Threatened Frank
—Rose With Bodily Harm

Paul Brunetti, and his step son,
—Angelo Riottic, both Italians, were —arrested this morning on the com—plaint of Frank Rose, an Italian
—storekeeper whose place of business —is in Milltown. Rose alleges that —the two men owed him and that he —commenced suit for the debt.
—Brunetti and his step son became —angry and Rose says that they —threatened him with bodily harm,
—and declares that he is afraid of —his life. A warrant was issued and —this morning Constable Brougham
—arrested the men at the shops
—where they are both employed.
—They were arraigned this morning —and held for a further hearing this —afternoon at four o'clock. Archer
—L. Laws represents the common—wealth and H. H. Mercereau, Esq., —will appear for the prisoners.

LICENSE COURT WAS HELD YESTERDAY

All the Old Licenses in Sayre
—Were Renewed but New Appli—cations Were Held Up

License court was held by Judge
—Fanning at his chambers in To—wanda yesterday. Licenses were —granted to all the old places in —Sayre with the exception of Vail
—Brothers and their application was —held up but it is expected that the —matter will be disposed of today.
—The applications of Maurice Walsh
—and John Fletcher were also held —for further consideration. In the —case of Fletcher there is a remon—strance, and evidence will be taken —before Attorney Paul Maynard on —Friday next. One of the interest—ing matters connected with the —granting of licenses in this county
—is the fact that with the exception —of one saloon license in Towanda
—Sayre has the only saloon license
—in the county.

A SIGNAL SUCCESS

William A. Whitecar at the head
—of Jules Murry's Own Company, —composed of specially selected
—members will be seen at the Loomis
—on Wednesday next in Isaac Henerson's celebrated comedy, The —Mummy and the Humming Bird,

—one of the most signal successes ever —produced. Rich in dramatic inci—dent, unique in its manner of treat—ment and brilliant in its dialogue,
—this play has won universal com—mendation.

BREAKING ALL RECORDS

A man was overcome by the —excessive heat in Philadelphia on —Sunday; a crowd wore Panama
—straw hats to a baseball game in an —Ohio town, and in Sayre men went —about in their shirt sleeves, while —on one front porch a young girl
—was seen lounging in a hammock.
—When the old resident tells you —that he remembers a winter like it —in '76 or some other year in the —dim and misty past, give him the —laugh and tell him that his memory
—is becoming defective.

PALMER WANTED HIS LITTLE SON

And When the Woman Who Is —Caring for the Child Refused
—His Request Palmer is Alleged —To Have Threatened Her

On complaint of Mrs. Lou Rob—bins, who alleges that he threaten—ed her bodily harm, Sam Palmer,
—a dissolute character was arrested
—this forenoon by Chief Walsh, tak—en before a local justice, and de—manded a hearing which will take —place this afternoon.

Palmer is living apart from his —wife. The latter created some—thing of a sensation here sometime —ago by being mixed up in the —shooting of "Scoot" VanCise by an —Italian. Since separating with his —wife, Palmer's six year old son has —been cared for by friends. Recent—ly it has been living with Mrs.
—Robbins and an order of relief was —granted to the child by the county —commissioners. Last night Palmer
—is alleged to have gone to the home —of Mrs. Robbins and demanded
—possession of the child. Mrs.
—Robbins refused to give up the boy
—whereupon she says that Palmer
—threatened her and declared that —he would wade through rivers of —blood in order to get his child.

The woman alleges that she —fears Palmer to such an extent that —she was forced to call on Officer
—Sisson for assistance.

When arraigned in court Palmer
—denied the entire charge and de—clared that all he wanted was his —child, which he intended sending —to its mother.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

The funeral of Charles Barber,
—whose death occurred early yes—terday morning, will be held from —his late home on Chemung street
—tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.
—The services will be conducted by —the Rev. J. F. Warner, pastor of —the Methodist church and the re—mains will be taken to Montrose
—for interment.

BOYS RELEASED BRAKES

Special Officer Jesse Doty of the —Lehigh Valley detective force went —to Seneca Falls yesterday and —placed under arrest several boys —who released the brakes on a —string of cars, causing them to run —down a grade and mix things up —in general. The boys will be —given a hearing later.

PRESS ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the —Northeastern Pennsylvania Press
—Association will be held in the —grand jury room in the court house
—at Towanda on Saturday next.
—New officers will be elected at this —meeting and dinner will be served
—at the Ward House.

GERMS ARE ACTIVE

This is excellent weather for —pneumonia and grip germs. When —the mercury is high and the at—mosphere heavily charged with humi—dity at this season of the year, the —germs responsible for the dis—eases mentioned are particularly —active.
