GALE RETARDS AID

Rescuers Report Survivors Clinging to Valencia.

THIRTY SOULS MAY YET BE SAVED

Tremendous Sea Prevents Near Approach to Wrecked Pacific Coast Liner at Cape Beale—Fifteen Only Saved So Far.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 25.—The rescue steamer Queen has returned here and reports that when she left the wreck there were some twenty or thirty persons clinging to the rigging.

The steamer Valencia was located by the steamer Queen on Point Klaskan, about five miles from Cape Beale.

The steamer Salvor stood in for about two miles, but was unable to go any farther, as a heavy sea and a westerly gale was blowing, making it highly dangerous.

The steamer was within three-quarters of a mile from the wreck, but could go no farther toward the Valencia, and after making as complete an examination as possible she returned to the Queen and Salvor.

Advices from Cape Beale say that fifteen men have arrived, one of whom is the boatswain, the others being sailors. They reported a passenger list of ninety-four and a crew of sixty and said that when they left the wreck there were about 100 persons on board.

The Valencia left San Francisco about 11 o'clock on Saturday last and heard no sound and saw no light presaging danger.

A Hambley dispatch says that messages demanding that a boat with coal, oil and other supplies be sent to the Valencia had been received.

Those said to be on the ship are prepared to fire a line ashore as soon as the rescuers are ready to fasten it to a bluff or a breeches buoy support.

A BAND OF ASSASSINS.

Monongahela Police Have Warrants For Thirty-one Anarchists.

PATERSON, N. J., Jan. 25.—The police of this city have traced to Monongahela, Pa., thirty-one accomplices in the alleged plot to assassinate Governor Peannypacker of Pennsylvania.

Some of the letters were apparently sent from an organization known as the Liberta Sociologia, located at 495 Madison avenue, this city.

Warrants have been issued at Monongahela for the arrest of thirty-one foreigners believed to be members of a band of anarchists whose headquarters are at Baird, Pa.

Several officers have left for Finleyville, Pa., where they expect to arrest the secretary and one other member of the organization, both of whom are employed in a coal mine.

Marshall Field's Millions. Great Bulk of Merchant Prince's Estate For Orphans.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The great bulk of the estate of Marshall Field, according to a member of the family who was present at the reading of the will, will be held undivided under trusteeship for the benefit of the three children of the late Marshall Field, Jr.

To his niece and sisters Mr. Field leaves cash gifts of $100,000 or less. Sums are left to various charities in which Mr. Field was interested.

Members of Mr. Field's family who receive bequests are Mrs. Henry F. Dibble and Mrs. L. D. James, sisters; Mrs. John C. King, Mrs. Albert A. Sprague, Mrs. Preston Gibson, Mrs. Thomas Lindsey, Mrs. Josephine Crossley, niece; Stanley Field and other members of the family of John Field, a brother.

The fact that Mrs. Marshall Field, Sr., who as Mrs. Arthur Catton was married to Mr. Field last September, is not included, so far as known, among the large bequests apparently confirms the story that she received a wedding present of a large sum of money from her husband.

The chief beneficiaries of the will are Marshall Field 3d, twelve years old; Henry Field, nine, and Gwendolyn Field, four years old.

LODGE IN DEFENSE

Santo Domingo and Moroccan Policies Stir Senate.

PRESIDENT'S ACTIONS DISCUSSED.

Senator From Maryland Contended Participation at Algiers Was the Only Way and Quoted Precedents.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Mr. Lodge presented in the senate his views on the policy of the administration in the matter of the Algerias conference over Morocco and also with reference to Santo Domingo.

Defending the attitude of the president, Mr. Lodge said that the president had as much right to ask the privilege of inspecting the secret journals of the senate as the instructions given by the executive to his representatives at the conference.

He gave a list of twenty or more international conferences in which the United States had participated and said that if we are to be cut out of such participation "most of the great and beneficent things achieved by international conferences would be impossible."

He said the president had even been criticized for the part he had taken in bringing to a close the bloody war between Japan and Russia.

With reference to the attitude of the United States toward Santo Domingo, Mr. Lodge said that he had not been correctly reported by Mr. Tillman when the South Carolina senator had reported him as saying that this was a "new departure."

TO STUDY AMERICA

Chinese Imperial Envoys Received by Roosevelt.

PRESENT LETTER FROM THE EMPEROR

Welcomed to United States, President Said, "We Hold a Kindly Sympathy For the Eastern Empire and Its People."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—China's Imperial commission, sent to the United States to study American conditions—social, educational and industrial—was received formally by President Roosevelt at the White House.

The commissioners were accompanied by Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister to Washington; Charles Denby, chief clerk, and Professor Jeremiah W. Jenks of Cornell University, representing the state department, and ten members of the commission's staff.

"We have the honor to place in your excellency's hands the letter entrusted to us for delivery by our august sovereign, his majesty the emperor of China. We consider ourselves fortunate in that the discharge of this agreeable duty has given us the much appreciated opportunity of paying our respects to the greatest champion of peace, who is at the same time the staunchest friend of China.

The president replied: "In the name of my fellow countrymen I have great pleasure in welcoming you to the United States. Entertaining as we do, feelings of sincere amity and of the highest regard for your people, whose progress in invention and discovery stretches back through the centuries to eras which to the communities of the west are prehistoric, we, who stand among the younger nations, are glad to all opportunities to bring our peoples closer together and to diffuse among each a better knowledge of mutual interests tending to mutual advantage.
