

Are You Troubled With Eye Strain?

Eye Strain is Not a Disease

But arises from mechanical defects in the construction of the eye or its controlling muscles. Relief in such cases can only be had through application of suitable glasses made to correct all existing defects. I make a special study of eyesight testing in all its branches and can assure a perfect correction wherever it exists.

I Do Not Use Drops

Belladonna, Atropine or other mydriatic, injurious drugs, all of them, and belonging to a past stage in the science of optics as applied to eyesight testing. I make use of the latest and most improved scientific instruments for determining the possible presence of defects, and to measure accurately all errors of refraction and muscles.

I Recommend Glasses

Only when positively needed and clearly promising good results. Considering the character of the work I do my charge for a thorough examination of the eyes and glasses is moderate.

RUNS COFFEE HOUSE.

Noted London Divine Engages in Movement to Reach and Help the Poor.

That leading religious workers are coming more and more to appreciate new methods in reaching the masses is constantly being emphasized. The news comes from London that Rev. F. B. Meyer, whose books and Bible lectures in this country have exerted such deep influence upon the religious life of the people of recent years, is going to run a coffee house. He has taken at his own risk the "Old Nelson," which stands in a populous and degenerate locality not far from Mr. Meyer's church in Westminster Bridge Road. "I have determined," he says, "to make that place a blessing and a lighthouse to the whole neighborhood."

Of the project the London correspondent of the Record of Christian Work has this to say:

"The scheme will cost a good deal of money to get it started, but Mr. Meyer is confident that it will prove a good investment in more ways than one. He wants a place where he and his workers can send the hungry people they have to deal with to get a meal. He is anxious also to provide working girls with accommodation for cheap and wholesome meals. There is a large hall connected with the Nelson, and it is Mr. Meyer's intention to use this for dinners during the day, while at night it will be open as a social center for the carrying on of good work. In avowed opposition to the bad work of the public house, it will be kept open each evening as long as the public houses, and a little longer, so that a place may be at hand where the workers from Christ church may take the drunken people they pick up on the streets."

CONQUESTS IN ASSAM.

Missionary at Impur Tells of Remarkable Progress of the Gospel Among Natives.

In addition to the news of recent baptisms in the Naga hills, Rev. W. F. Dowd, of Impur, sends the following striking illustration:

"A few days ago one of the leading men in our nearest village gave a feast to visiting friends from Unga. All the participants have from the beginning been hostile to Christianity, and none of them even now show any signs of being converted. But when they made their after-dinner speeches, and had gone over their history from the creation of the universe and related all the great deeds of valor done by their respective men of renown, they finally ended by saying: 'What is the use of all this? We have from the beginning tried our best to keep the new custom from gaining a foothold in the country, but we might as well try to stop the sun and moon from rising. When it got started in the lower and smaller villages then we said, We will at least keep it out of the big villages. The more, however, we try to dam up the stream the faster it goes. Now we are surrounded. The whole tribe is filled with the white man's religion. We are like men surrounded in battle and there is no use in fighting longer. If we are to continue as leaders of the people we ought to become Christians ourselves, and this we cannot do without giving up our sins. We do not know what to do.'"

King Alfonso's Woeing.

BIARRITZ, France, Jan. 27.—King Alfonso returned to Biarritz and lunched privately with Princess Ena of Battemberg and her mother, Princess Henry. His majesty took Princess Ena on a trip to Bayonne in Lord Dudley's automobile. Alfred Woodruff, a young man about eighteen years old, was arrested last night on complaint of J. F. Vail, who alleges that Woodruff left his hotel last October leaving an unpaid board bill amounting to $60. Woodruff recently returned to Sayre and when arrested was considerably intoxicated and he was held until 10 o'clock this morning for a hearing. He settled the matter but was immediately rearrested on complaint of Mrs. James McBride, who also wanted settlement for an unpaid board bill. He will have a hearing this afternoon.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Republican Caucus Saturday Night

Consider the candidates for Tax Collector. Reason, judge for yourself the one you should support.

If I am worthy, after 32 years living in Sayre, and my past record is sufficient to qualify me to properly fill the office, vote for J. M. Bowman.

If M. P. Hause, after his long citizenship is able to qualify, vote for him.

If John Plumstead, after serving six years as tax collector, and receiving about $7,000 for the work, is entitled to three more years, vote for him.

Never in the political past in Sayre has one man held office, except that of justice of the peace, more than two terms. The policy of the party has always been against it, and wisely so. "Equal opportunities for all." Otherwise if allowed, your chances—the young man's chances would never come. No one man was ever so good in an office that his place could not be filled by another. Think for a moment, and decide fairly and courageously. Let not your sympathies sway you. Right is right. The right of franchise is given you for this one thing. I solicit your patronage,

Joseph M. Bowman,

313 Chemung St., Sayre, Pa.
